

ACTORY WILL BE OPERATED HERE

IGBY-CLOVE COMPANY

IS SURE TO STAY.

But $4000 of Stock Subscribed This Evening—Clove Proposed That $10,000 Be Made Preferred Stock, Bearing 10 Per Cent Interest—Only $20,000 to Be Used in Equipment—One-Third of $90,000 to Be Held in Reserve—Report of Committee Was Adverse.

Despite the fact that the Commercial Association received an adverse report on the feasibility of Pendleton capital financing the Irgby-Clove omnibund harvester company it is probable that the stock has all been subscribed at time of going to press. The terms of the proposition made by John Clove to capitalists here have been altered slightly—sufficient to include the issuance of $10,000 preferred stock drawing interest at 10 per cent assured—and the alteration puts a radically different face on the whole subject of financing the proposed combine works.

Today Mr. Clove is able to say that all but $4000 of the proposed $90,000 is actually subscribed, and the $4000 is in sight—perhaps is secured at this hour.

Mr. Clove is secured in a one-third interest in the company, compensation for his inventions and remuneration as superintendent of the works. The entire capitalization is for $90,000, of which one-third is reserve, and from $18,000 to $20,000 will be required to put the works on an operating basis. It is possible that the works of the Mays & Ziegler Co., the equipment of which was used last year to turn out the Clove machine, will be purchased by the new company.

The report of the special committee appointed by the Commercial Association to look into the advisability of investment in the proposed works was adverse in a degree—not because the merits of the Clove combine were not recognized and fully understood, but because the proposition submitted was not deemed as favorable as a majority of the committee thought it should be. Now Mr. Clove goes directly before the moneyed men with a proposition which will in all probability win out.

The report of the special committee, composed of Mayor W. F. Matlock, W. H. Jones and J. R. Dickson, follows:

"That after investigation we believe that the said harvester is a machine that has given satisfaction where used.

"That the establishment of a first-class foundry in connection with the manufacture of said harvesters would prove of great value to this community and remunerative to the owners.

"We find, however, that it will be impossible to finance the proposition in Pendleton, and would recommend that no further action be taken on it by the association."

PURE DRUGS

It is easy to say "pure drugs." So easy that many druggists say so from force of habit. The reality requires more than mere "say so." It requires knowledge, experience, constant and conscientious vigilance.

We say we have pure drugs because we have. We spent time and money to make sure of the fact.

There are no better drugs to be had than we provide. There are no pure drugs that can be had for lower prices than ours.

F. Collins has entered suit in the state circuit court to secure a divorce from Henry J. Collins. The wife declares she is afraid of the defendant and has secured a court order prohibiting him from interfering with her or her children during the pendency of the suit.

The Collinses were married in Cheam, Surrey county, England, Feb. 4, 1884. The husband is charged with being a drunkard and with squandering his money for drink and over gambling tables. On September 17 last, Collins is alleged to have driven his wife and children out of doors. He is a stone mason by occupation and owns a house and lot in this city. Mrs. Collins desires the custody of her minor children and $30 a month from the defendant for their support.

Says Wife Deserted Him.

Alba S. Presby this morning instituted divorce proceedings against Larkey E. Presby, charging desertion. The couple were married at Wardner, Idaho, seven years ago. The wife is alleged to have deserted her husband on March 1, 1902. There are no children. The plaintiff is represented by Attorney Peter West.

ALMOST AN EGG FAMINE.

Over 50 Cases of Portland Eggs Sold Here During Past Week.

That Pendleton is on the verge of an egg famine is shown by the hot scramble for eggs to supply the local market.

Last week J. M. Spence, who represents a Portland commission company, sold 50 cases of Oregon "candied eggs," or packed eggs, shipped here by the Portland house, but coming originally from the vicinity of Salem. Yesterday Spence sold 10 cases and the demand is not yet abated.

Eggs on the local retail market are quoted at 35 cents and the supply from the country does not nearly meet the local demand.

