Has Fine Corn Crop.

J. M. Hemphill, who lives near Pilor Rock, has 10 acres of Dakota Yellow Dent corn, the stalks averaging fully seven feet high on the entire tract. Samples of the corn were brought to the East Oregonian today by A. H. Rugg. The ears are fully eight inches in length, well filled with plump grains. It is estimated that the crop will average 40 bushels per acre. It is on bottom land where it can be irrigated. The crop has just been shocked and will be used for feed.

Dissolution Shoe Sale.

The dissolution sale at Dindinger, Wilson & Co.'s shoe store is proving to be a great magnet in the way of pulling the trade. The low prices being offered on this high grade footwear makes it a great object for people to buy now. Dindinger, Wilson & Co. are anxious to close out the entire $20,000 stock at the earliest possible date.

New Line of Candies.

F. W. Schmidt has secured the agency in Pendleton for the celebrated McDonald candy, made at Salt Lake City. This candy has established a wide reputation for its superior qualities and purity. Mr. Schmidt has in stock boxes of McDonald's delicious.

To College at Weston.

A party of Grand Ronde young people en route to Weston to attend the Normal School, passed through Pendleton this morning. They are:
W. W. McCully, Miss Elsie McCully and Miss Stella Mayfield, of Elgin; Miss Vernie McConnell, of Nyssa and Miss Minnie Glenn, of La Grande.

Four Cases Typhoid.

Four children in the family of D.
C. Davis, who lives eight miles south of town, between the Tutuilla and Mc-Kay, are ill with typhoid fever. It is not a malignant type.

Has Left Hospital.

J. S. Hartele, of Cold Springs, who has been in the hospital with typhoid fever, is able to be out and down town today, though frail and is expected to convalesce rapidly.

Some men talk in their sleep and others sleep in their talk.

interest of the Pendleton Academy.— La Grande Observer.

New Residence in Byers' Grove.

Normal Humphrey will build a seven-room dwelling on Lewis street, about two blocks west of the new school house in Byers' grove. Trout-man is drawing the plans, and the intention is to complete the building this fall. It will be the first new residence in what may be called the reclaimed district, and shows faith in that neighborhood.

Will Go to San Francisco.

Mrs. Elsie Dobler will start tomorrow for San Francisco to visit with another brother. She will be accompanied by Miss Winnie Struve, who will remain in San Francisco for a
