Mrs. R. Jones and children returned to Echo this morning.
Mrs. N. H. Sitton, of Portland, is visiting friends in Pendleton.
G. B. Atkinson, of Moscow, is registered at the Pendleton today.
Mrs. May Stanton, of Bingham Springs, is at the St. George today.
Mrs. L. Williams, of Meacham, is in the city today, registered at the Bickers.
Cecil Wade, who was taken seriously ill at his office yesterday, is much improved today.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fishman, of the Domestic Laundry, have gone to Hildaway Springs for a week's outing.
Miss Merna De Pear of Athena, who has been the guest of Miss Minnie Gross for the past week, returned home today.
C. H. Reynolds, of Freewater, is in town today, coming down to give testimony in a land controversy from that neighborhood.
Alvin Baumeister, of Walla Walla, who has been visiting relatives in this city for the past two days, returned home this morning.
A. Le Roy, of Portland, is at the Bickers, after a trip through the Eastern part of the county in the interest of the Oregon Information Bureau.
H. L. Coker, of Big Meadows, is in Pendleton today to make final proof on his homestead. He is accompanied by Horace Gillespie, one of his witnesses.
J. T. Wolfe, of Walla Walla, here on one of his semi-occasional business trips, returned home this morning. He is agent for a school furnishing house.
R. T. Pettigill and wife, parents of Mrs. J. F. Beckwith, returned to Spokane this morning, after a protracted visit here. Their permanent home is at Spokane.
Antone Vey, one of the sheep kings of Eastern Oregon, is over from Pendleton today on a business visit and is registered at the Hotel Sommer.—La Grande Chronicle.
George Minger and family are in the neighborhood of Cambridge, Idaho, where Mr. Minger and his brother-in-law, James McDonald, own 8000 head of sheep. They will return in about a month.
Mrs. R. L. Oliver and her daughter Grace and son Roland have gone to Newport for their summer vacation and will be absent a month. Mr. Oliver will follow in about a week, to remain for a few days.
Richard Scott, commissioner for the Lewis and Clark fair, will leave this evening for La Grande. Yesterday Mr. Scott returned from Pomeroy, Wash. He will return to Pendleton before going back to his home in Milwaukee.

Louis Winters, who lives three and a half miles northwest of Milton, is in town today on business. He has been a resident of this county, but not continually, for 22 years. Mr. Winters, though a German by birth, has been a great traveler, and has been in every state of the Union except the six New England states.

MEACHAM BRIDGE.

False Work Completed, and Concret-ing Will Begin August 1.

William Thomas, who has charge of the rock crusher at the new O. R. & N. Meacham bridge, is in town for a few days' vacation. He will return to Meacham in time to report for duty Monday morning, at which time the false work will be ready for the concrete.
The work preliminary to putting in the false work required more labor and time than had been provided for in the original estimates, as it proved to be farther to bed rock than expected. The clearances have all been made, however, and the concreting will be pushed along immediately.

Fifty men are engaged at the Meacham bridge on excavating and rock work alone. The carpenter gang is a force not enumerated in this number.

FILES NEW COMPLAINT.

Mrs. Mary S. Campbell Makes Changes in Her Allegations Against Her Husband.

When Mary S. Campbell, yesterday afternoon was allowed to withdraw her petition asking for a divorce from Edwin F. Campbell, it was thought the troubles in the family were at an end. Not so. Today the woman filed a second complaint to have the bonds of wedlock dissolved.

The complaint filed today in the state circuit court and the one dismissed yesterday are different, only in the fact that the charge of adultery contained in the old one is eliminated from the new. Neglect and other such acts, Mrs. Campbell be-

GREATLY IMPROVED.

Philadelphia Capitalist Travels Through Umatilla County.

C. Borie Rhodes, of Philadelphia, has just left, going northward into Washington after spending several days here the guest of the electric company people and other friends. Mr. Rhodes is a capitalist, and besides sharing in the ownership of the new light and power company, is seeking other investments in the Northwest. He is a brother-in-law of S. D. Slinker, who is also an associate in the company.

Mr. Rhodes was piloted through the county by W. C. Burgess, the superintendent of the electric light plant, and did not conceal that he was greatly impressed and pleased with the business outlook here.

McKAY CROPS GOOD.

Despite the Pests the Barley Yield Will Be Over Average.

In spite of the fact that grasshoppers and the rains damaged the crop, J. D. Sloan of Upper McKay creek, who is in Pendleton today, declares that the barley yield in that portion of the county will be fair, and perhaps a little above the average.
"We are not doing anything to kill the grasshoppers," said Mr. Sloan. "They are not as bad now as they were earlier in the month. The rains cut down the yield considerably, too, but I think we will be able to realize a fairly good crop."

ASCENT OF MT. HOOD.

First Party to Scale the Old Peak From South Side This Year.

The first ascent of Mt. Hood from the south side this season was made last Friday by a party from Government camp, says the Oregon Daily Journal. Thirteen set out for the ascent, of whom nine reached the summit. The successful climbers are Prof. S. N. Downs and his son Chester, Mrs. J. P. Morgan, Miss Esther Gill, Ralph Gill, A. Wirborg, Miss C. R. Trowbridge, O. C. Yocum, the veteran guide, and his assistant, J. F. Kamph.

The day was clear and the view unobstructed except that clouds covered the Willamette valley throughout the day. There were no mishaps, but the widening of the great crevasse across the arete necessitated a long detour to the west.

Odd Fellows Notice. All members of Integrity Lodge No. 92, I. O. O. F., are requested to meet at their hall this Thursday evening at 8 o'clock for the purpose of making arrangements for the funeral of our late brother, J. E. Hainey. ED MORGAN, Noble Grand.

J. E. BEAM, Secretary.

Dr. Le Roy to Helix. Dr. A. Le Roy goes to Helix this evening to secure the co-operation of the people of that neighborhood in the work of securing an exhibit for the Portland Information Bureau. He will return with grain samples from the most typical grain producing district in the United States.

Heavy Alfalfa Yield. R. L. Oliver has been down on the ranch west of town for several days. The second cutting of alfalfa on the ranch yielded more than the average second cutting, and the quality is good.

Residence Nearly Finished. The new Minkley residence, at the corner of Willow and Alta streets, will be ready for occupancy in about a week, so the contractors, Sheek & Cole, promise. A new fence is being built around the premises.

UNIQUE IN THEIR WAY

PEOPLES WAREHOUSE BELIEVES IN MAKING LOSSES EARLY, IF LOSSES MUST BE MADE.

The building improvements at this great store have had the effect of upsetting the different stocks. We find more washable goods suitable for summer and evening wear, on hand than we care to have, and we are not ashamed to tell it. We don't intend carrying it over until next year. We intend to make you help us reduce the stock and clean it up. To that end the prices are cut in half for Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Those of you, and there are many who bought their summer dresses at the Peoples Warehouse, come and see the same material sold at one-half the regular price. We propose to make a loss and benefit the public with goods they can use now and not next winter. Remember just three days, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. It pays to trade at the Peoples Warehouse.
