

Miss Nettie Blackmore, Minneapolis, tells how any young woman may be permanently cured of monthly pains by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"YOUNG WOMEN:—I had frequent headaches of a severe nature, dark spots before my eyes, and at my menstrual periods I suffered untold agony. A member of the lodge advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, but I only scorned good advice and felt that my case was hopeless, but she kept at me until I bought a bottle and started taking it. I soon had the best reason in the world to change my opinion of the medicine, as each day my health improved, and finally I was entirely without pain at my menstruation periods. I am most grateful."—NARRIE BLACKMORE, 28 Central Ave., Minneapolis, Minn.—$300 forfeit if original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

If there is anything about your case about which you would like special advice, write freely to Mrs. Pinkham. She will hold your letter in strict confidence. She can surely help you, for no person in America can speak from a wider experience in treating female ills. She has helped hundreds of thousands of women back to health. Her address is Lynn, Mass.; her advice is free.

Denver, Colo., Sept. 8.—Twenty to thirty new troops will be drawn into the Eagle Creek industrial embryonic under a recent federal court injunction restraining the Citizens' Alliance of Eagle Creek and others from interfering with the members of the Industrial Mercantile Co. whose store at Camp was wrecked by a mob. The Western Federation of Miners proposes to send in a number of detachments and if they are meted out Judge Marshall will be asked to send the regulars into the district to enforce the injunction. The return of the departed men will be requested and should be allowed.

ADVOCATES OF PEACE.

Three Hundred Delegates From All Over the World.

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 8.—Though the attendance will be relatively small as compared to that of some of the gatherings at St. Louis this summer, the meeting of the International Arbitration Union here during the two weeks beginning today is regarded as one of the most important conventions of the exposition period. Those who arrived to attend the sessions include some 200 men of world-wide reputations, among them

California's Birthday Today.

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 8.—The 54th anniversary of the admission of California into the Union is being observed today with the customary festivities. Several cities of the state are celebrating the anniversary on a large scale, but by far the largest gathering is at Oakland, where the Native Sons of the Golden West are holding their annual celebration. Hundreds of the visitors who have been attending the Knights Templar convention in this city were in Oakland this morning to take part in the ceremonies there.

Writers in Convention.

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 8.—Members of the Wisconsin Prose Literary Association which is composed of about 750 members and numerous writers of Wisconsin, held their annual convention in Milwaukee today. President Nelson D. Roberts of Madison presided. The convention considered the project of establishing a permanent bureau and discussed various plans for the improvement of literary work.

being eminent statesmen from nearly every country of Europe and representatives of the law-making bodies of the Central and South American republics. Several scores of the members of the congress of the United States are expected to take part in the sessions.

As its name implies the union seeks to establish international arbitration as a means of settling disputes between nations. One of the propositions that will be discussed and which may be expected to attract universal attention is that the president of the United States be requested to call a second congress of governments, similar to that held at The Hague for the purpose of negotiating arbitration treaties between the United States and foreign governments, and between the governments of Europe, and also for the purpose of considering the reduction of armaments.

CLOSING THEIR DOORS.

Knights Templar Ready to Leave San Francisco.

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 8.—For the first time since their arrival in this city several commanderies of Knights Templar closed their hospitable doors today to all visitors. It was not because the store of good things had been exhausted or that the gallant knights were tired. They had simply stayed the limit of their time in San Francisco and were absorbed in preparations for departure. The grand encampment practically concluded its business today.

The official program of festivities ends tonight, though few of the commanderies will leave San Francisco before tomorrow. Today was a great day for the exchange of badges and souvenirs. Mechanics' Pavilion, where the California commanderies have kept open house, has been besieged all week and thousands of bottles of wine and as many more baskets of fruit have been handed out to the visitors. At the headquarters of the Chicago, Boston and Philadelphia commanderies badges and pins have been given away and the punch bowls have been emptied again and again.

