COUNTY RECORDS HAULED IN WAGONS

LA GRANDE PEOPLE MOVE THE COUNTY SEAT.

Twelve Wagonloads of Vault and Records Brought From Union to La Grande Yesterday—Crowds of People Lined the Street as the Procession Came in—Celebration of the Event Will Be Held at La Grande.

La Grande, Sept. 5.—Twelve wagonloads of county records, from Union arrived here last night, in charge of the La Grande county seat committee, and were greeted with an ovation, from citizens of this city, who lined the sidewalks to see the procession come in.

A similar demonstration was witnessed at Union in 1872, when the same records were hauled into Union, which it is claimed stole the county seat from La Grande.

The records were brought over in the vaults, and will be placed in temporary quarters until the new court house is ready for them.

It was intimated that a demonstration would be made by Union, against the removal of the records, but scarcely a person was seen on the streets as the twelve wagons filed through town and up to the court house to load the records.

A celebration of the removal will be held in this city, as soon as the work is complete. Bonfires will be burned till late into the night, speeches by prominent citizens will be made and a banquet will be served. Most of the county officials have already purchased homes in this city.

COLD SPRINGS WHEAT.

A Little Over Thirty Bushels Per Acre on 260 Acres.

Dave Cargill of Upper Cold Springs is in town for a few days. His wife and his sons, Lewis and Henry, are on the sick list, but are mending.

Mr. Cargill says the Upper Cold Springs country turned out a very satisfactory yield of wheat this fall. They are just finishing threshing Mr. Cargill's crop. He has 260 acres which will run a trifle over 30 bushels to the acre. It is fall sown red chaff.

Mr. Cargill sold 2000 sacks some time ago at 62 cents, which is $20 less than it would bring at the present price, but he says he has no kick coming as a few years ago his son refused 70 cents a bushel and held, and finally sold for 55 cents, losing $1700 by holding too long.

Wheat at 60 to 70 cents is a profitable crop, and his advice is to sell while the price is so good. "Holding grain when the price is as good as it is now is considerable of a gamble; the cards are apt to go against you."

"Hello" Girls Can't Flirt.

BUTCHERS' STRIKE A DISMAL FAILURE

Donnelly and the Packers Reach an Agreement at Last.

STRIKERS RETURN TO WORK AT OLD WAGES.

Announced That the Only Condition to the Agreement is That the Strikers Call Off the Strike to Be Put to Work in Their Old Places as Fast as Possible—Police Arrest 38 Strikers on Picket Duty at Chicago Yards—Seven Weeks' Strike Ends in Failure—Million Lost in Wages—Not a Point Gained.

Chicago, Sept. 5.—A secret conference of the representatives of packers and striking butchers' committee is in progress, looking to a settlement of the strike.

Manager Stralner, of the Union Stockyards & Transit Companies, spent more than an hour this morning in consultation with the strike leaders at the Transit House.

It is authoritatively stated that President Donnelly held a conference Saturday night with T. J. Connors, of Armour & Co., and that he will meet other representatives of the packers today.

It is stated that plans have been made for the immediate return to work of the strikers. It is understood the packers agreed to put the old men to work as fast as possible at the old terms.

The only condition is that the unions call off the strike. As a result of the efforts of the police to stop night picketing at the yards, 38 men were locked up during the night.

No Referendum Vote on Strike.

Donnelly today withdrew the order calling on the Meat Cutters, Teamsters and Market Wagon Drivers to refuse to handle any meat until the strike is declared off. He said the order was not official. The conference board had no power to order the men out.

Donnelly denies that he will call for a referendum vote as to calling off the strike. Reports of the pending settlement are looked upon as a ruse to prevent another break in the ranks.

Strike Ends in New York.

New York, Sept. 5.—A police guard is still kept up today at the plants of the Schwarzschild and Snelberger Dressed Beef Company, though the strike of the butchers is called off. The guard will be kept up until tomorrow, when the strikers apply for their old jobs.

Win Johnson and George Redding Now in Granite District.

Win Johnson and George Redding, both of Pendleton, are in the city and will spend a few weeks here and in the hills of this section. Both gentlemen are old-timers in this district and have many friends here, says the Granite Gem.

Mr. Johnson, who first came to Granite in the 'sixties, last year sold the Crane Flat placers to Burbidge & Burch. For many years he has spent the summers working his placer mine, and now, that he no longer has mining interests he finds it hard to occupy his time during the mining season.

Mr. Redding first came to Granite in '84 and spent several years prospecting and working quartz properties in the Greenhorns.

London, Sept. 5.—The Exchange Telegraph has a Rome dispatch asserting that a telegram from Tokio contains the news of Japanese success at Port Arthur.

