TO BEAT ROAD TAX

CASE OF POWER PLANT LABORERS TO BE ARGUED.

Company Will Attempt to Prove That Its Employees Have Other Homes Than Umatilla County—Cites a Case in Multnomah County Where Road Tax Could Not Be Collected From Chinese.

It is thought that the injunction proceedings instituted by the Washington & Oregon Power Company against Road Supervisor J. F. Campbell, of the Milton district, will be argued in this city before State Circuit Judge Ellis, some time this week.

The action which is to prevent the road supervisor from collecting poll tax from the 350 men employed by the power company at its plant on the Walla Walla river, will be argued by the company's attorneys, on the grounds that the laborers have residence elsewhere and therefore are not liable to taxation in this state.

The law on the subject of poll tax states that all male residents of the state over the age of 21 years shall pay an annual road tax. The Washington & Oregon Power Company hopes to prove that the men in its employ have homes outside the jurisdiction of this state.

A similar action was tried in Multnomah county. Chinese laborers were brought from California to do railroad work in Multnomah county. An attempt was made to collect poll tax from them and the matter was taken into the courts, with the result that the Celestials escaped the taxation by proving that their residence was in another state.

NEWSPAPER ASSESSMENTS.

Spokane-Review and the Spokane Chronicle Ask for Reduction of Values.

The board of equalization this morning decided to consider nothing but the cost of the plant in passing upon the assessments of the Chronicle and Spokane-Review, says the Spokane Press.

On this question hinged the validity of Assessor Stewart's figures. Stewart desired to assess the newspapers as he had assessed other business enterprises in the city—for what they would bring in the market or approximately that.

On such a basis circulation, good will, franchises and numerous other valuable assets of a newspaper plant would be included. The Review-Chronicle called Henry Greenberg to testify as an expert on newspaper property. After telling about typesetting machines, presses, type and other matters, Greenberg was asked by Stewart what a subscription list was worth on a weekly paper.

He answered $1 a subscriber and they would be worth more for a twice-a-week and a daily. He was asked if he had ever been commissioned by capitalists to make an offer for Mr. Cowie's properties. He said that he had—but he was never given permission by the board to say how much he offered.

Off the witness stand, it was learned from Greenberg that his offer was $400,000.

The Review is assessed at $41,810 and asks a reduction to $21,183. The Chronicle is assessed at $10,545 and asks a reduction to $3,489.50.

On the other hand, Martin and his manager, Billy Madden, express confidence in the Denver fighter's ability to defeat McVey. Tonight's meeting will be the second time the two have met in the ring. On the occasion of their first encounter McVey succeeded in putting Martin out in one round.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggist, price 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.
