GENERAL NEWS.

Wash Bradley, the negro murderer of Mrs. N. Barrow, was lynched at Bronson, Florida, Wednesday.

Lahador has just been swept by the most terrific gale in the history of the country, driving fishing ships ashore everywhere.

The government has just secured title to 245 acres of land near Bremerton, on which a naval magazine will be built, costing $11,000.

Postmaster Robert Carley, of Golden N. M., was fatally wounded by an unknown assassin, who shot him as he was leaving home, Wednesday morning.

Louis Kane, a bartender in the Yellow Dog saloon, in East St. Louis, has confessed to the murder of the two men found dead some time ago under suspicious circumstances under this saloon.

Owing to the decreased earnings of the Colorado Southern railway, resulting from the bad labor situation in the state, no regular dividend was declared at the first preferred stock at a directors' meeting, held Wednesday.

It required three hours for the Knights Templar to pass a given point in San Francisco, Wednesday. The number taking part in the parade was fully 20 per cent more than in any former parade of the order.

Upon the evacuation of Liao Yang by the Russians, Chinese bandits entered the city and plundered everything left by the Russians before the Japanese army could restrain them. Cossacks raided the wine cellars of the Russian generals and took thousands of casks and cases of champagne.

NORTHWEST NEWS.

One Nelson, a logger, was instantly killed Wednesday by a logging car at Stella, Wash.

The Columbia river salmon pack of 1904 will be greater than that of 1903 by 40,000 cases.

Joseph Williams, a Douglas county murderer is now confined in the dungeon for attempting to break jail.

A new pest in the form of a bed spider is found in the Oregon hay fields this year and threatens to be injurious to the crop.

George Weaver, a barber of Colfax, committed suicide, Wednesday, by taking morphine. He was 40 years old, formerly of Seattle.

In digging a sewer trench at Colfax Grove, workmen found what is thought to be a cannonball ledge on a bank street of that town.

Gamblers will be barred from Salem during the state fair, according to the amendment of the city council and fair authorities.

The Seattle police force will be increased by 20 men, beginning with the first week in October. This fight for more police has been the main issue in the administration of Mayor Ballinger.

Because of jealousy, G. W. Lantz, shot Mrs. Lemore B. Jones, four times at Oregon City Wednesday morning, perhaps fatally wounding her. Mrs. Jones is a widow, with whom Lantz had been keeping company for three years.

Filings began Wednesday, on the Five Mile limit lands on the Fort Hall reservation near Pocatello, over 2500 people being in line. There is only 6400 acres of tillable land to be sold, and this is valueless without water. It costs $2.50 per acre.

NEWS OF MILTON

WILL TRAVEL THROUGH SOUTH AND OLD MEXICO.

Twins Born to W. B. Anderson and Wife—Four Boys Born Within a Week—Death of Infant From Cholera Infantum—Building $1200 Residence—Building of a Large Barn.

Milton, Sept. 7.—Born, August 31, to Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Anderson, a boy and girl. The girl died at birth, but the boy and mother are doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Kirk lost their 8-month-old child last week from cholera infantum.

J. A. Hayton, under the supervision of Mr. Bulsford, of College Place, is erecting a fine $1200 residence on his place, six miles up the river, above town.

Charles Demaris is having a large barn built at his home near the forks of the Walla Walla river. W. A. Ransier is the contractor and builder.

All Boys Again.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Webb, September 1, a boy, to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rice, August 27, a boy, to Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Tull, August 28, a boy, to Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Fullerton, August 31, a boy.

WOOD PRAISES WOOD.

Inimitable Editor of Weston Leader Presents Himself With a Small Bouquet.

"Colonel" Clark Wood, editor and proprietor of the Weston Leader, is going to St. Louis to visit the Pike and possibly the other great attractions of the exposition. As a Hearst man Mr. Wood believes in tooting his own horn and last week's edition of his paper contains the following blaste:

Clark Wood, editor and publisher of the Weston Leader, will leave next Sunday afternoon for Pendleton where he takes the afternoon train Monday morning. At least, he will take a seat in the chair car should the conductor show common sense in putting with the elite train.

Mr. Wood (we beg his pardon, Colonel Wood) is going to St. Louis, and the Weston Leader management has been duly notified of his intended arrival. The O. R. & N. O. S. L. Union Pacific D. & R. G. Colorado Midland and Missouri Pacific will have the privilege of conveying him westward. At the urgent invitation of his friends Jim Hill (who suggested to endorse a base, however) he will return via the Great Northern, stopping for a few days in Minnesota to transpire with other members of the Wood tribe.

