MEMORABLE DATE

T. G. HAILEY HAS CAUSE TO NOTE FOURTH OF JULY.

His Birthday, the Anniversary of His Marriage and the Date Upon Which He Began the Practice of Law With a Thirteen-Book Library—July 13 Has Been no Hoodoo for Him.

It frequently happens that the pathway of men through life is marked by milestones to which are attached special significance. Sometimes they cause the pilgrim to take a retrospective view that induced a spirit of elation and sometimes of sadness. In the case of Attorney T. G. Hailey this day is one of the milestones; nor do any but happy remembrances associate with its arrival. In the first place, this is the well known lawyer's birthday. He has no stronger reason to be sorrowful on that account than have most of the descendants of Adam. Next, it is the anniversary of his wedding, and when he strokes the hair of his little ones playing around his knee, he feels no regret that he passed the period of single blessedness long ago. And a more remarkable coincidence is that the day is also the anniversary of the date on which he embarked on a professional career in Pendleton.

When Mr. Hailey arrived in Pendleton 15 years ago today, he was the proud possessor of 13 law books and a very small amount of capital. Thirteen proved no hoodoo in his case—in fact, he admits that it is his lucky number—for today he has a large library and has made good interest on the capital he originally invested. His official and professional

LEADING DRUGGISTS

IT FREQUENTLY HAPPENS

That people who make individual loans are bothered in the collection of interest; that they often have difficulty in getting back the principal, and sometimes lose it altogether. Those who deposit their money in this bank are not thus annoyed, for here they get their interest promptly every six months. And better still, they have the satisfaction of feeling that their money is at all times safe, and that the bank is prepared to pay back the principal when needed.

MORE CHANGES ON O. R. & N.

OFFICE OF TRAINMASTER WILL BE CREATED.

Thomas Walsh Who Has Been Chief Dispatcher at La Grande for 18 Years Will Be Promoted to New Position—Other Promotion in the Dispatcher's Office Will Take Place R. Buckley Becoming Chief Dispatcher.

Further and more important changes in the management of the O. R. & N. are slated for the La Grande division under the rearrangement of the Harriman system. Heretofore the management of trains has been entirely under control of the chief dispatcher, Thomas Walsh, a veteran railroad man, having held that responsible position in La Grande for the past 18 years. Increasing business and more complicated features of management necessitate the distribution of duties among a greater number of men, and following the removal of Assistant Superintendent Buckley to Portland, the office of trainmaster will be created, and Thomas Walsh, who has been chief dispatcher, will be tendered the position which, in addition to the duties of handling the trains and crews, will also include the important duty of apportioning tonnage to trains and regulating traffic.

This promotion of Mr. Walsh will necessitate other promotions, which will immediately take place. After the office of trainmaster is actually created, R. Buckley, who is now second "trick" dispatcher, will be made chief dispatcher, Ed Walsh will be first "trick" dispatcher, P. A. McLoughlin, now third "trick," will be made second, and F. L. Hummel, now an operator in The Dalles, will be made "third" dispatcher.

This rearrangement is in accordance with the general organization of the Harriman system, and will prevail all over the O. R. & N. system and also over the Southern Pacific.

Mr. Walsh will have his headquarters at La Grande and will have complete control of all trains, the tonnage they pull, the speed they shall make under special circumstances, the hiring and discharge of men, and the general supervision of the traffic of the road, as far as movement is concerned.

The chief dispatcher will have charge of the other three dispatchers, will order trains, cars, and engines when wanted, and the three subordinate dispatchers will have direct control of trains while they are on duty, making meeting points, issuing orders for each train, and being responsible to the chief dispatcher for all train movement during their hours of duty.

FRANTZ GULCH ROAD.

Preliminaries Taken Toward Its Permanent Repair.

As a result of action taken by the board of county commissioners this morning, County Judge Bean has issued an order instructing County Surveyor Kimbrell to make surveys looking to the repair of road No. 545, running from the old Seth Richard place up Frantz gulch. The recent storms washed out 120 rods of the old road, rendering it impassable.

