FIFTEENTH SESSION

TRANS-MISSISSIPPI COMMERCIAL CONGRESS.

Will Be Held at St. Louis, and is Expected to Be the Biggest Gathering Held During the Exposition—Only Subjects of General Interest, Excluding Those of a Local and General Nature, Will Be Discussed.

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 24.—The fifteenth session of the Trans-Mississippi Commercial Congress will be held in St. Louis next month, and promises to be one of the greatest of the exposition congresses. Secretary Walter B. Stevens of the exposition has received a communication from Arthur F. Francis, secretary of the congress, in which he speaks of the stupendous efforts being made in organizing the congress, and incloses a copy of the official call.

In the call it is stated that the congress will be held on the exposition grounds and that its discussions will be confined "to subjects of general interest, excluding those which are of either a local or political nature."

The officers who will be in charge of the congress are as follows: President, R. C. Kerens, St. Louis; secretary, Arthur F. Francis, Cripple Creek; treasurer, George B. Harrison, Jr., Kansas City; chairman executive committee, Tom Richardson, New Orleans; chairman advisory committee, E. R. Moses, Great Bend, Kas.; chairman congressional committee, J. H. Gavin, Raton, N. M.

SWAMP LAND DEAL.

Profit in Eight Years on $140,000 is $3,000,000.

New York, Sept. 24.—William Waldorf Astor and John Jacob Astor considered the 200 acres of swamp land between Pelham and Bronx Parks so worthless that they wouldn't touch it with a pair of oval tongs, but acquired properties all around it and improved.

The swamps of Pelham were passed by with upturned nose and averted eyes by everybody but John B. McDonald, the contractor, who for eight years has been building the Jerome park reservoir. He took it out of the cold world for $140,000, and thereby hangs a tale. Mr. McDonald didn't want the land, except as a place to throw dirt out of the reservoir, and he interested several friends, among them said to be Richard Croker, in a new idea. Following that idea, the swamp land has now been filled up and graded to the proper level, and this tract, bordering on beautiful Pelham parkway, is now worth $3,200,000 for residence purposes. Profit in eight years, $3,000,000 and an odd $60,000.

$50,000 FLORAL GARDEN.

Projected Since the Last Raise in Standard Oil.

New York, Sept. 24.—A floral garden, which will be filled with roses, rare shrubs, and foliage, is now being laid out on John D. Rockefeller's estate at Pocantico hills at a cost of $50,000. The plans of the gardens—there really are three gardens, connected by a terrace and odd stone steps—were drawn by John D. Rockefeller, Jr., for his father, after ideas furnished by the latter, and when they are completed there will be nothing like them on any private estate in the country, with the possible exception of those on George J. Gould's Georgian court.

The gardens are about 300 feet square, and each is sunk below the level of the main drive leading to the stables. Surrounding them are walls made of cobble stones, arranged in artistic shape. All of the Rockefeller servants have been instructed to give out no information concerning the new mansion on Kybuit mountains, and even the lips of the stable help are sealed. It is reported, however, that Mr. Rockefeller will spend $1,000,000 on the new residence, which will be the most magnificent seat in this country.

EUCCHARISTIC CONGRESS.

Notable Gathering of Catholic Episcopacy and Clergy.

New York, Sept. 24.—One of the most notable gatherings of the Roman Catholic episcopacy and clergy ever held in this country will be the third Eucharistic Congress of the United States, which will begin its sessions next Tuesday in St. Patrick's cathedral in this city. Arrangements for the gathering are about completed.

The Priests' Eucharistic League is under the direction of the Fathers of the Blessed Sacrament. It was established by the Rev. Pere Eymard, founder of the congregation of the Most Blessed Sacrament. The central direction of the league is in Belgium. In this country the director general is Father E. Poirier, of the Church of St. Jean Baptiste in this city.

Bishop Maes of Covington, Ky., will preside over the approaching congress, which will be attended by a large majority of the 4200 members of the league throughout the United States. The congress will close with great pomp, which will include a pontifical high mass, sermon and laymen's procession of clergymen and laymen about the grounds of the cathedral, in Fifth avenue. The pope will be represented at the congress by the apostolic delegate, Mgr. Falconio.

entire congregation of the Bridge Street African Methodist Episcopal church to effect the removal of Dr. S. Timothy Tice as presiding elder of the Greater New York district of the A. M. E. church, which includes all the churches of that denomination in Greater New York and on Long Island.

This condition of things is due to the fact that recently Dr. Tice wrote a letter to a Brooklyn newspaper, declaring that he would support Judge Parker, and that there was no good reason why negro men should vote for republican candidates in the ensuing election. Dr. Tice's letter created much of a sensation among the colored people, as he is next in authority to Bishop Arnett.

Accountants to Gather at Fair.

St. Louis, Sept. 24.—Among the numerous gatherings to be held in the World's Fair city during the coming week one of the most important and interesting will be the congress of accountants, under the auspices of the Federation of Societies of Public Accountants. Organized nearly two years ago, the object of the federation is to promote the recognition of the profession of the public accountant by the federal government. Uniformity in state legislation pertaining to the profession is also sought. The international scope of the coming congress is evinced by the sending of delegates representing accountants' societies in England and Canada.

No Changes on Milwaukee.

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 24.—At the annual meetings of the stockholders and directors of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway company here today only routine matters were considered, no important action being taken, either as regards directors, officials or other business. The old board of directors was re-elected, and A. J. Earling, of Chicago, was chosen to succeed himself as president.
