

GREAT ADVENTURE NATIONAL COUNCIL

RUSSIAN SOLDIER TELLS OF KILLING SEVEN JAPANESE

Given Money to Bribe Chinamen. He Entered the Japanese Lines Disguised—Discovered. He Put Up a Remarkable Fight and Escaped With His Life on a Captured Horse—Was Promoted on the Strength of the Story.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 23.—An interesting story of the adventures of a Russian spy named Volkoff is published here. The man gives the following account of his experiences:

"After the battle of Wafangkow I was lying near General Samsonoff's tent, and heard him say to the commander of the regiment, 'We must send out a scout to the Japanese who can spy out their positions and report to us.' I offered to go disguised to the Japanese position. I was given six roubles to bribe Chinamen if necessary, and also a revolver. I shaved my hair in front like a Chinaman, tied on a pigtail and put on a Chinese dress, with slippers and hat.

"At dawn on July 20 I came to the town of Senuchen. There was nobody there. The Russians had left it and the Chinese had all run away. Suddenly a cavalry detachment of about 20 men with an officer came toward me. The officer rode out and asked in Chinese where the Russians were and what was there strength. I know a little Chinese and answered him; but either I said something wrong or he noticed my revolver and money bulging out. At any rate, he became suspicious and spoke some words to his men. Two of the latter thereupon dismounted and came toward me. I decided to sell my life dearly for I knew it would be forfeited if I were captured. I pulled out my revolver and as the two soldiers approached I fired two shots at them. Both of the men fell. Then I fired at the officer bringing him to the ground, and afterward emptied the revolver at four other men. The soldiers lost their heads and galloped away and as they did so I saw the four men I had shot at fall severally from their saddles wounded.

"Then I jumped on one of the horses which had remained close by and galloped away for my life. General Samsonoff promoted me to the rank of an under officer, gave me the horse and saddle and sent me on to the commander-in-chief, who thanked me and embraced me."

A Perfect Painless Pill.

The famous little pills for doing such work pleasantly and effectually are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. Bob Moore, of Lafayette, Ind., says: "All other pills I have used gripe and sicken, while DeWitt's Little Early Risers are simply perfect." Sold by Tallman & Co.

PROPOSED TO BROADEN THE MEMBERSHIP LIST

Proposition is the Origin of a Stiff Contest, With Indications of Much Bitterness—Order Has a Membership of Sixty Thousand, of Which Thirteen Thousand Are Men—Indications of a Close Vote.

Portland, Me., Aug. 23.—The twenty-seventh annual meeting of the National Council, Daughters of Liberty, opened today with indications pointing to a lively session.

The all-absorbing topic for discussion is the proposed amendment to the laws of the order to enable any American man to gain admission. This matter was before the national council at its meeting last year at Detroit, but the proposition was rejected by a close vote. At that meeting the amendment was brought before the body as a piece of snap legislation, and its introduction was a surprise to many of the members. It is rumored that one faction in the national council is favoring the amendment and that its members will try to force candidates for office to vote for the change under penalty of defeating them.

The proposed amendment is regarded by many of the members as extremely radical in character and it is evident that its adoption will be bitterly contested. At the present time a man must belong either to the Order of United American Mechanics or to the Junior order to be eligible to membership in the Daughters of Liberty. These qualifications have been demanded ever since the organization has been in existence.

The Daughters of Liberty now have a membership of about 60,000, of which nearly 13,000 are men. Of these the O. U. A. M. contributes 4,000 and the Junior Order over 8,000.

TEXAS REPUBLICANS.

Are Expecting to Be Reinforced by Ex-Gov. Hogg.

Fort Worth, Texas, Aug. 23.—With prospects bright for a harmonious gathering, the Republican state convention to nominate a state ticket was called to order here today. With practically no chance of capturing any of the state offices the party leaders are hopeful of winning in one or more congressional districts and to this end will urge the national committee to contribute to the campaign funds. It is said that the convention will adopt a resolution formally inviting ex-Governor James Hogg, who recently assailed the Democratic national ticket, to join the Republican party.

The Republican League of Texas met this morning and chose delegates to attend the convention of the National Republican League to be held at Indianapolis in October.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.
