DIVORCES

GENERAL CONVENTION OF EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

Bishop of Canterbury Will Be Present, and Many Important Subjects Will Be Considered, Including the Revised Version, Marriage and Divorce, and Official Name of the Church.

Boston, Mass., Oct. 1.—From Maine and from all the states of California and from all the states of the United States, the Episcopalians are journeying to Boston to attend the triennial general convention of the Protestant Episcopal church, which begins at Trinity church in this city next Wednesday. The presence of the Archbishop of Canterbury is an event of unusual importance, and one of the subjects which are to be considered and acted upon.

The general convention is divided into two bodies—the house of bishops and the house of deputies. The house of deputies is composed of laymen and laywomen, who are elected at the various annual diocesan conventions.

Change of Name.
The question of change of name of the church will probably cause some discussion. It is regarded by many as the matter that has been practically settled for the time being, however, the vote of the dioceses, the majority having opposed a change from the present title, the Protestant Episcopal church in the United States of America.

A committee to consider this subject was appointed by the general convention of 1901. It will report unanimously that "any change of the name of this church at this time is inexpedient."

Another measure of unusual importance to be acted upon by the convention is the proposed establishment of extra diocesan courts of review and a court of appeal for the final determination of questions of doctrine, faith and worship. This will be introduced by a memorial from the diocese of Pennsylvania which unite with the diocese of Milwaukee in asking for the establishment of these kinds of higher courts.

To Use Revised Bible.

A lively discussion may be precipitated on the question of use of the revised version of the Bible. The diocese of California will present a petition to the general convention for permission to use the revised version, presumably the Westminster revision, in the lessons in the morning and evening prayer. Acting on a suggestion in Bishop Whittaker's annual address, the diocese of Pennsylvania has made a similar request, but asks for permission to use the revised version newly edited by the American revision committee.

Divorce a Vital Issue.

The question of marriage and divorce, it is believed, is bound to provoke a discussion. Bishop Doane of Albany, is chairman of the Inter-church conference on this subject. Thirteen different Protestant denominations are represented in this conference. A certain sort of inter-church unity in the matter of marriage of a divorced person is proposed.

A committee will report on the establishment of a proposed provincial system. But it is believed this will not form an issue in the convention. It has been suggested for convenience the church be divided into about four provinces, to be located in New England, the Northwest, the Pacific Coast, and the South. The metropolitan seats of these probably would be, respectively, New York city, Chicago, Washington and San Francisco. The elevation of archbishops for these would be a natural result, but it is said the general temper of the church just now is rather against such action. The whole matter is yet in a merely tentative state.

Knickerbocker Republicans.

Warren, O., Oct. 1.—The formal opening of the republican campaign in Ohio took place here today. Early morning trains brought marching clubs and other visitors from Cincinnati, Cleveland, Toledo, Columbus, Akron, Dayton and other cities throughout the state. The city was elaborately decorated for the occasion and scores of bands furnished plenty of music. The speakers of the afternoon and evening include Secretary Taft, Senator Foraker, Governor Herrick and several other leaders of national prominence.

A Boy's Wild Ride for Life.

With family around expecting him to die, and a son riding for life, 18 miles to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, coughs and colds, W. H. Brown of Leesville, Ind., endured death's agonies from asthma but this wonderful medicine gave instant relief and soon cured him. He writes: "I now sleep soundly every night." Like marvelous cures of consumption, pneumonia, bronchitis, coughs, colds and grip prove its matchless merit for all throat and lung troubles. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Tallman & Co.'s drug store.

A relief expedition will leave the United States on June 1, 1905, for the Arctic regions, in hopes of finding and relieving the ship America, now in the north. The relief expedition will be under command of William Ziegler, and will be equipped with provisions and supplies to last five years.

A special train bearing 450 excursionists, was run from Seattle to the North Yakima fair, Thursday.
