PROGRESS OF TRANSPORTATION

Novel Exhibition of Land and Water Craft at 5. Louis.

St. Louis, July 30.-This was Transportation Day on the World's fair calendar, and it proved one of Thiory of Hawali and most interesting and novel of the tary manipulation of special day celebrations yet held at the exposition. The program was in charge of the officials and exhibitors of the Transportation building.

During the day there were two parades, one on land and one on ter, designed to show the evolution of transportation methods from the for in the island, water craft of primitive times and the severy sugar planta carts and pack-mules of early days to the palace steamship and Pullman cars in which the luxury loving pub-
