

TO VACATE STREET

CITY CLEARS WAY FOR NEW SCHOOL GROUNDS.

Council Refuses to Arbitrate Claim of S. M. Richardson for $4000 Damages for Dumping Sewage on His Property—H. A. Thompson Resigns From Police Force—Business Dull in Police Circles and No Officer Will Be Appointed to the Vacancy at Present.

The passage of an ordinance to vacate a portion of Byers street to be used as a school house site, deferred action regarding the acceptance of the report of the sewer committee to submit the claim of S. M. Richardson against the city to arbitration; the allowing of Main street property owners between Alta and Webb to raise the sidewalk grade, and the fixing of the month's salary list, were the principal matters attended to at last night's council session.

S. M. Richardson recently presented a claim for $4000 damages, alleged to be due by reason of the mouth of a sewer discharging near his property. The council decided to take no action on the matter, but the claim was reconsidered and left in the hands of the sewer committee. The committee's recommendation to leave the matter to arbitration did not meet with the approval of the council, and action was deferred.

City Marshal M. J. Carney reported to the council that Policeman H. A. Thompson had tendered his resignation because of rheumatism. Business in police lines, the chief said, had been light during the month, and he could get along without a new man for a time. It was decided not to appoint a new officer just at present.

The petition of residents of Ann street for a sidewalk crossing over the O. R. & N. tracks was granted. The portion of Byers street to be vacated is between Lewis and Sophie streets.

HOGS ARE SCARCE.

Prominent Stock Buyer Says Fat Hogs Are Not Plentiful in Union County.

Where fat hogs have formerly been plentiful, after harvest, in the foothills of Union county, the supply is very limited this year, is the statement of Warren Chandler, a prominent stock buyer of the best district, who passed through Pendleton to Portland yesterday evening with a carload of fat cattle for the Union Meat Company.

Mr. Chandler says the decrease in the outside range area has caused many Union county men to curtail their hog herds to what can be kept during the summer months in dry pastures. Formerly large herds of hogs were held over until after harvest, on the grass of the foothills, but this range is now mostly claimed and fenced and the hog business has suffered some in consequence.

Fat hogs are now worth 5 1/2 cents in Grand Ronde, with but few to market at this price.

SMOOTH ACTOR TO PLEAD.

A. C. Chamberlain, Who Victimized E. T. Wade, Is Given Until Saturday.

A. C. Chamberlain, charged with obtaining goods and money under false pretenses, was arraigned yesterday afternoon in the state circuit court. He was given until Saturday in which to plead. In default of bonds of $400, the prisoner is in the county jail.

Chamberlain was arrested last Saturday upon complaint of E. T. Wade, a local real-estate dealer, who alleges that he sold a house and lot to the former and received in payment a worthless check for $2000, drawn on a Grant's Pass bank. After securing a deed to the Wade property, Chamberlain mortgaged the place for $350.

Ladies Looking for Location.

Mrs. Harriett Bell and her sister, Miss Jennie Whaley, of Cheyenne, Wyo., arrived last night. Both ladies may engage in fruit and poultry raising. Before bringing their prospecting trip to an end they will visit Hood River and The Dalles, Walla Walla and Lewiston. Their brother, L. B. Whaley, is on a fruit and poultry farm in the Lewiston country.

Will Raise Wheat.

J. R. King has sold his farm three miles south of Weston to his son, Frank, who has sold out at Cold Springs. Mr. King, Sr., has owned this place 30 years, though he has lived in Weston for two years past. He will buy wheat land and change his methods of farming somewhat, but will continue to live in Weston. The farm he sold comprises 113 acres and with the proceeds he will buy a half section of wheat land, which he declares will yield a greater income than the fruit and mixed farming land which he has been 30 years improving.

DR. STONE'S LECTURE.

Motto of Rally Will Be "President Roosevelt's Moral Epigrams."

The people of Pendleton will be deeply interested in the coming of Dr. Stone, who will conduct a "good citizenship" rally in this city as follows: Saturday night, 7:45 at the Methodist Episcopal church; Sunday, 3 p. m. Baptist church, and Sunday 7:30 p. m. at the Christian church.

All the churches of the city will unite in this rally and it is expected to be one of the most interesting ever held in the city of Pendleton. Dr. Stone is eloquent, logical, patriotic, humorous and sensible. The people and papers where he has been cannot speak too highly of his lectures. The motto of this rally and campaign shall be that noble utterance of President Roosevelt—"No nation, no matter how glorious its history, can exist unless it practices—practices, mind you, not merely preaches—civic honesty, civic decency, civic righteousness. No nation can permanently prosper unless the deseculate and golden rule are its guide in public as in private life."

We trust every citizen will not only endorse this sentiment of our chief magistrate, but respond with heart and hand to crystallize this worthy utterance into vigorous operation.

Come to the rally. Admission free. Fathers, mothers, you have boys; you have girls. They represent more to you than money, property or earthly values. Robert Warner, president, W. L. Van Nuys, secretary, Ministerial Alliance.

GAME WARDEN TEMPTED.

O. F. Steele Finds Covey of Quail Under His Window.

For one brief moment this morning Deputy Game Warden O. F. Steele wished that he had not taken up the duties of defender of "closed season" birds. Mr. Steele tells the story, that is, he narrates part of it.

"When I opened my eyes this morning," he said, "I saw a quail perched in a tree within a stone's throw of my window. My, but he was a pretty little fellow; and I slipped to the window and peered out. The rest of the covey were in the grass in the lawn."

Here ends the narrative of Steele. According to his friends the deputy warden seized his shotgun and ran into the yard to get a shot at the quail, when he suddenly remembered that he was one of the limbs of the law and hesitated to shoot.

WARD STOCK TO GO.

Confectionery Goods of Ralph Ward to Be Sold by Sheriff.

The stock of the confectionery store of Ralph Ward, which was attached several weeks ago to satisfy a claim of $395, including costs, was disposed of this afternoon by sheriff's sale. The suit was brought against Ward by Anna Marshall, who owns the buildings in which the store was located. She claimed back rentals.

Ward is under bonds for his appearance at the next term of court on a charge of attempting to defraud his creditors.

Welcome Mountain Rains.

W. J. Warman has returned from the mountains for the winter, with the closing of the summer range for sheep. He reports that the drought was unbroken from July 10 to September 18 in the mountains and the sheep were on the verge of great suffering when the rains came. The sheep are extremely hard to manage when the range is parched and water scarce, and the average herder would almost as leave be out of a job as to be responsible for a large band on the ordinary mountain range during a drought.

WILL BE ROSEVELT.

Ex-Governor Miles C. Moore, of Washington, Enthusiastic Republican.

Hon. Miles C. Moore, the last of the territorial governors of Washington, was in Pendleton this morning on his way home to Walla Walla from a trip East. Former Governor Moore is a republican in politics.

"Roosevelt" was the one word Mr. Moore uttered in answer to the question of how the political situation appeared to him in the East.

"The republicans are going to carry everything. One hears democrats expressing doubt as to the outcome of the presidential election, but one does not run across republicans of that opinion. As a rule they are confident of success."

Governor Moore was in New York and at St. Louis. "The same prosperity is not so apparent in the East," he continued, "as on the coast, but I attribute this to the coming election, more than anything else. Our good crops and prices keep us from feeling the stringency that a presidential campaign always brings."