RECEPTION BY C. E.

Given at Academy to the Students and Faculty.

The Christian Endeavor of the Presbyterian church will give a reception Friday evening next at the Academy, to the students and teachers of the Academy and of the business college. Following the program given below, refreshments will be served.

Rev. Van Nuys will deliver the address of welcome, followed by a response by E. M. Churchill for the business college, and Miss Pearl Porter for the Academy. Mrs. Bleakney will recite and Rev. Van Nuys will sing a solo. The conclusion of the program will be an address by Prof. Bleakney.

RAMBOUILLET TRADE.

Cunningham Sells 1800 Bucks This Year.

Charles Cunningham has during the past few weeks sold in Wyoming 1800 blooded Rambouillet bucks of his own raising, at $17.50 per head, and 500 in Grant and Morrow counties and other interior districts, at $12.50 per head. He will sell 300 more before winter sets in.

Every animal of the 1800 blooded Rambouillet bucks which he imported during the early part of the summer is in the best condition, seeming not to find it necessary to become acclimated at all.

Would Fight Mitchell.

Barney Mullens, a 136-pound fighter, arrived in Pendleton this morning. Mullens is the man who fought a 15-round draw with Indian Joe, and lost to Rufe Turner by a foul at the end of the 17th round at Ogden, a short time ago. Mullens declares he is looking for a fight and will go with any boxer his weight. "I want to box with Kid Parker at Walla Walla," he said. "I am willing to fight Jack Mitchell if he desires a go with me."

SCHOOL BOOK TRADE

THE PAST WEEK BROKE

ALL FORMER RECORDS.

Large Increase in Cash Trade This Fall—Great Saving Made on Exchange of Old Books for New—Dealers Enjoin Pupils to Take Good Care of Books, If They Are to Be Exchanged—Very Little Danger of Disease From Second-Hand Books.

The school book dealers report that all records in the volume of business in that line, and in some particulars the character of the business, was broken last week, and for that matter for the first day of this week's business.

On account of the necessary delay in the grading of the schools the book trade that is generally crowded into two or three days was prolonged throughout all of last week and thus far into this. The large increase in the enrollment and the very limited accommodations made the work of classification necessarily slow, and therefore many children could not know their book needs for some days after presenting themselves at school. This fact was a very welcome one to the two dealers, and although they had purposely more than doubled their forces of clerks, yet all hands have been rushed every day since school began.

Big Cash Trade.

The other essential in which the school book trade this fall differs from previous years is the increasing volume of cash business. Fewer people have asked for credit on school books than ever before, and in a majority of instances the children themselves have the cash to offer for their purchases.

Books in exchange that pass muster are accepted at one-half the prices originally paid for them, but they must not have a leaf missing, and the line is necessarily drawn fairly close on thumbed and soiled books. Both dealers state that the demand for second-hand books exceeds by considerable the supply. One dealer has a private mark which he puts in every second-hand book passing through his hands, and already this fall several bearing four of these private marks have come into his hands and had the fifth mark appended.

Must Not Mistreat Books.

The dealers are very solicitous that the teachers systematically enjoin the pupils to take even greater care of their books than they have been doing, as inculcating thrift and pride that will have visible results year after year as long as the books last.

One dealer emphasizes the economic feature of the case, and cites as an instance where one family yesterday paid a difference of 63 cents between the old books and the new, whereas the same books would have cost, without the saving effected by exchange, between three and four dollars.

The dealers discredit the alarmists who borrow trouble by claiming that second-hand books are liable to be mediums of disease, and quote the local physicians as to the exceedingly rare possibility of disease being transmitted in this manner. Investigation made in Chicago, instigated by this sort of an alarm, resulted in two instances of disease being traced to a total of 4,000,000 second-hand school books.

ACCUSED OF THEFT.

Inmates of Cottonwood Resort Leave Town in a Hurry.

