

AMONG THE EXCHANGES OF THE INLAND EMPIRE

Separator and Grain Burn. Mr. Lay's separator, together with six stacks of grain were destroyed by fire at the Vancil place on Prairie creek Monday evening at 11 o'clock.

Asotin County Grain Crop. Grain is now pouring into the Asotin warehouses at the rate of about 1000 sacks per day, and there is a continuous rush with Messrs. Jones & Co. before another week rolls by the daily receipts will not reach at least 2000 sacks per day as soon as the rancher gets grain threshed he will start teams hauling. It is no exaggeration to say that it will be at least the middle of October or the first of November before all of the grain is safely stored in the warehouses.

Cattle Market Improving. Agent W. P. Lawrence, of the O. R. & N. Co., advises that orders have been received for the shipment of 1000 head of cattle to Walla Walla, 1000 to Seattle, and two cars of 1000 to Chicago. This marks the high in the cattle market, and it is expected by stockmen here that the price will improve and some of the best stock can be got off the range.

Exporting County Records. The contract for exporting the county records was let last week to J. Dunlap, formerly deputy clerk Multnomah county, for $12.50 per year. There were several other bids ranging from $650 to $1,000 in lump sums, but the court considered it better to be on the safe side.

WARM AND TOO DRY

PRECIPITATION FROM FOGS IN THE WEST. The weather during the last week (dry and smoky) with warm days generally cool nights; fogs occurred in the western section on several mornings, and in portions of the St. Louis counties there was quite a deficit of moisture from them, which is of slight benefit to gardens and lawns.

Excursion Rates to St. Louis. For the World's fair at St. Louis the following rates are announced: To St. Louis, going via St. Paul or Billings, returning any direct route $60.00. To Chicago, going via St. Paul or Billings, returning any direct route $65.00. To St. Louis, returning from Chicago; or To Chicago, returning from St. Louis $62.50. To St. Louis, returning via Chicago; or To Chicago, returning via St. Louis $65.00. Children of half-fare age, half the above rates.

Special Excursions to St. Louis. October 3, 4 and 5 are the remaining dates upon which tickets will be sold at the reduced rates to the St. Louis fair. These rates apply over the Denver & Rio Grande and Missouri Pacific. For the patrons of these roads special excursion cars will be run through from Portland and St. Louis without charge.

It Will Be to Your Interest. If you contemplate visiting the St. Louis exposition, to secure reliable information as to railroad service, the lowest rates and the best routes. Also as to local conditions in St. Louis; hotels, etc., etc.

side so far as expense to the county is concerned and let the work out by the day, reserving the right to discontinue the experting at any time it seems fit. Mr. Dunlap will furnish an assistant at his own expense and if the work is finished on all the county records it will consume about three months.—Creek County Journal.

Old Man for the Job. Orlando Robbins, traveling guard, left for Challis yesterday, after a couple of prisoners, who have been sentenced to terms in the penitentiary. Mr. Robbins was 68 years old a few days ago, and he celebrated the event by riding horseback 50 miles and during the week he traveled no less than 500 miles on horseback in search of Dougherty, the escaped convict. Such a trip would be bad enough for a man of 20, but Mr. Robbins said he felt none the worse for it.—Boise Capital News.

Charged With Embezzlement. E. Ashley Mears, who for the past two weeks has been confined in the county jail, charged with embezzlement, said to have been committed in the management of his bank at Starbuck, was brought before Judge Holman Wednesday morning for preliminary examination. He waived and was bound over to the superior court in the sum of $250. Mr. Mears claims that he will soon pay all claims against him.—Columbia County Dispatch.

$50,000 Farm. What is probably the largest real estate deal ever consummated in Columbia county was made yesterday between W. H. Richardson and Lem Burnham and Frank Maxwell when Mr. Richardson sold his Thorn Hollow farm of 1200 acres to these gentlemen for $50,000. Mr. Burnham is a recent arrival here from Quincy, Ill., and Mr. Maxwell is one of Columbia county's most successful farmers.—Columbia County Dispatch.

Boring for Oil. Work is soon to be resumed on the oil well at Myrtle creek, Douglas county, says the Plaindealer. This well is already down 1500 feet, at which point it was abandoned several months ago on account of lack of funds. If oil is not found at a depth of 2000 feet the project will be given up entirely. According to geological reports the strata of the district are favorable for the location of oil.

Fell and Was Injured. F. R. Dunn, a painter, while working on Lee Lyon's house, near here, fell a distance of 30 feet, striking on his back. His injuries were severe and it is supposed internal. His recovery is doubtful.—Ellensburg Dawn.

becoming very dry; plenty of fruit in the markets. Owyhee, Malheur county, J. M. Harris—As we still have plenty of water in the Owyhee ditch, crops are not suffering from continued dry weather; third crop of alfalfa is now being cut and is fine; grain crop good; prunes are fairly good and are being gathered and shipped; apples wormy.
