Bail on Labor Day.
Last night's session of the Labor Council definitely decided not to attempt any regulation observance of Labor Day, but to conduct a ball in the stead, and for the purpose has rented Music hall for the evening of September 5, and employed an orchestra. It proved to be not possible with the limited time at the disposal of the members of the council, to arrange for a proper observance. The burden of such undertakings always falls upon a few anyway, and the undertaking was deemed impracticable this year.

Why Not "Absorb" Them?

Already the Panamans are "squirming" under our rule, claiming that the treaty made between their "government" and ours has been grossly violated. At a mass meeting of "patriots," held in Panama the other night, resolutions were adopted declaring that the Panama government should firmly demand full compliance with the text and spirit of the treaty, and should by no means tacitly permit its violation in any shape or manner which would be derogatory to the nation's dignity before the world.
"Guess we'll have to 'absorb' those recalcitrant Panamans, as we did the Filipinos, until they are fit for self-government."—San Francisco Star.

The Way He Put It.

At a school examination at Newcastle-under-Lyme, England, a boy was told to write an essay on the pleasures of reading. He wrote: "People read for many reasons. Sometimes they read for humor, and then they read such books as 'Don Quixote.' At other times they read for amusement, and then they read the Bible."

Took It Mildly.

"Yes, old Blizziboy gave a reception out to his place on the hills and then turned the hose on the first detachment to arrive."
"He did! What did they say to that?"
"They called it unconventional hospitality. You know, he's too rich to quarrel with."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

His Malady.

Tess—She's a professional nurse. I believe. Jess—Not at all. What gave you that idea? Tess—She remarked that she sat up last night with a sick man. Jess—Lovesick; that was all. It was that fiance of hers.—Philadelphia Press.

A Strong Word.

Dr. Blunt—We must wake her, because I want to ask her if she has obeyed my orders. The Patient's Husband—Er—ah—doctor, it might be as well to—ah—put that question in a somewhat different form.

Much Bigger.

Y.—Do you think Ike ever lies about the fish he catches?—C.—No, I don't, but I think he lies about the fish he doesn't catch.—Stray Stories.

Being asked the name of the world's greatest composer, a smart university young man said "Chloroform."
