PERSONAL MENTION

Mrs. James Davis, of Ridge, is in town today.

F. B. Holbrook, of Irrigon, is in Pendleton today.

Henry C. Adams, of Weston, was in Pendleton last night.

J. M. Bryan, of Spokane, is a guest of Hotel St. George today.

A. Smythe of Arlington, father of Dan Smythe, is in town on a business deal.

W. T. Shaw, who has been down on business, returned to Freewater this morning.

Miss Agnes Fletcher went to Adams this morning, where she will visit for a few days.

Lynn Caldwell, of Sumpter, is in the city the guest of his school chum, Orville G. Edwards.

Mrs. Jack Skiles accompanied her husband to Adams this morning, and will return this evening.

C. E. Dupuis, a prominent citizen of Weston, is a visitor in our city today.—La Grande Chronicle.

Fay Guyon, the only culprit to appear in the police court this morning, was fined $2 for disorderly conduct.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Frazier have returned from an extended visit to Kansas, Missouri and the St. Louis fair.

C. F. Vandewater, city ticket agent for the Oregon Railway & Navigation Company at Walla Walla, was in Pendleton last night.

A. F. Miller, of Portland, who has been at the Bickers for several days, while gathering exhibits for the Lewis and Clark fair, left for Athens this morning.

Rev. Warner and family will leave next week for various Columbia river points, where they will visit until after the conference at The Dalles, and perhaps longer.

Rev. G. W. Rigby and wife and their daughter, Mrs. Hales of Salem, will go to Meacham tomorrow. Mrs. Arthur Rigby, who is in poor health, has preceded them.

Dr. C. J. Smith will attend the Development League convention at Portland if he can possibly get away at that time, but has serious doubts about being able to do so.

J. M. Ferguson intends to go to Portland next Tuesday and Wednesday to attend the Development League convention. He is intensely interested in its purposes.

Willard Bond returned from Lehman Springs last evening, and in company with Will Temple will return to the springs this evening, and the two will camp there until September 1.

J. L. Burke, of Salt Lake City, prominent in mining and stock circles, left Pendleton last night for Spokane. Mr. Burke while in this city was the guest of his uncle, J. C. Lowergan.

During the absence of Rev. Warner, G. W. Rigby, B. F. Brown and Dr. Coleman will supply the Methodist pulpit. Others are expected to preach, but these are the only sure supply men known at this time.

Mrs. May Stanton has returned from a three weeks' vacation, during which time she visited all the principal Sound points and Spokane. She resumed her travels for the Spokesman-Review this morning, going north on the Spokane train.

Mrs. Kate Frasier, who arrived over from Pendleton on a visit to her sister, Mrs. Jap Stevens, went to Hot Lake this morning to try the beneficial results of those famous waters. She was accompanied by Mrs. Stevens.—La Grande Chronicle.

E. P. Dodd regrets that it will not be possible for him to attend the Development League convention at Portland. He fully approves of its purposes, and believes if properly managed the organization and the meeting can accomplish much good.

RETIRES TODAY.

J. F. Nowlin Will Engage in the Real Estate Business.

After eight years in the service of Umatilla county, School Superintendent J. F. Nowlin, at 5 o'clock this afternoon turned over the affairs of his office to Frank K. Welles. Mr. Welles will begin his new duties Monday.

The retiring superintendent, who has held the office three successive terms, will engage in the real estate business in this city. Prior to his election to the office of superintendent, Mr. Nowlin was principal of the public school at Weston. When first elected the term of office of county school superintendent was two years. During Mr. Nowlin's second tenure the term was increased to four years.

Mr. Welles, the new superintendent, has been a resident of Umatilla county for several years, and is a prominent educator of Eastern Oregon.

IN PROBATE COURT.

Petition to Appoint Administrator of Pennick Estate.

Mrs. Mary L. Pennick, widow of the late Allen T. Pennick, of Adams, today petitioned the county court that letters of administration be given her son, S. A. Pennick. Allen T. Pennick died intestate, and according to the petition of Mrs. Pennick, leaves an estate valued at about $5000. It consists of three-quarters of a section of farming land near Adams, and personal property valued at $150.

The heirs at law are: The widow, Albert R. Pennick, of Portland; Mrs. Carrie Nye, of Athens, and Eva S. A. Stella and Effie Pennick, of Adams.

Dick Adams filed a petition asking that the will of Phebe E. Adams, of McKay creek, who died June 23 last, be admitted to probate. The estate is valued at $1000.

Martin L. McLaughlin was appointed guardian of the person and estate of Martin McLaughlin, a minor, upon the filing of a bond of $500. The boy's parents are dead and the guardian is an uncle. The estate consists of a half section of land in township 1, north of range 36, and personal property, the entire value of which is about $800.

O. R. & N. OFFICIALS.

Ex-Roadmaster Bollons Is in Charge of Rebuilding.

M. J. Buckley, superintendent of the Oregon division; D. W. Campbell, superintendent of the Washington division; J. P. Newell, division engineer at Portland; J. H. Robb, division engineer at Tekoa, all of the O. R. & N., were all in town this morning, arriving on an early train. Most of the party have gone, or will go north. Messrs. Buckley and Campbell went west on No. 21.

Nothing could be learned to supplement the fact of the discontinuance of the roadmaster's department, farther than that Mr. Bollons is now engaged in superintending track laying on the Council-Kaholontz section, now in process of rebuilding. Nothing could be learned relating to Mr. Bollons' field of operations after the completion of the work upon which he is now engaged.

HIGH PRICE OF TIMBER.

Southern Oregon People Form a Pool to Protect Land Owners.

Two thousand dollars is the price which has been offered by timber buyers to about 250 people holding claims in Northern Yamath, Lake and Southern Crook counties, says the Klamath Republican.

The most of the timber is owned by Albany people, and comprises a compact group of fine yellow pine claims, which were located about two years ago. Last fall the owners formed a combination known as the Albany Timber Pool, and agreed to hold their claims together until January 1, 1905, for a price of $3000 each.

A vote was taken on the offer of $2000, but failed to get a two-thirds vote of those interested. The tract includes the best of the timber in that section of the state, and it is believed the price agreed upon can be secured.

At present negotiations are still pending between the members of the pool and the timber buyers, the latter endeavoring to pick up as many claims outside of the pool in that vicinity as possible for $1000 each.

NANCY HANK'S COLT.

Famous Trotter is Proving to Be a Good Brood Mare.

Work comes from New England, where the old mare is owned, that Nancy Hanks, former champion trotter, has foaled a fine colt by Bingen and that the youngster has been named Malcolm Forbes, in honor of the mare's late owner.

When Nancy Hanks sold for about $4000 at auction a few weeks ago, the purchaser of the mare, Mayor J. M. Johnson of Calais, Me., said that if her foal was a stallion and was born straight and sound, he would feel that he had his money's worth in securing a colt by Bingen out of such a mare.

It will be recalled that Admiral Dewey, by Bingen and out of Nancy Hanks, trotted to a record of 2:14 1/4 as a 3-year-old, and that Lord Roberts, her Arion colt, could beat 2:20 last season at 2 years of age.

Special Meeting I. O. O. F.

All the members of Integrity lodge No. 22, of the I. O. O. F., are requested to meet at their hall at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon for the purpose of escorting to the train the remains of their comrade, A. E. Halsey, which will be shipped to the East.
