BENTLEY REUNION

IN HONOR OF JEFFERSON
D. BENTLEY, OF MODESTO.

A Large Party of Relatives Assembled on the Eve of His Departure for California—Four Generations of Bentleys Take Part in the Festivities, With Only One Present Not a Resident of Umatilla County.

A family reunion was held yesterday at the residence of J. W. McCormach, on Garden street, in honor of Jefferson D. Bentley, of Modesto, Cal. The attendance was not small, though there was no opportunity to secure any attendance from distant members of the family except one or two who chanced to be here visiting. The only person not a member of the family who attended was Rev. G. L. Hall, by an especial invitation, he being the pastor of the host and other members of the family.

Rev. Hall conducted religious services preceding the sumptuous dinner which was served at 1 o'clock. The event was at once a joyous and a sad time, the latter because the guest of honor was about to start on his return to California. Those present were as follows:

The host and hostess, J. W. McCormach and wife, Mrs. M. being Mr. Bentley's sister; Mrs. Mary J. McCormach, a sister of the guest; J. M. Bentley and wife, brother and sister-in-law of the guest; nephews and nieces as follows: William H. McCormach and wife, Mrs. Minnie Brown and husband, Walter McCormach and wife, R. Newton Bentley, Mrs. Carrie Deering, Mabel Bentley, T. J. Million and wife, Mrs. Lulu Smith, Mrs. Artemissa Killiam; great nephews and nieces; Mrs. Nora Ha-

HIS HANDS ARE TIED

DEPUTY GAME WARDEN CANNOT ACT AT PRESENT.

Placed in Peculiar Position—Requested by His Chief to Not Proceed at Present, But is Asked by Fish Warden to Go After Grand Ronde Offenders.

O. F. Steele, the deputy game warden for Eastern Oregon is in receipt of the following letter from H. G. Van Dusen, the master fish warden, which voices a condition of affairs that is not confined to Willowa county by any means:

Astoria, Or., August 19, 1904.
Mr. O. F. Steele, Deputy Game Warden, Pendleton, Ore.

Dear Sir:—I am in receipt of a letter from George C. Mapes, of Elgin, calling my attention to the destruction of fish in the Willowa and Minam rivers, as you will please see by copy of letter herewith enclosed.

I find that it will be impossible for me to make a personal investigation of this matter at present, and as it is very important that it be attended to at once, I would appreciate the favor if you would either write to or call upon Mr. Mapes in regard to the matter, and render all the assistance in your power to bring the guilty party or parties to justice.

I have also written to Prof. H. J. Hockenberry, of La Grande, president of the fish and game association, asking him to assist in the premises, and have explained the situation to Mr. Mapes.

Trusting that you will be able to apprehend and successfully prosecute the offenders in the near future, I remain,

Yours very respectfully,
H. G. VAN DUSEN,
Master Fish Warden.

One of the first communications Mr. Steele received after his appointment as deputy warden was the following letter from the state game warden, which placed an immediate and effectual handicap upon his intention to institute an immediate campaign for the enforcement of the game laws in this part of the state. The letter, which is given in full, was referred to by the East Oregonian immediately after it was received:

Office of J. W. Baker, State Game Warden, Cottage Grove, Or.
August 9, 1904.

Mr. O. F. Steele, Pendleton, Or.
Dear Sir:—I wish you would not do any work as deputy game warden between August 11 and October 1, 1904. The reason I make this request is:

I am putting most all the deputies in the Willamette valley watching China pheasant shooters. I am only allowed to pay six deputies at one time, and I may want, in short, to use all six in the valley. As the bird shooting season opens October 1, I will then have no use for them in the valley.

Respectfully yours,
J. W. BAKER.

So the sportsmen must possess their souls with all the patience that they can command, as the deputy's inaction is not of his own choosing, and is as deeply regretted by him as by anyone.

In the meantime the suggestion that private citizens arm themselves during the interim before the first of October with evidence to back the deputy later on, is not amiss. Such a course will greatly facilitate his work during the fall and winter, and ought to be appreciated by everybody interested in the preservation of fish and game.

PRISONERS WANT SERMONS.

Inmates of County Jail Send Out an Appeal to Pendleton Ministers.

There are eight churches in Pendleton, yet the inmates of the county jail have been obliged to make an appeal through the columns of the East Oregonian, asking that ministers visit them. At least once a week the 16 prisoners at the county jail, say they would like to have some one preach to them. Their letter follows: "Editor East Oregonian: Dear Sir—We, the inmates of the county jail, beg to inform, through your paper, the preachers of this city, that we desire to hear the word of God preached to us once a week."