Helen McEvoy, proprietress of a Cottonwood resort, yesterday afternoon made complaint against May Sommers and Carrie Smith, former inmates of her place, charging them with larceny. The accused left on the delayed passenger train for The Dalles, and an attempt was made to stop them, but a warrant could not be secured in time.

Deputy District Attorney H. E. Collier, after issuing the warrant, ordered it held up until he could more fully investigate the affair. It is alleged by the McEvoy woman that the women stole a cloak and several other articles of wearing apparel. It is said that they also owe her about $70.

SKIRMISH SURVEYORS.

Party Has Finished With Umatilla County and Is Now in Grant.

The party of skirmish surveyors spoken of several times as operating in this county in an endeavor to locate possible sites for reservoirs under orders from the reclamation bureau, has practically covered the county during the summer, and is now in Grant county.

This party, composed of three men with instruments for taking levels and making rough, preliminary estimates of the feasibility of reservoir sites, traveled in the lightest marching order, one pack horse carrying all their camping equipment. During the summer they visited all the mountains and foothill lands in the county—east, south and southwest. The result of their findings is not known, being incorporated in sealed reports forwarded to the reclamation department at Washington.

ONE YEAR FOR FORGERY.

C. A. Schaberg Sentenced to the Penitentiary by Judge Ellis.

One year in the penitentiary is the sentence State Circuit Judge W. R. Ellis yesterday afternoon imposed upon C. A. Schaberg, who passed a worthless check. Schaberg was arraigned and entered a plea of guilty to the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses.

The prisoner was taken into custody several nights ago. He passed a check signed by himself on the saloon firm of Baker & Sullivan. The check was drawn on a local bank where the man had no deposit. Schaberg is said to have passed two other worthless checks, but no complaint was brought. He will be taken to the penitentiary in a few days.

Moving to Nez Perce.

Henry Meiners has sold out his Cold Springs interests and will remove at once to Nez Perce, where his brother Martin, and brother-in-law, John Heinrichs, now reside. Mr. Meiners will take with him a large number of livestock, including 20 head of horses. Some of these animals he will keep for work purposes, and the remainder put upon the market at Nez Perce, where horses are somewhat higher priced than here.

Jacob Betz Here.

Jacob Betz, the millionaire brewer of Walla Walla, was in Pendleton yesterday looking after business interests. Mr. Betz owns several buildings in this city. He recently purchased a valuable business block in Tacoma and it is said he intends to remove to that city within a short time. The Betz brewery at Walla Walla is now in the hands of a company composed of Walla Walla saloonmen, Betz retaining a block of the stock.

Recommends Nez Perce Country.

E. J. Meiners and wife have returned from Nez Perce, where they have been on a visit to their son Martin, and son-in-law, John Heinrichs. Mr. Meiners has no intention of selling out and removing to that country, although he is much pleased with it, and recommends it for young men who are energetic and up-to-date. Land is cheaper there than here, and opportunities generally are easier to get hold of.

Tent Is Well Warm.

The tent wherein the revival services of the United Evangelical church are being held on the north side, is being warmed with a large stove and is entirely comfortable every evening. The meetings are largely attended, but those who anticipate not being comfortable on account of the cold evenings, are mistaken. Rev. G. H. Phelps, of Dayton, Wash., is expected here to assist Revs. Lovell and Hurd next Monday.

Training in the Rain.

In spite of rainy weather Young Kid McCoy, the featherweight, who is to meet Andy King in this city next Friday night, takes a long run each morning. When he returned this morning from his six mile walk into the country, he was bespattered with mud, but remarked with a grin, "that he didn't mind a little dirt."

Preparing for Institute.

County School Superintendent F. K. Welles will go to Weston this evening to confer with President French, of the Eastern Oregon State Normal School, in regard to the program for the coming Inland Empire and Umatilla county teachers' institute. The institute will be held in this city from October 19 to 22 inclusive.
