PERSONAL MENTION

J. W. Kimbrell is at Echo doing surveying for private parties.

H. E. Laatz is in the mountains buying wood for the winter trade.

H. E. Collier, deputy district attorney, went to Milton this morning on business.

Miss Grace Oliver left for Salem this morning, where she will enter Willamette University.

Mrs. Marshall Wyrick, who has been seriously ill at St. Anthony's hospital, is recovering.

William Armstrong was sentenced to three days in the city jail this morning for drunkenness.

George Wilson and Ellis Doubleday arrived last night and will seek situations on stock ranches.

D. B. Richardson, of Helix, leaves tonight for Nez Perce, to attend to business for a week or 10 days.

Robert Walker, of Helix, is removing to Grass Valley, Sherman county, where he will reside in future.

O. C. Gallaher, of Athena, is in town today. His wheat yielded 30 bushels per acre and is of excellent quality.

W. M. Blakeley went to Eastland this morning to look after putting in his fall crops. He will this fall sow about 300 acres of wheat.

Arville Gilmore and family left on the morning train westbound, and will spend the winter in Wasco and perhaps locate in that place.

Charles L. Pinkerton has signed a contract to teach in District No. 30, near Weston. Miss Minnie Lee will teach in District No. 65, which is also near Weston.

D. A. Collins, the horseman, went to Echo this morning. Mr. Collins expects to sell at least one of the blooded stallions he brought here from St. Louis.

Miss Elsie Wachter left this morning for Walla Walla, after a visit of several weeks with her sister, Mrs. E. T. McMillan, a recent arrival from Keokuk county, Iowa.

A. F. Elraith went to Portland this morning expecting to be absent for a month or more. Mr. Elraith is interested in certain brick building contracts in that neighborhood.

C. E. Gibson left this morning for The Dalles. He has been laid up for some time at the home of his sister, Mrs. Anderson, in the western part of town, with a severe attack of rheumatism.

County School Superintendent F. K. Welles this morning received word from his uncle, William A. Welles, of the state line, that he had disposed of a 240-acre ranch. The purchase price is not known.

W. Johnston, a Walla Walla man, was in town yesterday and today, taking his first inspection of the place. He was highly pleased with the hustle and abounding evidences of business prosperity.

Sam, Frank and Mable Howard, the well known vaudeville team which delighted Pendleton audiences during the season just past, were passengers on the westbound O. R. & N. train for Portland last night. They have just completed a two months' engagement at Boise City.

Miss Winnie Privett will return from Walla Walla this evening accompanied by her friend, Miss Lizzie Coyle, of Walla Walla. Both attended the wedding a few days ago at Walla Walla of Miss Hazel Jaycox, who was married to Roscoe Drumheiler, son of a wealthy farmer of that vicinity.

Mason Warnock and wife, of Clackamas county, arrived last night and are the guests of Mr. Warnock's nephew, County Recorder Folsom. After being here for some days they will go to Sprague, Wash., to visit Mr. Folsom's mother and brothers. Mr. Warnock and Mr. Folsom had not met in 26 years until this morning.

Earl Smithson left this morning for Coos Bay, where he will be employed in a new cannery. Mr. Smithson's boyhood was spent largely on the cod fishing boats along the New England coast, and he returns to the trade he first learned, after being a sheep herder, mill hand, coal miner and ditch tender in Colorado irrigated districts.

W. A. Barker, Representative of a Large Cloak House, to Be at Teutsch's Saturday.

W. A. Barker, a representative of one of the largest suit and cloak manufacturing establishments of the country, will be in Pendleton Saturday when he will place on display at Lee Teutsch's department store a complete collection of all the new and fashionable suits, cloaks and jackets.

This will give the ladies of Pendleton an opportunity to select a suit to their liking and having it made to their individual measurements at a price that is no higher than regular stock articles cost.

Mr. Baker will be in Pendleton for one day only and the ladies should not let this opportunity go by as it will give them a chance to study the very latest and choicest ideas of this season.

PORT WINE TONIC

Port Wine—Iron and Oregon Grape Root.

The demand for a gentle and effective tonic to stimulate and recuperate the debilitated system, has induced THE OREGON WINE & LIQUOR CO. to place on the market the Port Wine Tonic, assuring their patrons that it will speedily tone up the system of persons suffering from all forms of Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility or Malarial complaints to which people of all parts of the country are subjected. It contains no poisonous ingredients and can be taken by the weakest persons with the best results. As a strengthening tonic and appetizer it has no equal.

Prepared with the greatest care. The principal parts are composed of Selected Oregon Grape Root, Iron and our Famous Cucamonga (14-year-old) Port.

Port Wine is acknowledged by physicians today to be more strengthening than meat. Oregon Grape Root is noted for its blood-giving and purifying qualities, while the iron rebuilds and tones up the entire system. The result is a remedy unequalled for general medicinal purposes and a beverage pleasing to the taste.

Prepared and bottled under our personal supervision and guaranteed exactly as represented.

Ask your druggist or grocer for it, and take no other.

DIRECTIONS—From three to four wine glasses each day.

In Jugs Only—Full quarts, 75c; Half gallon, $1.25; Gallon, $2.25.