In fact, the groceriness of Harriman and Hill drops the only syllable of business into the column's triumphant cry of anticipatory joy. He must pay fare like ordinary mortals and will hereafter oppose soulless railway corporations from principle. Perchance the column's ruffled composure may be soothed by the cordiality of the welcome that Joseph W. Folk will undoubtedly extend to his distinguished fellow democrat and anti-blooder from Oregon. Perchance also, a few habits may be spared by the fair management for a depot reception on the eventful occasion of his arrival.

Mr. Harry Lovell will have charge of the Leader during the month's absence of its editor. Mr. Lovell is a capable country newspaper man, but is unacquainted with this field, and his time of omission or commission should be forgiven in consequence. Any courtesies shown him will be gratefully appreciated by the management. He is a young veteran of the Philippine war, having served with Company D, Second Oregon.

OREGON STATE FAIR.

Salem, Oregon, September 12 to 17, 1904.

For the above occasion the O. R. & N. makes a rate of $14.00 for the round trip. Dates of sale, Sept. 8th, 10th and 11th. Children of half fare and one-half of the above rate. For particulars call on or address, E. C. SMITH, Agent.

A Tyrolean Time Piece.

A Tyrolean clockmaker recently invented and patented a unique alarm clock. It is simply a new and original application of the alarm to the clock made in the Black forest, possessing a certain peculiarity which he designates as the Alpine Waker.

Whenever in the solitude of the high pastures the cowherds of the Tyrol and Switzerland desire to communicate with one another over distances too far for the voice to carry they make use of a sort of wooden drum, upon which they strike with a wooden hammer, thus producing a sound which is distinctly heard over a long distance. This custom is the father of the idea.

Just above the dial on the clock will be found a wooden hammer, which, actuated by the alarm movement, beats upon a thin board, raised an inch from the face of the clock, as upon a drum, producing a sound of remarkable intensity, more thrilling in deed than that of the ordinary metal bell.

SHIPWRECKED.

A man stood on a lonely isle. A shipwrecked sailor he. While all about him roared and crashed.

The angry, restless sea.

The waves dashed high, as rose the tide.

With deafening, maddening glee—"Alas!" exclaimed the shipwrecked man.

"I guess it's up to me."

Hope for Greffield's Conviction.

Considerable interest is felt here in the approaching trial of Greffield which is to take place in a Portland court early this month, says the Corvallis Times. The fear is that the rogue will play the crazy dodge and instead of his just deserts, get adjudged insane and be sent to the asylum. Those in position to know say that the evidence against him in the adultery case for which he is now held is absolutely straight and convincing, and in such abundance as to make his conviction certain unless the whole business gets sidetracked on a sentimental theory of lunacy.

Helress Weds Machinist.

New Market, N. J., Sept. 7.—Miss Mabel Lefler, a niece of the late Mrs. Charles L. Fair, who came into the possession of a fortune by the settlement made between her grandmother, Mrs. Hannah Nelson and the Fair family, was married today to George Whitley, a young machinist, living in Plainfield, N. J. Young Whitley became acquainted with the heiress when he was a pitcher of the baseball team here several years ago.

Stackland Brothers, of Cote, Union county, have just received an order from Director W. H. Aehrntz, of the Oregon exhibit at the St. Louis fair, for a carload of mixed fruits—peaches, pears, plums and apples, which will be sent as soon as the fruit is ripe.

A CITIZEN'S STORY.

Told by a Pendleton Citizen for the Benefit of Pendleton People.

The greatest importance attached to the following is that it concerns a Pendleton citizen. It would lose three-quarters of its interest if it involved some resident of Kalamazoo, Mich., or Woonsocket, R. I. Like all the testimony which has appeared here, and like all which will follow about the Old Quaker remedy, Doan's Kidney Pills, it comes from residents, fellow citizens and neighbors. No other remedy can show such a record of home cures. Read this case:

W. C. Baker, living at Tustin and Aura streets, in Pendleton, says: "A year ago this coming April, while living in Seattle, Wash., I fell from a staging to the ground, 12 feet below, and struck on my back. I was laid up for five weeks in bed and ever since then my kidneys have been affected. The secretions were highly colored and contained a sediment like brick dust. I had dizzy spells and headaches and dull aching pains through my joints and kidneys and back. I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Brock & McComas Co. drug store, and have used seven boxes. I consider myself cured. The urinary difficulty is a thing of the past and I have neither headache, dizziness nor pains in my back."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