George Roberts, the owner of land through which the road runs, has agreed to deed to the county a strip of land adjacent to and parallel with the damaged road for $25 an acre. The survey will determine how much land must be purchased. The surveyor is to make a report to the county court at the July term.

Robinson, the north 1/2 of lots 1 and 2, in block 9 of Athena, $1000; Thomas P. and Mary M. Mosely, lots 1, 2, 10, 11 and 12 in block 8, Knowlton's addition to Athena, $1600.

NEW SCHOOL HOUSE.

No. 102 Will Put Four Hundred Dollars Into It.

McKay school district No. 102 is to have a new school house. At a recent meeting of the board of directors it was decided to tear down the old building, which has never given satisfaction and put up a new one at a cost of about $400.

It will be a one-room structure, 20x30 feet in dimensions. Plans and specifications are in preparation by Mays & McFarland, the architects, and the board will advertise for bids immediately.

It is expected that work on the building will begin in about two weeks. C. C. Morse, one of the directors, was in the city today in company with Architect McFarland on business connected with the building project.

HOLMES-CANE CASE

NOT EASY TO ESTABLISH THE RESPONSIBILITY.

Holmes Has Left the Hospital—There is Doubt About His Prosecuting Cane, Whom He Struck While Kneeling—Deputy District Attorney Will Investigate the Case Fully.

Whether or not M. J. Cane, the O. R. & N. yardmaster, will be prosecuted for striking W. A. Holmes, the railway carpenter, on the head with a shovel depends largely on the statement of Sam Hayes, another railway employe, who witnessed the encounter.

Deputy District Attorney Collier and his law partner, J. P. Winter, went to the hospital Monday and had a talk with Holmes, who left that institution yesterday. At that time Holmes said he did not care to prosecute Cane, as he felt that both were to blame for the difficulty. Holmes said Cane cursed him when he let a part of a sidewalk which was being repaired fall on the yardmaster's foot, and that he struck Cane while the latter was kneeling. Then the yardmaster used a shovel on him.

That Holmes should admit so freely that he struck Cane while the latter was kneeling, is looked on as a suspicious circumstance by the deputy district attorney. He thinks it may be possible that Holmes is apprehensive he will lose his position if he prosecutes Cane. For this reason he has determined to see Hayes and has sent for him twice, without response.

"I have been very busy in the last few days," said Mr. Collier, "but if Hayes does not call at my office by tomorrow evening I shall have a subpoena issued for him."

SUIT FOR DIVORCE.

Gottlieb Miller Alleges Unjust Treatment by His Wife.

If the allegations contained in a suit for divorce filed this morning with County Clerk Saling by Gottlieb Miller are true, Mrs. Sophia Miller has a bad temper, and when angry unbottles her wrath on her husband's head. He avers that frequently her cholera has taken the form of calling him names. The illustrations of her "cuss" vocabulary given in the document on file are not found in religious pamphlets.

Miller and his wife are both residents of Umatilla county. He declares that her cruel treatment of him began about four years ago, and that a year later she deserted him and left him to carry the burdens of life in single harness. Further, he asserts, she has refused to care for their little boy, William Gottlieb Miller, aged 4 years, and has informed the plaintiff that she will never live with him again.

In addition to a divorce, Miller asks the court for the custody of the boy. Carter & Raley appear as his attorneys.

THE SEASON AT MILTON.

Harvest in Full Progress—Melons Will Ripen Late.

Two boxes of fine peaches were sent to the city this afternoon by Sam Simard, whose ranch is located about three and a half miles north of Milton. They were hauled by Lester Long, who also brought in several boxes of blackberries.

"Wheat headers started up a week ago on a number of ranches around Milton," said Long. "Cockburn's header and thresher began operations yesterday. All the wheat around Milton this year will be of the best quality, and little was damaged by the storms."

Long has a watermelon and muskmelon patch about two miles from Milton. He says that the season is rather late this year, as watermelons will not ripen before August 10. Muskmelons will be in, however, in about a week.