MANY SCIENTISTS

INTERNATIONAL ORDER MEETS IN WASHINGTON.

Representatives Come From All the Learned Scientific Societies of Europe and America—Will Visit as a Body the Principal Cities of the United States and Attend the Far West—This is the Eighth Annual Congress.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 8.—Men of distinguished appearance and whose furrowed brows evidenced habits of deep study and thought filed Colombian University hall today when the eighth International Geographical Congress opened its sessions.

The sessions of the congress began today and will continue until the end of this week. The papers and discussions will cover the widest possible range of subjects relating to geography in all its branches, including descriptive geography, physical geography, commercial and industrial geography, and geographic education.

Special attention will be given to the discussion of methods of surveying and map-making, and to the comparison of these methods with the work of other countries with the work of the federal and state surveys maintained in the United States.

Following the general meeting in this city the members of the congress will proceed in a body to Philadelphia where they will be entertained next Monday by the Philadelphia Geographical Society.

The two following days will be spent in New York as guests of the American Geographical Society, after which the delegates will proceed to St. Louis by way of Niagara Falls and Chicago.

At St. Louis the congress will hold a three days' session in conjunction with the congress of arts and sciences. A far West trip is planned after the St. Louis adjournment, and on return to Washington President Roosevelt will receive the members of the congress.

A. E. Lowe of Auburn yesterday demanded damages from King county, Wash., for having six teeth knocked out in falling from a bridge over a county road last February. The county commissioners refused to reimburse him for his injuries.

One Hundred Dollars Reward.

One hundred dollars is a pretty good reward for five minutes of your time. It is what J. E. Strain, of Watsburg, Wash., got from the Oregonian in our last subscription contest. He received with the issue of the East Oregonian, without a cent of expense to himself, a rubber-stamped buggy. We propose to conduct another subscription on the following basis:

From now until November 4th we will take new subscriptions by our subscribers and to the one who guesses nearest to the vote received by the winning presidential candidate in this state, we will give one hundred dollars.

For example, if you think President Roosevelt will receive the majority of votes in the coming election, fill out the coupon, "Roosevelt's vote in Oregon will be (.....)" and put in your estimate.

If our subscribers co-operate with us as they have in previous contests, we expect they will in this, we will take in several hundred estimates, possibly much more, one-half of which will go to the person who guesses nearest to the vote in Oregon for the winning presidential candidate.

There is only one requirement and this is important. ALL NEW SUBSCRIPTIONS MUST BE THOSE OF NEW SUBSCRIBERS. Renewal subscriptions will not be counted in this contest. Subscribers can participate in this way: Get some neighbor to take the Weekly East Oregonian for four months for 50 cents. Send in a money order for the 50 cents, 1c and 2c stamps or silver, accompanied by your guess on the presidential vote. If you do not want to ask some neighbor to subscribe, send in your guess and the name of some friend in the East who is interested in western country. Let him read the Weekly East Oregonian and give him more news about the resources of the Inland Empire than could if you wrote him a 50-page letter a week. For every 50 cents you will be entitled to one guess. If you get four of your friends to take the Weekly East Oregonian for four months each, you will be entitled to four guesses, or if you get a new subscription for a year for the Weekly for $1.50 you are entitled to three guesses. Some one of our subscribers will get one half of the money taken in on this contest. It may be only $50, or it may be one hundred dollars, but whatever the sum the one who guesses nearest to the presidential vote in Oregon for the winning candidate, will get the money.

Remember the guess is on the vote cast in Oregon for the winning presidential candidate.

Only new subscriptions count. A subscription for 50 cents gives you one guess.

You can send in as many subscribers as you wish and for every 50 cents you get one guess.

This contest closes November fourth, so be sure to send in your guess before that time.

The total vote in June, 1904, was $2,808; for republican candidate, supreme judge, 52,946; for democratic, 28,729; socialist, 6,419; and other, 5514.
