KNIGHTS RETURN

LAST OF TEMPLARS HOME FROM CONCLAVE.

Pendleton Delegation Royally Entertained by Walter and Henry Pierce on Victoria Island, the Pierce Estate Near Stockton—All Express Their Delight With the Hospitality Met With Everywhere—All Glad to Return Home After a Most Enjoyable Outing.

The last of the Pendleton knights and ladies who attended the Templar conclave at San Francisco, arrived home yesterday and today. They tell of an enjoyable visit to Victoria island, in San Pablo bay, as the guests of Walter M. Pierce of this city, and his brother, Henry, of Victoria. Victoria island is 12 sections in extent and is the property of the Pierces. The entire Pendleton delegation to the conclave was invited to spend a day on the island. The following accepted the hospitality: Mr. and Mrs. John F. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Roosevelt, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Taylor, William Slusher, Robert Forster, E. J. Summerville and W. T. Wright of Union.

The party, after crossing San Francisco bay and taking the train to Port Costa, were met by the Pierces' steam launch and conveyed around

PURE DRUGS

It is easy to say "pure drugs." So easy that many druggists say so from force of habit. The reality requires more than mere "say so." It requires knowledge, experience, constant and conscientious vigilance.

We say we have pure drugs because we have. We spent time and money to make sure of the fact. There are no better drugs to be had than we provide. There are no pure drugs that can be had for lower prices than ours.

What is a Savings Account?

THE USE of a Savings account is not fully understood. It is a banking feature that does more service to a community that can readily be appreciated. In every community, there are numbers of people who have small sums and no means of using them to advantage. The Savings

Department of this bank affords the means of utilizing these funds. One man has $5, another $50, another more, another less. These sums when placed together in a bank can be loaned out so as to pay interest. The Savings Department is the means of getting these small sums together and loaning them out safely. There are many people who would be pleased to receive interest on their money for a short time.

The Commercial National Bank is the only institution in this city which provides strictly for the receipt and care of savings and trust funds. Interest paid on all such accounts at the rate of

for each calendar month that the money remains in bank. Deposits made on or before the 4th of a month draw interest from the first of that month. Interest is credited on all accounts February and August 1st, at which times, if not drawn, it becomes part of the principal. Any part of a deposit may be withdrawn without disturbing interest on the balance.

Certificates of deposit are issued bearing interest at the following rates:

Certificates Payable in 6 months, 4 per cent.
Safety deposit boxes for rent.

Don't overlook the fact that we are a National Bank, under the direct supervision of the Federal Government.

Interest Compounded every six months

FAINT GLIMPSES OF SPIRIT WORLD

DR. L. SCHLESINGER, MEDIUM, VISITS PENDLETON.

Wonderful Demonstrations of Mediumship Before a Party of Friends at Dr. W. G. Cole's Home—Names Written on Tightly Folded Slips Are Read—Private History of the Unknown Persons Readily Given—Object is to Prove Immortality of the Soul.

That was a surprised, delighted, and yet awe-struck party of friends, which gathered at the beautiful home of Dr. W. G. Cole last evening to witness the spiritualistic demonstrations of Dr. Louis Schlesinger, one of the most noted spiritualistic mediums in the world.

Dr. Schlesinger came to Pendleton yesterday morning on his way to Spokane, and being ill from a cold and night travel, decided to stop over and receive medical attention.

He called on Dr. Cole for this purpose and while talking with the doctor in his offices in the Judd building, made known that he was a medium, and as an evidence of the power of his mediumship, told the doctor that he (Dr. Cole) did not believe in spiritualism, a thought which was uppermost in Dr. Cole's mind at that moment.

The conversation led to an extended discussion of the subject of spiritualism and Dr. Schlesinger offered to make a demonstration that would convince anyone of the genuineness of the science or theory of spiritualism and consequently of the certainty of immortality.

By this time Dr. Cole was interested deeply in the medium and invited Dr. E. A. Vaughn to witness a demonstration of spiritualism.

