MINING CONGRESS

PORTLAND NOW WELCOMING THE CROWDS.

Principal Advance Topics Are the Selection of the Next Meeting Place and the Election of New Officers—Irwin Mahon Secretary for Seven Years, Will Retire—J. F. Galbraith of Denver, Will Probably Succeed J. H. Richards as President.

Portland, Aug. 21.—Delegates to the national mining congress, which meets here on Monday, are beginning to arrive and headquarters have assumed an air of activity. The city is garbed in gala dress and the streets are further enlivened by the playing of bands brought by several delegations.

With less than half the delegates on the scene, the fight for the permanent location of headquarters is assuming definite shape. Salt Lake and Denver are the only real contenders for the honor. Both cities have offered sites for a building and large sums of money for the construction of the same. Salt Lake seems to be in the lead.

While there is a strong sentiment in favor of having a permanent location for the congress among the delegates from the Rocky Mountain states, much opposition is being shown by representatives from other parts of the country, especially from this coast and from the Eastern states. The Texas delegates are also strongly opposed to the proposition. From present indications, when the matter comes to a vote the proposition will be defeated.

Several other cities have entered the fight to secure the next session of the congress. Among them are Los Angeles, El Paso, Texas, Nevada City, Cal., Cincinnati, Omaha and Chicago.

The selection of officers is another topic of conversation among the delegates. Col. Irwin Mahon, who for seven years has been secretary of the congress says he will not take the office for an eighth term, as he desires to retire from public life and return to his home in Carlisle, Pa. Fred S. Shaffer of Denver, is mentioned as the most likely candidate for the position.

For the presidency, to succeed J. H. Richards, who positively declines the nomination for another term, there are many likely candidates, but the fight seems to lie between J. F. Galbraith of Denver and John Dern of Salt Lake. The supporters of the different candidates are lining up their forces and the fight for the offices is attracting as much attention as the contest over the permanent location of headquarters.

AN AMERICAN SAINT.

Famous Jesuit Martyr May Be Canonized by Catholic Church.

New York, Aug. 20.—The Empire state is undoubtedly soon to have its first saint—Rev. Isaac Jogues, the famous Jesuit missionary martyred by the Mohawks 259 years ago, is to be canonized, thus adding another chapter to the Roman martyrology, and welding another link to the endless chain of saints of the Catholic church.

Process of Canonization.

Under the direction of Father Wynne, S. J., and other Jesuits connected with the local houses of the order, the entire data for the process of canonization has been gathered and forwarded to Rome.

Father Camillus Becarri, S. J., who is stationed at Rome, is to be the postulator of the missionary's cause, and will present to the Roman congregation having charge of such serious business 126 "reasons" or "points" in the declaration of the missionary's holiness of life and purpose. The most powerful argument, however, will be proof that Father Jogues "shed his blood for the faith," together with an authenticated list of the miracles wrought at the shrine erected in his honor at Auriesville.

At the same time that Father Jogues' process is being conducted the merits of Rene Goupil and Katherine Tegakwita, companions of the martyred Jogues in life and death, will also be considered, and, in all probability, they will be raised on the altars of the church at the same time.

Beheaded.

On October 16, 1664, after days and nights of brutal treatment, he was beheaded at a place called Ossernenon, now Auriesville, N. Y., by the tribes he had come to save. Goupil had previously been tomahawked. A few years later a shrine was erected at Auriesville to the memory of the "martyrs of the Mohawk," and year after year thousands of pilgrims from all parts of America visit it.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggist, price 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.
