AGAINST LEGAL MURDER.

Judge John I. Mullins, of the state district court in Denver, Col., recent ly made from the bench the following statement: "In private life I never was a party to the killing of a man or a human being. I shall never be a judicial party to such a killing. The state has no right to take a life. Capital punishment in Colorado has not deterred the commission of crime. Murders have increased.

guise of law. I will do as my con-science prompts me in this matter. I am opposed to capital punishment.

While a judge of the district court I shall never impose such a penalty upon a defendant.

If a person is found guilty of murder in the first degree and the jury fixes the penalty at death I shall dis regard that verdict if need be. The state does not give life; it can not take life. It is contrary to reason and contrary to morals."

JAPANESE GENTLENESS.

Though the martial spirit is indus triously instilled into Japanese children by their mothers from earliest infancy, they are taught to be kind to animals. At home and in the schools they are not even allowed to eat cakes or confectionery made the shape of rabbits, sheep or other dumb beasts, for fear they may acquire ideas of cruelty.
