

Miss Agnes Miller, of Chicago, speaks to young women about dangers of the Menstrual Period.

To Young Women:—I suffered for six years with dysmenorrhea (painful periods), so much so that I dreaded every month, as I knew it meant three or four days of intense pain. The doctor said this was due to an inflamed condition of the uterine appendages caused by repeated and neglected colds.

"If young girls only realized how dangerous it is to take cold at this critical time, much suffering would be spared them. Thank God for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, that was the only medicine which helped me any. Within three weeks a marked improvement in my general health, and at the time of my next monthly period the pain had diminished considerably. I kept up the treatment, and was cured a month later. I am like another person since. I am in perfect health, my eyes are brighter, I have added 15 pounds to my weight, my color is good, and I feel light and happy."

—Miss Agnes Miller, 25 Potomac Ave., Chicago, Ill. — $3.000 Refit. If original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

The monthly sickness reflects the condition of a woman's health. Anything unusual at that time should have prompt and proper attention.

FAIRBANKS' TOUR

WILL CAMPAIGN ALL THE WESTERN STATES.

Will Make Rear Platform Speeches in Many Small Towns—Will Be Elected to Portland by Senator J. P. Dolliver—Will Speak at Spokane and Then Come South—Will Travel From Portland to San Francisco on Sunday.

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 23.—Senator Fairbanks leaves Chicago tonight for the longest stump-speaking trip the country has seen since Mr. McKinley's famous "swing around the circle" prior to his first nomination for the presidency. The tour of the republican vice-presidential nominee will take him to the Pacific coast and return and will keep him busy until about the second week in October.

When Mr. Fairbanks is not addressing the voters of such towns as Big Timber, North Yakima and Missoula from the rear platform of his car he will be making talks at such centers as St. Paul, Butte, Helena, Tacoma, and San Francisco. Sundays are to be used in making big jumps, such as one from St. Paul to Glendive, Mont., and another from Portland to San Francisco.

Senator J. P. Dolliver will take the vice-presidential candidate out of Chicago and through to Portland. He may continue as far as Omaha on the way back. Either at Portland, San Francisco or Omaha he will be relieved by Congressman R. G. Cousins of Iowa. Mr. Fairbanks will reach La Crosse, Wis., at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning. During the day he will travel through Southern Minnesota, making rear platform speeches at Rushford, Lanesborough, Spring Valley, Austin and Albert Lea. Then he transfers to the Burlington and speaks at Owatonna and Fairbairn, reaching St. Paul late in the afternoon. He speaks before the Twin Cities Republican club tomorrow night.

On Monday the senator will speak at Glendive, Miles City, Forsythe and closes the day with a night meeting at Billings. On Tuesday he speaks at Big Timber, Livingston, Bozeman, and closes at Butte. On Wednesday he is at Anaconda and Boulder, closing at Helena. During Thursday he makes Missoula, closing at Spokane, Wash. Friday will find him at North Yakima, Ellensburg, Ronald and Tacoma. The Oregon state committee is privileged to work the candidate as seen fit on Saturday, reserving Saturday night for a meeting at Portland. From there he travels to San Francisco on Sunday. From San Francisco the return trip is not definitely outlined. It will include meetings at Ogden, Carson City and Cheyenne, and probably Denver.

Pure Food Congress.

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 23.—The International Pure Food Congress, and eighth annual convention of the National Association of State Dairy and Food Departments will be held in this city during the coming week. Delegates from many foreign countries will be present, and with them many eminent personages of the United States. The object of their work is to prevent commercial piracy that results in flooding the market with adulterated foodstuffs whose impurities are injurious to the health and not infrequently result in fatalities. Among those who will address the coming congress are Secretary of Agriculture Wilson, Congressman Hepburn of Iowa, and other noted champions of the pure food laws.

Minnesota Populists.

Minneapolis, Minn., Sept. 23.—A strong effort is to be made to revive interest in the populist party principles in Minnesota. Leaders of the party are rounding up in Minneapolis and tonight they will meet in convention at the Nicollet hotel to put a Watson and Tibbles electoral ticket in the field. If the outlook appears to warrant it a state ticket may be put in the field. Announcement is made that Thomas E. Watson of Georgia, the populist candidate for the presidency, will address the gathering.