The Japanese made a desperate attack on the line of forts from Antshehan to Ksekitvan. After a bloody bayonet fight they occupied the heights south of Tung Chaitau. From this point of vantage they began a terrible bombardment of the town. Shells also deluged the ships in the harbor, one vessel being disabled.

Russian Army Annihilated.

London, Sept. 5.—A dispatch to the Central News from Rome states that Stackelberger's army, numbering 25,000, which was reported cut off by the Japanese while attempting a junction with Kuropatkin, has been completely wiped out.

A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph from Rome, states that Kuropatkin had two horses shot from under him during his retreat from Liao Yang. The dispatch regarding the loss of Stackelberger's forces is discredited here.

Details of Liao Yang Fight.

A strong force was holding Kuroki back from Yantai. Kuroki attacked this force on September 2, but was repulsed. The Japanese shrapnel fire was terrific, one shell annihilating two Russian companies.

In the evening Kuroki got within 12 miles of the railroad at Yantai. Later he was driven back to his original position. Desultory fighting occurred September 3 in the vicinity of Mukden.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 5.—The general staff estimates that Kuropatkin's loss during the retreat from the Liao Yang fight was 1900 killed and wounded. Several times the regiments were obliged to cut through opposing Japanese by bayonet charges.

Stackelberg is believed to be safely out of the Japanese enveloping forces. A message was received this evening reporting the explosion of a powder magazine at Port Arthur with tremendous destruction.

Suicide at Kamiah.

Kamiah, Idaho, Sept. 5.—The dead body of R. J. Smith, of Grangeville, was found this afternoon near the Indian church here, a quarter of a mile from town, and about twenty yards from the wagon road. The dead man's throat had been cut from ear to ear and a short distance away on the ground was found a pen knife. The man evidently had been dead two or three days, judging from the condition of the body. At first rumors were in circulation that a murder had been committed, but later investigation seemed to assure beyond all doubt that the case was one of suicide.

SAILORS TURN SMUGGLERS.

"Jackies" on American War Vessel Bring in Panama Hats and Cigars.

Seattle, Sept. 5.—Eight thousand cigars and 24 Panama hats were seized by a secret service man and a customs officer Wednesday at Bremerton. The goods were taken from the Eagle Billiard Hall and brought to this city, where they were taken in charge by the customs authorities of this city.

The seizure was made by Special Officer F. G. Malone and Customs Officer Knox. The cigars are valued at $680, while the Panama hats range in value from $12 to $25. The goods were brought to Bremerton by the sailors of the United States cruisers New York and Bennington, and several other vessels which are now stationed at the navy yard, and sold to the proprietor of the Eagle Billiard hall, where they were found and confiscated by the officers.

For some time past the secret service men have been aware of the fact that large quantities of cigars and other articles were coming in at the navy yard on which no duty was being paid, and Special Officer Malone and Customs Officer Knox were detailed to work up the case.

The majority of the cigars were brought from Manila and are of an excellent quality. The hats were purchased in Panama, while the vessels were lying at that place.

San Francisco, Sept. 5.—In a dense fog at 1 o'clock this morning, the steamer Westport, from San Francisco for Westport, collided with the steamer Pomona from Eureka, for San Francisco, 17 miles northwest of Point Reyes and but for a fortunate sheer at the moment of striking, it is believed by the officers and passengers of the Pomona, that the vessel would have been sent to the bottom with all on board.

The Pomona's guard was carried away and a number of her plates were broken.

The Westport escaped with a badly damaged bow and was forced to return to the city. The Pomona limped into port with passengers in an intensely nervous condition, some of the women on the verge of hysterics. Some of the passengers suffered slight bruises by falling from their berths.

FRUIT MARKET.

Peaches, Grapes and Melons Found in Abundance.

The local market is beginning to handle peaches in small lots, but as yet the product is irregular. The supply for Pendleton comes mostly from Freewater and Walla Walla. Very few Snake river and Imnaha peaches are sold in this city.

The quality of the peaches this fall is excellent and the crop is said to be large. The same is not true of grapes. It will be a week or 10 days yet before grapes will be on the market in any quantity and then the prices are apt to remain high as the yield in the Freewater district is small this season. A few fancy California grapes are being sold. Ninety cents a box is asked for grapes on the retail market. Peaches are three pounds for 25 cents or 65 cents a box.

The melon season is at its height and for the next three weeks the market will be crowded with both cantelopes and water melons. The retail prices on these commodities are always uncertain and they sell from 5 cents upwards.

Some celery is being sold. It comes from Walla Walla and is of rather poor quality. The stuff is ahead of the season by several weeks.