The enrollment at the jail is larger than it has been for months. Many of the prisoners are young men and have formed a sort of glee club. The long, monotonous hours of the day are whiled away with songs. There has been no trouble of any sort with the men for a long time.

Formerly the Salvation Army held meetings at the jail every week, but for several months past, this work has been abandoned and with the exception of the occasional visit of a minister when sent for by a prisoner, the inmates have been seen but little of "the cloth."

THRESHING DELAYED.

Scarcity of Machines in Holdman District Causes Serious Delay in Wind-up Harvest.

"Threshing has scarcely begun in the Holdman district," said J. B. Grubb, mail contractor on the Pendleton-Holdman route, to the East Oregonian today.

The Holdman district has not been ravaged to any great extent by the combined harvesters on account of the rough ground and the steep hill-sides in places, and the scarcity of stationary machines has seriously delayed the harvest.

Mr. Grubb has 510 acres of wheat that will average 25 bushels, now in the stack waiting for a machine, and but very few of his neighbors have threshed yet. The Richardson combined is the only one that was operated in the Holdman neighborhood.

and it is rumored that it will be discarded another year, for a header. The grain yield in that entire district is excellent this year and every one is jubilant over the high prices.

READY TO BATTLE.

McCoy Says He Will Fight Mitchell in This City.

Articles of agreement for the coming fight between J. M. Mitchell and Kid McCoy of Brooklyn, were drawn up and forwarded last night to Boise for the latter to sign. Billy Bogart, manager for Mitchell, yesterday afternoon received word from McCoy that he was willing to meet Mitchell at 133 pounds in this city.

The exact date of the fight has not yet been decided upon, but will be within the next three weeks. Mitchell went into training yesterday. It is presumed that McCoy will come to this city in order to condition himself for the battle.

MRS. BEELER'S FUNERAL.

Interment Was This Morning in the Olney Cemetery.

The funeral of Mrs. Olive Beeler, who died in this city Monday night, was held this morning at 10.30 o'clock from Rader's undertaking parlors. The interment was in Olney cemetery. Rev. G. L. Hall, pastor of the First Baptist church, officiated.

Spring Wheat Frosted.

Charles Johnson's 80 acres of spring wheat, 10 miles northeast of town, yielded but 20 bushels per acre. It was injured by the late spring frosts, which invariably did the greater damage to spring grain. A modified exception to this rule is found in the fact that the lighter soil the more the winter wheat was affected by the freezes that came in the early summer. The heavier and more compact soils grew winter wheat that was least affected. An illustration of this is shown by the larger acreage of winter wheat damaged being found toward the western parts of the wheat belt.

Lost a Toe.

Tom Elliott yesterday lost the great toe of his right foot and a portion of the foot by having the member caught between the drive wheel and the frame of a combine on the John Danks place north of town. The foot was dressed at the hospital by Dr. Cole. It was not necessary to amputate the toe, as that was cut squarely off in the field. Elliott submitted to the operation without wincing, though he refused to take an anaesthetic.

O'Connell-Lennox.

John Lennox and Miss Margaret O'Connell, both of Umatilla, were married this morning at the Catholic church, Rev. Boschi officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Lennox left on the morning train for their wedding trip to the western part of the state. Mr. Lennox is a mechanic in the employ of the O. R. & N. at Umatilla, and the bride is the daughter of the hotel-keeper at Umatilla.

Two Patents Applied For.

John Clove has patents applied for to protect two supplementary devices for the perfection of his combine. One is a leveler for side-hill work, the other a combined separator and cleaner. In one form or the other both have been in use and demonstrated to be complete successes, and the patents are simply to protect the inventor's rights.

Injured by Late Freezes.

The Christopher Bros., threshers, have threshed immense yields of wheat for everybody but themselves. In fact, the rule with them has been large yields when threshing for others this year. The yield of their own fields was from 30 to 35 bushels, whereas they had every reason to expect that it would be larger. It was injured by the late spring freezes.

Arrival of Miss Nolf.

Miss Emma Nolf arrived last night from a visit with her brothers and parents. Miss Nolf came directly from San Francisco, where she has been studying this season's millinery styles. She spent the summer in Aberdeen, Wash., but will be sent to some other point this fall by the wholesale firm for whom she is a traveling manager.

Acquainted With "Mrs. Oklahoma."

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Lowe, of this city, lived neighbor to Bird S. McGuire, now delegate to congress from Oklahoma territory, in Kansas, and are intimate friends of Mrs. McGuire, referred to by Washington society as "Mrs. Oklahoma."

Gone to The Dalles.

Father Boschi left this morning for The Dalles, where he will officiate as Catholic pastor during the absence of Rev. Demares, who is in such poor health that a vacation trip was necessary for him. Rev. Boschi will be at The Dalles about six weeks.