The demonstration of Dr. Schlesinger's powers of mediumship was made in the following manner: Dr. Cole went into his private office and wrote several names on slips of paper, some of those of dead and some those of living persons, placed the bits of paper, tightly folded in a hat held by Dr. Vaughn, where they were vigorously shaken, so it was impossible for Dr. Cole, who had written the names, to distinguish one slip from another.

Then Dr. Schlesinger called the name on each slip as it was taken, yet tightly folded, from the hat, complementing the name of the person with a few words of personal history.

The performance was repeated with R. Alexander, Dr. Vaughn, E. J. Sommerville and others who by this time had come in until all were amazed at the wonderful revelation of the man's powers.

At the earnest solicitation of Dr. Cole, Dr. Schlesinger consented to remain over for a day and give a private entertainment at his home and last night in Dr. Cole's parlors, this strange instrumentality of the spirits brought the visible and the invisible worlds so nearly together that materialistic doubters and men and women who had long looked upon spiritualism as a myth, were forced to admit of the awe-inspiring reality of this something, which they could not attempt to explain.

The performance at Dr. Cole's office in the morning was repeated in the presence of about 20 guests in the evening. W. C. Burgess, who was a total stranger to Dr. Schlesinger, wrote a half dozen names of dead and living people on slips of paper, folded the slips tightly and drew them out one at a time. Dr. Schlesinger spelling out the names on the folded slips. Mr. Burgess' name was then placed in the hat among the number and the hat shaken and it was readily selected by the medium as the names were again taken from the hat.

Dr. Schlesinger receives no introductions at public meetings, preferring to get the names of his auditors from his spirit guides, which he readily does. The guide, or spirit advisor of Dr. Schlesinger, is his brother, named Ben, who died in early youth and who has always acted as his communicator in the spirit world.

Dr. Schlesinger is totally deaf in the ear to which his spirit guide always speaks, and in reading the names on the slips, he continually asks his guide to give him the name and help him to know.

Dr. Schlesinger is 54 years of age, the oldest living medium known. He is a Mason of high standing and has over 2000 voluntary press notices of his wonderful feats. He says his aim in demonstrating the power and presence of spirits, in constant communication with man, is to prove the continuity of life after death, and says cheerfully that he is ready to cross over to the spirit world, it being only a step distant from this.

He is a Hebrew of venerable appearance and wonderful vitality for a man of 54 and his performances have set a large circle of highly intelligent men and women in Pendleton to thinking seriously.

He will be a guest of Hotel Pendleton for a few days.

He has a home in Chattanooga, Tenn., and one in San Francisco. He does not lower his wonderful power to a mercenary level, and gives advice and counsel free to the poor, accepts cheerfully whatever is paid for his services, but has no fixed price and says his whole aim in life is to spread the gospel of the immortality of the soul, help the suffering and fit mankind to enter aright the mysterious spirit world, glimpses of which he gives to the most stubborn unbeliever in a most startling manner.

Father Vander Velden Recovering. Father Vander Velden, who left here some weeks ago for the Calville reservation for a vacation on account of his health, being afflicted with a form of nervous prostration, is now a patient at St. Vincent's hospital at Portland, where his health is rapidly improving. When fully recovered it is believed he will be transferred to Spokane, and be connected with one of the numerous educational or ecclesiastical institutions of that place.

Extra Coach Northbound.
The tourist rates now prevailing in the East on lines tributary to the coast, brought in about 100 more passengers than usual on the west-bound passenger this morning, who were destined for Spokane branch points. The northbound train was delayed for some time until an extra coach could be put in commission to accommodate the people who could not get into the regular train.

Pleased With State Fair.
W. M. Baker and wife, of Adams, en route home from the state fair, were in town this morning and went north on No. 5. Mr. Baker is greatly pleased with the state fair, pronouncing the horse racing for the most part as fine, and the livestock display as the best ever seen in the state. The attendance was larger than ever before at an Oregon state fair, and in every respect he considers the fair the best the state has ever seen.
