

AMONG THE EXCHANGES OF THE INLAND EMPIRE

Cut His Throat in Jail.
 J. Thomas Collins, who went crazy a few days ago while confined in jail, as told exclusively in the Press, committed suicide at 7:10 o'clock this morning in the county jail by cutting his throat with a butcher knife.

Collins was serving a $500 fine for assault with a deadly weapon and came to the jail on April 28. He lacked to days of completing the sentence. The crime of which he was accused occurred in a saloon when he was relieved of a $60 indorsed check. A row followed and he stabbed the man who robbed him.

Collins had been occupying the hospital ward for about a week. He was ill, and symptoms of insanity were very pronounced. He raved about some one pursuing him with intent to kill. He grew better and was again allowed the privileges of a trusty. It was in this capacity that he secured the instrument with which he ended his life.—Spokane Press.

Sister Fernando Dead.
 The Sisters of St. Francis have received from Tacoma the sad intelligence of Sister Mary Fernando's death. Sister Fernando had been in poor health for a number of years and hopeful that a change might benefit her she expressed the desire to be removed to Tacoma. But the ravages of consumption had made such a headway that there was no remedy possible. Sister Fernando was connected with the art department at the St. Francis academy, and she was an artist of exceptional ability.

Before entering sisterhood Sister Fernando was known as Miss Zella Bailey and her mother is Mrs. John Devine, whose home is in Harney county, where the deceased spent her childhood.—Baker City Democrat.

Stealing Doves of Cattle.
 Word reached the city last night from the Meadows that the cattle stolen from Thomas Swearingen on August 21 had been recovered in the Gallesburg country and that Mr. Emerick was now engaged in prosecuting a diligent search for his cattle in the same section. The Emerick band numbers about 60 head and it is believed that a number of other cattle have been driven off in the same band.

Messrs Swearingen and Emerick have spent several days in the Craig mountain country and in the breaks of the Salmon river but have not been able to discover a clue to the missing band. On account of the recovery of the Swearingen cattle the view is held that the entire band was driven into the Big and Little canyon country and that the cows were allowed to stray from the band and soon started for home. The search will be prosecuted until the stolen cattle are recovered as it is not believed that so large a number can be driven out of the country.—Lewiston Tribune.

Maxwell Group Sold.
 Yesterday Recorder Henry received two instruments for record that conveyed all the right, title and interest of the Pierce Gold Mining Company to the Elkhorn Consolidated Gold Mining Company, a private corporation organized under and by virtue of the laws of Arizona. Walter M. Pierce is the president of the grantor corporation. The consideration is $66,000 and pays for what is known as the Maxwell group of claims on the south fork of the headwaters of Pine creek. The deeds also include water rights, mill sites, machinery and in fact, everything that goes to make up and constitute a big mine and mining plant.—Baker City Herald.

Admirers Pendleton.
 C. G. Caspary, deputy United States mineral surveyor, returned last Thursday from a business trip to Pendleton and Spokane, Wash. Mr. Caspary reports the former city very busy, due to the big wheat crop and the high prices which the farmers are receiving for their grain. Most of the grain, he says, was sold before it was cut, to Eastern buyers and milling firms. Conditions in Spokane are not as satisfactory, according to Mr. Caspary.—Grant County News.

Labor Day at Bourne.
 Judge T. J. Mareum of Bourne, was here yesterday afternoon in the interests of the Labor Day celebration at that place. He announced that the committees were doing finely with the details of their work, and was particularly pleased to state that Rev. J. N. Bell of Baker City, would be the orator upon that occasion. He gave an order for 250 loaves of bread and 300 pounds of meat while here, which indicates that there will be plenty to eat on that occasion.—Simpson Reporter.
