

REPORT ON LIQUOR

TEMPERANCE PEOPLE PREPARE CRIME STATISTICS.

Press Committee of the Anti-Saloon League Issues a Report on the Results of Intemperance and the Liquor Traffic—Shows That Government Is Demoralized, Crime Is Increased and Court Expenses Advanced—Report Compiled From Actual Statistics.

The following report on the liquor traffic in Pendleton has been issued by the press committee of the Anti-Saloon League.

The report has been unanimously endorsed by the Ministerial Alliance of Pendleton and is now being circulated throughout the county.

It is as follows:

As the question of prohibition is at this time before the people of this county, and many giving it serious consideration, a few facts relative to the fruits of the saloon may be of interest.

First. Defiance of law.—In this respect the saloonkeepers of Pendleton are conspicuous, and apparently without an exception. The Sunday law is constantly and openly violated—doors are open and drunken men are politerous and profane.

The law against gambling has been flagrantly violated, and it is reported that the most vicious methods have been used, taking hundreds of dollars from individuals in one night.

Careful observers testify that minors frequent saloons, and it is evident to all who will see that whiskey is sold freely to posted drunks and to Indians.

Second. Loss of life.—Man shot at Lehman Springs by a drunken man; habitual drunkard found in the rear of a Main street saloon in a dying condition—died that night.

Third. Attempt at life or assault.—A young man under the influence of liquor found shot in the rear of a saloon, a young woman in drunken condition, shot herself.

Fourth. Crimes.—The best authorities, including the statement of the district attorney for the past two terms, testify that for the last four years 80 per cent of the crimes in the county can be traced directly or indirectly to drink. During the last year 17 were taken from this county to the penitentiary, 10 of which can be attributed directly to drink. Of 350 persons taken before the municipal court in three months, 141 are classified straight drunk and disorderly; 104 inmates of houses of ill-fame—closely related to saloons; 25 gambling joints in saloons. The vagrants and fighters addicted to drink will bring it up to 90 per cent.

Fifth. Demoralization of executive department of city and county.—This is evident in the method pursued in dealing with evildoers, viz.: the fine system which is practically a license of crime. It seems to have become the settled policy to collect $7.50 monthly from the lewd women and $75 or $100 periodically from the owners of games. This method is a disgrace to modern civilization.

Sixth. Effect on the Indians.—In less than four years 17 Indians have been killed while drunk. Drunkenness has increased from year to year, and the testimony of good authorities is that it seriously retards their progress toward citizenship.

Furthermore, it cannot be defended from an economic standpoint. The few are profited at the expense of society. The saloons have monopolized Main street and advanced rents abnormally, giving a few property owners exorbitant interest on their money at the expense of the many consumers. Crimes resulting from drink greatly increase the court expenses of the county.

Located Idaho Land.

George Williams, of Milton, is in town today. He has just returned from Idaho, where he went to locate government land. He has not yet, but expects next spring, to take farming land about 25 miles above Emmett, in Canyon county. He states that very much of the land represented to be valuable is really too rough and barren to be of much account, although here and there are small tracts of excellent land yet in the government's hands.

Frozen Out in Colorado.

George Mundt of Fort Collins, Col., arrived last night. After looking Pendleton over he will go to Echo, attracted there by the representations about the climate and advantages of irrigated lands. Mr. Mundt is unfavorably affected by the high altitude and intense winter cold of the neighborhood of Denver, and is largely influenced to come here on account of his health.

Fish Pond in the Street.

A youngster in kilts stood at the edge of the curb in front of Howard's cigar store this morning and surveyed a huge puddle of water that had been left by the rains. "Say, mister," he queried, "are there any fish in that pond? If there are, I've got a fish pole and would like to try my luck."

Visiting His Mother.

Charles Kolb, who owns a large vineyard near Fresno, Cal., is visiting with his mother, Mrs. S. Kolb, of this place. They had not met in 16 years. Before returning to California, Mr. Kolb will visit his brother, who owns a farm not far from Pendleton, and his sister, Mrs. E. Walters, near La Grande.

Returned to Fargo.

Mrs. S. T. Getts, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Sarah LaTosh, left last night for Fargo, N. D. Mrs. LaTosh came here expecting to be benefitted, her lungs being affected, but on the contrary she has grown worse during the past month, and an immediate return home was thought advisable.

George Perringer, who owns the southwest corner at the intersection of Thompson and Court streets, will build thereon a livery stable during the early portion of this winter.

Mr. Perringer owns now 75 feet facing upon Court street, and 135 feet to the southward along Thompson street. Upon the ground now stands the dwelling property commonly known as the "Despair home," and in front of which is a neat lawn and shade trees. Work will begin very soon for the clearing away of this dwelling, and immediately thereafter Mr. Perringer will begin excavating for the barn.

