The following dates have been made for the Rev. Stone, D. D., who will speak upon the live temperance issues of the day. The list is subject to perhaps one or two slight changes, but in the main will be observed closely:

Thursday, 22, Weston; Friday, 23, Helix; Saturday, 24, Adams; Sunday, 25, Athena; Monday, 26, Pilot Rock; Tuesday, 27, Butter Creek; Wednesday, 28, Echo; Thursday, 29, Milton; Friday, 30, Freewater; Saturday, October 1, and Sunday, October 2, Pendleton.

MOVED TO TOWN.

H. J. Taylor Will Sow Three Hundred and Fifteen Acres of Wheat.

H. J. Taylor, one of the prosperous farmers who lives about eight miles northeast of Pendleton, has moved to town, occupying a residence at the corner of Garden and High streets, and will remain for the school year, with three children in the public schools.

Mr. Taylor will this fall sow 315 acres of winter wheat. He reports that about twice as much rain fell in the neighborhood of Fulton during the past two days as fell in Pendleton, but not enough to start fall plowing and seeding.

Newly Invented Grain Elevator.

J. W. King, of Waiilatpu, has spent a week in this place negotiating for the sale of territory rights for the manufacture and sale of a grain elevator or dump (of which he is the inventor and patentee) especially designed to facilitate the handling of grain in the sack in warehouses. The contrivance is said to be a complete success, but Mr. King was not able to make terms with parties here. He has already sold manufacturing and selling rights for the entire state of Idaho.

John Ulrich Dead.

John Ulrich, 80 years of age, died last night of cancer, after a prolonged illness. The funeral will be held tomorrow under the auspices of the Grand Army of the Republic, of which the deceased was a member. Ulrich had resided in Pendleton a number of years. He is survived by a son.

New Teacher Expected.

Yesterday City Superintendent E. B. Conklin wired Miss Cox, of Salem, that her application for a position in the Pendleton public schools had been accepted and she is expected to arrive in time to begin teaching next Monday. PORT WINE TONIC

Port Wine—Iron and Oregon Grape Root.

The demand for a gentle and effective tonic to stimulate and recuperate the debilitated system, has induced THE OREGON WINE & LIQUOR CO. to place on the market the Port Wine Tonic, assuring their patrons that it will speedily tone up the system of persons suffering from all forms of indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility or Malarial complaints to which people of all parts of the country are subjected. It contains no poisonous ingredients and can be taken by the weakest persons with the best results. As a strengthening tonic and appetizer it has no equal.

Prepared with the greatest care. The principal parts are composed of Selected Oregon Grape Root, Iron and our Famous Cucamonga (14-year-old) Port.

Port Wine is acknowledged by physicians today to be more strengthening than meat. Oregon Grape Root is noted for its blood-giving and purifying qualities, while the Iron rebuilds and tones up the entire system. The result is a remedy unequalled for general medicinal purposes and a beverage pleasing to the taste.

Prepared and bottled under our personal supervision and guaranteed exactly as represented.

Ask your druggist or grocer for it, and take no other. DIRECTIONS—From three to four wine glasses each day. In Jugs Only—Full quarts, 75c; Half gallon, $1.25; Gallon, $2.25.