W. C. T. U. State Convention.

Rochester, Minn., Sept. 23.—The Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Minnesota began its annual convention in Rochester today with a large attendance of delegates from the various branches of the organization throughout the state. The convention will be in session four days. Among the features of the program will be addresses by Mrs. L. M. N. Stevens, the national president, and other prominent officers and workers of the organization.

Elocutionists in Session.

Cleveland, O., Sept. 23.—Prominent elocutionists from all over the state are here for the ninth annual convention of the Ohio State Association of Elocutionists, which opens this evening in the assembly room of the Hollenden hotel. The sessions will continue through tomorrow. In addition to papers and recitations the program provides for discussions of all grades of elocutionary work from the kindergarten to advanced dramatic instruction.

The officers in charge of the convention are: Edmund Vance Cook, Cleveland, president; Miss Jennie Mannheim, Cincinnati, first vice-president; Mrs. Elizabeth Mansfield Irving, Toledo, second vice-president; Miss Ruth Ethel Mougey, Athens, secretary; Frank S. Fox, Columbus, treasurer.

President to See Primate.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 23.—Elaborate preparations have been made for the entertainment of the Archbishop of Canterbury and his party who arrive in Washington today for a visit of several days. President Roosevelt will receive the distinguished visitor and his party at the White House tomorrow, and Bishop Saterlee will give a large reception complimentary to the archbishop tomorrow evening. This reception will be the first important social function of the season in Washington. The archbishop, Bishops Saterlee and Doane, and their wives, will form the receiving line. The British ambassador, Sir Henry Mortimer Durand, and Lady Durand will be present, as will many members of the British embassy staff, the affair having an official nature for them, although not for officials of the Washington administration.

I. O. O. F. Session Nears End.

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 23.—Today practically marked the end of the great national gathering of Odd Fellows which has been in session here since Monday. Features of the day, in addition to the concluding sessions of the Sovereign Grand Lodge included a parade of the delegates, followed later in the day by a dress parade of the Patriarchs Militant. In the Mechanic's Pavilion tonight the prizes will be awarded to the winning teams in the competitive drills and this function will be followed by a grand ball, which will bring the week's program to a close. While many of the visitors will depart for their homes tomorrow others will remain sight-seeing in this vicinity for several days to come.

Fearful Odds Against Him.

Bedridden, alone and destitute. Such, in brief, was the condition of an old soldier by name of J. J. Havens, Versailles, O. For years he was troubled with kidney disease and neither doctors nor medicines gave him relief. At length he tried Electric Bitters. It put him on his feet in short order and now he testifies: "I'm on the road to complete recovery." Best on earth for liver and kidney troubles and all forms of stomach and bowel complaints. Only 50c. Guaranteed by Tallman & Co., druggists.

For Industrial Exposition.

New York, Sept. 23.—Plans are rapidly being perfected for the establishment of a permanent industrial exposition in New York, which can be made the center of attraction for foreign buyers when in this city. The indorsement of several of the South American republics has been obtained for this plan. A meeting of the commercial organizations of New York will be held next week to secure their co-operation in the undertaking.

South Dakota Lutherans.

Bridgwood, S. D., Sept. 23.—The Lutheran conference, comprising all of South Dakota, convened here today with a good attendance of delegates and visitors. Rev. Prof. H. Ernst of St. Paul, William Steinhilber of Yorkville, Ill., and Rev. O. J. Wolff of Goodwin, S. D., will address the conference.

Work on Assessment Rolls.

County Assessor C. P. Strain this morning completed the first five letters of the assessment rolls and the total amounts to $1,559,475. "The entire assessment of the county," he said, "will easily reach $3,500,000. It will be several days yet before the rolls are completed."

HAIR NATURALLY ABUNDANT.

When It Is Free of Dandruff, It Grows Luxuriantly.

Hair preparations and dandruff cures, as a rule, are sticky or irritating affairs that do no earthly good. Hair, when not diseased, grows naturally, luxuriantly. Dandruff is the cause of nine-tenths of all hair trouble, and dandruff is caused by a germ. The only way to cure dandruff is to kill the germ; and, so far, the only hair preparation that will positively destroy the germ is Newbro's Herpicide—absolutely harmless, free from grease, sediment, dye matter or dangerous drugs. It always itches instantly; makes hair glossy and soft as silk. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. F. W. Schwilt & Co., special agents.
