PERSONAL MENTION

C. E. Troutman went to Athena today. Miss Laura Muir has gone to Blacklock on a visit. B. B. Steele of Juniper, is in town today on business. Dr. W. G. Cole is at home today with a severe headache. Mrs. Mabel Keene left for Hood River this morning for a visit. W. W. Edmeston went to Walla Walla this morning on business. Dr. McBean, a Spokane dentist, is the guest of the White brothers. Richard Mayberry left last night for the valley for a two weeks' vacation. G. M. Rice took his young son to Walla Walla today to see the animals. Mrs. Michaels returned from Athena yesterday, with her little daughter. Mrs. F. F. Porham and son Lloyd returned this morning from a week at Meacham station. J. P. Winters was in Adams yesterday on business connected with the district attorney's office. T. W. Ayres has gone to Hilday Springs to remain for a week with his family, who are camping out. A. Gustafson, who has been ill for some time, has resumed his position on the O. R. & N. yard engine. C. E. Rupp, formerly engaged in newspaper work in Pendleton, has taken a position with the First National Bank. Mesdames George Robbins, W. W. Boothby and C. K. Cranston returned yesterday from Baker's Camp, near Meacham, where they have been in camp for several weeks. Mrs. Henry Lazinka and family expect to move to their new home recently purchased of Mrs. Captain William Martin, at the corner of Johnson and Webb streets, for the beginning of school. G. A. Peebles, of the Eastern Oregon State Normal School at Weston, and T. C. Salt, of the Milton public school, who were members of the teachers' examining board, returned home last night. Charles E. Bond, of the firm of Sullivan & Bond, left at 4 o'clock this morning for Lehman Springs, for a four days outing with his mother and brother, who have been at the springs for some weeks. F. B. Lewis, of this city, is on crutches, the result of a peculiar accident. While "bucking" wheat sacks at the farm of Frank Brotherton, near Helix, a few days ago, he strained a tendon in his right leg. Since then he has suffered much pain and is unable to get around except on crutches.

DEATH OF AUGUST STANGLER.

Took Place in Portland Hospital on Operating Table. A telegram was received by Joseph Basler today at 11:30, informing him of the death of August Stangler at St. Vincent's hospital in Portland, immediately following an operation for an obscure stomach trouble, performed by Dr. Rocky.

Mr. Stangler being a life member in the order of Eagles, that body has taken charge of the preparation for the reception of the body, the funeral and all the other details of the obsequies. The body is expected to arrive by the early train tomorrow morning and it is probable that the funeral will take place day after tomorrow at the Catholic church, according to the ritual of the Eagles.

Mr. Stangler has suffered considerably during the past two months with the ailment which caused his death, and for some weeks has been in camp at Meacham with his family, as much for relief from the disease as for the outing. Growing no better, but, in fact worse, he left Meacham Monday last for Portland, and put himself under treatment at St. Vincent's, but to no avail.

Mrs. Stangler and children, five in number, are expected to arrive from the mountains by the midnight train. Mr. Stangler was also a member of the Redmen.

August Stangler was nearly 44 years of age, being born in Germany in 1860. He emigrated to America when a boy, and came to Pendleton between 23 and 25 years ago. He had been for 16 years proprietor of the Brewery saloon in this place. Besides his wife and five children his brother, Christ, also of this place, survives him.

THREE THOUSAND SHEEP SOLD.

Much Inconvenience and Expense Results From Ruling. Still another heavy purchase of sheep is hung up by the ruling of the bureau of animal industry requiring the dipping of all sheep before export, affected or not. This is a lot of 3000 head bought of Guilford Bros. by L. Stubblefield, for Carstens' Packing Company, of Seattle and Tacoma. These animals are principally wethers, all ready for slaughter. It is a contract purchase and the expense of dipping falls on the raisers.

Mr. Stubblefield states that but for the disturbed condition of the cattle markets he would have 500 head of Umatilla county cattle ready for shipment at this point within 10 days. All deals are now off.

PIONEER PHYSICIAN.

Dr. G. W. Biggers, Oldest Practicing Physician in Union County, Visits Pendleton. Dr. G. W. Biggers, the oldest practicing physician in Union county, now located in La Grande, where he is associated with his son, Dr. G. W. Biggers, Jr., who recently graduated from the Portland Medical college, was in the city last evening on a short visit, while on his way to Lake Pend d'Oreille, to visit two sisters who are there at present.

Dr. Biggers is an old friend of R. Alexander, the pioneer merchant of this city, and they recounted the adventures they experienced in coming

Pickpocket at Circus.

Walla Walla, Aug. 17.—At the circus grounds this morning a pickpocket was arrested by the police in the act of robbing a man.

Asa LeGrow's Will.

Walla Walla, Aug. 17.—The will of the late Asa LeGrow was filed for probate in the superior court yesterday afternoon. The property of the deceased is equally divided among his three children. Pay S. LeGrow of Athena, is named executor without bonds. Levi Ankeny, D. McGilvray and A. L. Lorenzen are named as appraisers of the estate.

Attempted Murder.

Walla Walla, Aug. 17.—Charles Paine is in the county jail charged with assault with intent to commit murder. His alleged victim, Arthur Carter, lies at the Walla Walla hospital with a knife wound, eight inches long, in his left side. The two men became involved in a fight in a saloon Saturday night.

W. L. Elliott, of Goldfield, Nev., shot and killed Jack Madigan and fatally injured John Hamilton, in a saloon fight Monday morning.

W. H. Reeder at Tacoma.

W. H. Reeder will rent his beautiful home place to his son, Claude, and with his wife and daughter, Miss Ava, will go to Tacoma where they will spend the winter, and may reside permanently. Athena will regret very much to lose this estimable family, who have done so much in a religious, social and business way to advance the interests of the city, and wish them peace and contentment in their future home, whether it be cast in the city or inclination should again draw them back to our own prosperous little town.—Athena Press.