The barn will be very nearly if not quite, the full size of the ground. It will consist of a basement and two full stories, and will be equipped with elevators and every other appliance for making the establishment thoroughly modern.

It will be built of brick, and not merely "come inside" the fire ordinance and other regulations governing its safety and that of surrounding properties, but be built with every minute regard for immunity from fire and have every possible consideration looked after in regard to the strictly sanitary aspects of the investment. In every respect it is to be constructed with every regard for cleanliness and safety, and will cost, exclusive of the cost of the ground, between $11,000 and $12,000.

When completed it will be occupied by the well known and veteran liveryman, George Froome.

WONDERFUL HYPNOTIC FEATS.

Performance of Thomas Nye at the Frazer Was Well Received.

Tom Nye proved his abilities as a clever hypnotist by his work at the Frazer last night. Mr. Nye does not claim to be an expert in this line and he follows it merely as a pastime, but some of the acts put on by him last night have not been equaled by the most noted professionals.

Mr. Nye had a class of a dozen subjects whom he put through, various scientific and humorous acts. The event of the performance was the breaking of a 250-pound stone on the body of a cataleptic subject.

Glen Bushue, night clerk at the Hotel Pendleton was placed in a cataleptic state by the hypnotist and his rigid body rested on the backs of two chairs. First three large men stood on the body. The huge rock was lifted to his stomach and broken with a sledge hammer in the hands of a strong man after repeated blows.

Mr. Nye would have made a blindfold drive through the streets yesterday afternoon but was prevented on account of the rain and mud. The attendance last night was good and the performance was well received. Mr. Nye having been highly complimented by all who witnessed the feats.

SETTLING RANGE QUESTION.

Secretary Wilson Suggests a Peaceful and Practical Question.

The feud between the cattle and sheepmen on the Western ranges has been one of long standing. Cattlemen have guarded their pastures with the Winchester, but have not been able to overcome the dogged persistence of the sheepmen. Consequently there are but few sections of the range country that have not been subjected to the close nipping and sharp tramping of the sheep.

Secretary of Agriculture Wilson is quoted as follows on this subject: "We are solving the sheep and cattle fight in Wyoming all right, and we will have it all fixed if we have time enough. We are doing it in this way. The cattle men are going into the sheep business and the sheepmen are going into the cattle business."

"In other words, we are running both sheep and cattle. We find that the cattle eat part of the grass the sheep will not touch and the sheep have no trouble in getting the fine grass they want. We have no trouble running them both on the same range and we can fatten them both and make more money than with cattle or sheep alone."

Cattlemen From Kansas.

T. E. Scott, a cattleman from Harper county, Kas., arrived last night and will go out into the recently opened country west of Pilot Rock, and visit with Geo. Eddy and Cal. Morton, also of Kansas, who located in that district last spring. Mr. Scott is on a general tour of the Northwest, and has no intention of investing unless it be for a son, and only in accordance with the latter's preferences. The son will arrive in about a week.

To Collect Printing Bill.

Action to collect $253.65 on an assigned account was instituted in the state circuit court this morning by B. E. Kennedy against F. W. Schmidt. The complaint alleges that the account was for job work performed by E. P. Dodd, and assigned to Kennedy, who was formerly a part owner of the Tribune with Mr. Dodd.

Will Open Vaudeville.

W. J. Dailey, the day bartender at the Oregon Wine & Liquor Co., announces his intention of opening a vaudeville house in Pendleton not sooner than the middle of November, the same to be on the Orpheum circuit, playing everything that is shown in Spokane and Portland, en route between those cities.

Son Was Born.

There was born Monday night to J. A. Collier and wife, at the home of Mrs. Collier's parents, W. H. Huston and wife, a son, Mrs. Collier is the wife of J. A. Collier, the Fossil attorney, who is a brother of Deputy District Attorney Collier, of this place.

Painter From California.

Ed Bord, a painter and paper hanger of Sacramento, is in town and thinks of locating. He will visit the smaller towns in the county, however, before making up his mind. His wife is visiting friends on a farm near Arlington and will join him as soon as he locates.

Shriners to Walla Walla.

PASTURES ARE GOOD.

Recent Rains Have Refreshed the Country in the Southern Part of the County.

"Just like springtime, in the vicinity of Ridge," is the way J. C. Coombs of Ridge, expresses it, in speaking of the recent rains in the southern portion of the county.

Mr. Coombs is in the city for a few days on an annual visit which he pays to the county seat, to transact business and lay in supplies for his home for the year. He says it has been the driest season ever experienced in the southern portions of the county, but that the rains of the last week have started the grass until it really looks like spring in the foothill districts.

Most of the cattle are now in the winter pastures and are doing well. Very few cattle are being sold off, and the increase last spring was very heavy, making an unusually large number to hold over this winter.

He says feed is plentiful, and unless a severe winter visits that section everybody will have sufficient hay to hold over all the stock now on hand.
