Depressed Cattle Market.

Montana cattlemen are in the val-y picking up cattle at remarkably low prices, some sales being made at $18 per head, and all calves to go South the constant and all calves to go with the cows at that price. The market is very dull, and things begin to look pretty blue for stockmen. Feed and pasturage are scarce and many are compelled to sell at this price. Eugene Guard.

The Cook Approved. Out in Columbia road lives a gentle woman of ample means, who recently advertised for a cook. The establishment is entirely in accord with an excellent social position, but is by no means pretentious, so when a well recommended cook called and mentioned her price as $40 a month the lady of HAILEY & LOWELL, ATTORNEYS AT inw. Office in Despain block. the house answered that a wage of that figure was quite out of the question. The cook dwelt a little on her superior ability in the matter of getting up smart luncheons and dinners, but isw, office in Savings Bank building. the mistress of the house answered that she wouldn't think for a moment of paying $40 for a cook. The cheflady rose to depart. She was perfectly affable, and the gentlewoman's determinution evidently impressed her as most commendable. "I see how it is," she said approvingly. "You are trying to live within your income."
