

AMONG THE EXCHANGES OF THE INLAND EMPIRE

From Placer Clean-Up. Gilkey and Sam G. Kershaw have clean-up at their Big Creek beyond Greenhorn, which is to arouse the cupid of the inclined toward placer investing the Sumpter Miner. They are in the train Wednesday afternoon to Baker with the product of the clean-up.

They had a pound pepper box of nuggets, several of which worth $20 each, and his partner, Kershaw, had a buckskin bag stuffed with the yellow. The nuggets they showed would in value the neighborhood of $1000. This was not all. Probably only a part of the clean-up. Stowed somewhere in grips or some place, they had other nuggets of the gold of which they were to Baker City to deposit. They are conservative in regard to statements. By dint of questioning and guessing the Miner man succeeded in getting them to estimate the value of their clean-up. It was $8000 and judging from what was actually in sight, this may be low.

Gilkey and Kershaw own placer claims which they started June 15, with only a small that they have been abundantly rewarded for their toil goes saying—Granite Gem.

Brown brought in some specimen from the Snipion country. Much like a striking resemblance to more properly speaking, to a specimen taken from a formation in the light and soft and can be cut with a pocket knife. When cut it resembles coal somewhat as the surface dries the resemblance is less marked. A sample
