IRRIGATION WORK

NATIONAL COMMITTEE—MAN PRAISED.

Says the Undeveloped Area Lying Around That City Equals Any Along the Colorado River—Spokane Could Support a Population of Half a Million if the Big Bend Project is Carried Out.

"Spokane could expect to grow rapidly to a city of 500,000 population, if the Big Bend irrigation project now under examination by the government should be put through."

That is the carefully expressed opinion of C. B. Boothe, chairman of the board of directors of the National Irrigation association, to the Spokesman-Review. Mr. Boothe, who is also executive chairman of the twelfth annual irrigation congress, to be held in El Paso, Texas, November 15, 16, 17 and 18, addressed a special meeting of the Spokane chamber of commerce yesterday afternoon. Accompanied by his wife and daughter, he is on his way to his Los Angeles home. After a trip on the "Seeling Spokane" car, the ladies were entertained by Mrs. D. T. Ham and Mrs. A. S. Crowder, while Mr. Boothe addressed the chamber of commerce.

"One year ago today," said the speaker, "the executive committee of the National Irrigation Association decided that the irrigation idea ought to be pressed throughout the East. In Southern California three years ago, when the Southern California section of the association was organized, we started with 250 members, and with an executive committee of 17. I was made chairman of the executive committee, and it was decided that we would open headquarters in New York to agitate the irrigation idea."

"I was asked one day at lunch what it would cost to maintain such headquarters for one year, and replied that it could be done for $500 a month. I was next asked if I would take charge of the headquarters on a salary, and replied that I had never drawn a dollar salary and did not care to begin it then, but that if the association would raise the money, I would give one year of my time to the work."

"That occurred at 1:30 in the afternoon, and at 3 o'clock the same afternoon the president of the grocers' association called me up by telephone and asked me to pack my trunk and start for New York. He said the necessary money had been guaranteed to keep the office running for one year. In the work I have done the past year I have worked just as hard for irrigation in Washington, Idaho, Montana and Oregon as in California."

"When I went to New York we had 350 members there of the national association. They had been obtained among the business men of the city by western customers inviting them to aid the movement, and of course their interest in the work was merely nominal. My work has been to visit these members and arouse their practical interest and co-operation, and in this way we were able to interest the New York delegation in irrigation measures in congress. That work was made possible by the liberality and enterprise of the business men of Los Angeles."

"I have been surprised," continued Mr. Boothe, "since looking over the map and noting Spokane's location, at the close parallel between your situation and that of Los Angeles. Some time ago, in connection with the project to reclaim 1,000,000 acres of arid lands along the Colorado river, I asked Mr. Huntington, who has invested about $10,000,000 in electric lines in and around Los Angeles, and who was contemplating the investment of another $10,000,000, if he had considered the influence that would be exerted on Los Angeles by this great work. He replied that he had; that he had not invested his $10,000,000 blindly, and that as a result of his studies and calculations he was convinced that this 1,000,000 acres could not be put under cultivation without building Los Angeles up to a city of 500,000 population."

"In the country of which Spokane is the center you have more than a million acres of arid land that is just as good and susceptible of reclamation and high cultivation as that along the Colorado."

NIP IT IN THE BUD.

First Appearance of Dandruff a Forerunner of Future Baldness.

That such is the case has been conclusively proven by scientific research. Prof. Unna, the noted European skin specialist, declares that dandruff is the burrowed-up cuticle of the scalp, caused by parasites destroying the vitality in the hair bulb. The hair becomes lifeless, and, in time, falls out. This can be prevented.

Newbro's Herpicide kills this dandruff germ, and restores the hair to its natural softness and abundance.

Herpicide is now used by thousands of people—all satisfied that it is the most wonderful hair preparation on the market to-day.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

BIG LEAD MERGER.

End of Competition Between Two Great Companies.

New York, July 21.—It is said on good authority that the plan for the merger of the National Lead Company and the United Lead Company will be favorably acted upon at today's meeting of the directors of the National Lead Company and that the deal will be consummated at an early date. Reports have been current at different times during the last two years that the rival lead interests would get together. Negotiations have at times been held looking to such a result. Each time, however, they came to naught, and the rivalry became more bitter. It seems that it was this rivalry which was directly responsible for bringing the two interests together.

It is believed that in the proposed merger the National Lead Company will take over only the manufacturing plants of its rival, and that the mining interests owned by the Guggenheim-Ryan combine—which also controls the United Lead Company—will be otherwise disposed of. If this plan is carried out the mining properties of the United Lead Company will probably be turned over to the American Smelting and Refining Company, which is also controlled by the Guggenheim-Ryan people.

CATHOLIC SOCIETIES.

Detroit, Mich., July 21.—The largest gathering of Catholic laymen ever held in the United States will assemble in Detroit next week on the occasion of the annual convention of the American Federation of Catholic Societies. The gathering will be formally opened Tuesday morning with pontifical high mass at St. Mary's church. Bishop Foley will officiate and the visiting archbishops will assist. There will be two public meetings held during the week, and among the speakers will be Rev. Thomas J. Campbell of New York, on "Socialism;" Judge Paul Carpenter of Milwaukee on "The Church and Society;" and Conde Patton of New York, on "Christian Education."

Weak Hearts

are caused by indigestion. If you eat a little too much, or if you are subject to attacks of indigestion, the stomach expands—swells, and puffs up against the heart. This crowds the heart and shortens the breath. Rapid heart beats and heart disease is the final result. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat, takes the strain off the heart, cures indigestion, dyspepsia, sour stomach and contributes nourishment, strength and health to every organ of the body. ### NEW S. P. STOCK ISSUE.

The proceeds will be used to refund a large amount of obligations maturing during the next few years and will also enable the company to make large expenditures for betterments and additions to existing lines, as well as for new equipment, new steamships and the completion of the piers at Galveston and other large improvements already under way.

"Trib" Beats Anything I Ever Heard of.

Falls City, Neb., April 17, 1904.

About you "TRIB" I want to say it beats anything I ever heard of as a cure for the liquor and tobacco habits as well as to give strength to one's nerves. I took "TRIB" about a year ago and will always speak a good word for your treatment wherever I can. I have seen enough of "TRIB" to know that if a man wants a cure of liquor and tobacco he can get it with "TRIB." Respectfully,
