

PERSONAL MENTION

B. C. Morey returned to Umatilla this morning. J. R. Means is building a dwelling at Umatilla for Mrs. O'Connell. C. S. Collier left for Portland this morning to resume his post-graduate studies in dentistry. Ralph Folsom, who is suffering from an attack of appendicitis, is able to be at work again. Harry Eagan is out and about after a week in St. Anthony's hospital. He is convalescing rapidly. Walter Lindsey has returned from a long trip through the Lewiston country behind a team. Mrs. James O'Connell, of Umatilla, was in town yesterday and until this morning on business, returning home this morning. Mrs. Higley, who has been the guest of James Crawford and family, starts on her return to Bentonville, Ark., this evening. Daniel O'Conner, a Klickitat county stockman, who has been in the neighborhood several days, returned home this morning. Ellis Bund went to The Dalles this morning, expecting to get a situation on one of the O. R. & N. steamers, in the river service. J. S. White of Red Cloud, Neb., is in town prospecting for city property. After a few days' stay here he will go to Spokane and will visit other points. W. C. Thompson returned to Umatilla this morning. He came to Pendleton yesterday after a three-weeks' absence at Umatilla, where he is engaged in building operations. L. Morton, a railroader from Portland, stopped off here en route to Spokane. He thinks Pendleton is a little the neatest and most thriving town he has been in in a long time. Miss Elsie Hassell, from Dawson county, Neb., stopped off and is visiting today and tomorrow with her brother, Wallace Hassel. Miss Hassel is on her way to Whitman county, Wash. to teach. Link Lynd, who is now a foreman of a bridge gang on the Palouse branch, was in town yesterday and until this morning, the guest of W. D. Fletcher. Mr. Lynd came down on business, owning property here. He formerly resided in Pendleton. B. F. Trick, a photographer from Muncie, Ind., and graduate of a photographer's institute in Illinois, is in town, arriving this morning. He is looking for a location, and will inspect all the small towns in the country before either locating or moving on. C. E. Wolverton and family, of Spokane, on their way to Southern California to spend the winter, and possibly a year, were in town a portion of yesterday and over night, the guests of Mrs. Wolverton's cousin, Mrs. R. Alexander. The Wolvertons are capitalists, and spend their winters regularly in some portion of the south. Mason Warnock and wife, who have been the guests of Harry Folsom, J. V. Tallman and other relatives here, left this morning for Spokane, and from there will visit other points of interest in the northern part of Washington, before returning to their home in Clackamas county. They have been traveling ever since last May, spending several weeks at the World's Fair.

PORT WINE TONIC

Port Wine—Iron and Oregon Grape Root.

The demand for a gentle and effective tonic to stimulate and recuperate the debilitated system, has induced THE OREGON WINE & LIQUOR CO. to place on the market the Port Wine Tonic, assuring their patrons that it will speedily tone up the system of persons suffering from all forms of Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility or Malarial complaints to which people of all parts of the country are subjected. It contains no poisonous ingredients and can be taken by the weakest persons with the best results. As a strengthening tonic and appetizer it has no equal.

Prepared with the greatest care. The principal parts are composed of Selected Oregon Grape Root, Iron and our Famous Cucamonga (14-year-old) Port.

Port Wine is acknowledged by physicians today to be more strengthening than meat. Oregon Grape Root is noted for its blood-giving and purifying qualities, while the iron rebuilds and tones up the entire system. The result is a remedy unequalled for general medicinal purposes and a beverage pleasing to the taste.

Prepared and bottled under our personal supervision and guaranteed exactly as represented.

Ask your druggist or grocer for it, and take no other.

DIRECTIONS—From three to four wine glasses each day.

In Jugs Only—Full quarts, 75c; Half gallon, $1.25; Gallon, $2.25.
