These things shall be.—A loftier race Than e'er the world hath known shall rise, With flame of freedom in their souls, And light of knowledge in their eyes. They shall be gentle, brave, and strong To spill no drop of blood, but dare All that may plant man's lordship firm. O'er earth and fire, and sea and air. Nation with nation, land with land, Unarmed shall live as comrades free. In every heart and brain shall throb The pulse of one fraternity. —J. A. Symonds, in New Century.

The Associated Press is not partisan, is not political, is not unjust nor prejudiced, is the assertion of the Oregonian, time and time again, and yet under date line news, column after column of editorial opinion of the most warped and unreliable brand is hashed out to its readers for news. That news trust is one of the most dangerous in existence because it has the means and will hazard any method to prejudice the public mind.

It is time for those Oregonians who have criticized the Oregon agricultural exhibit at the St. Louis fair to go out behind the barn and kick themselves. That criticized and belittled exhibit took the grand prize in competition with the world, and the state so far has taken 102 prizes of all kinds. Where are the knockers and the kickers, that this news may be shrieked into their ears so fiercely that they will hear nothing else for a lifetime!

Eat beefsteak and play football; throw your shoulders back and thump your breast; run foot races, if you are beaten in every race; think hard, breath deep, take long strides and look the world in the face! And in all your physical prowess, boys, be men! Be manly, courteous, fearless, yet tender men! Books are not all of an education. There is a whole course of study in the way you walk and carry yourself, a library in the manner in which you treat your classmates and teachers and a curriculum in your language and bearing in school and out of it. No weak-kneed, soft-voiced, effeminate boy ever grew to be a great general or even a good soldier. Effeminacy is beautiful in a girl, but in a boy it is repulsive! Study to be strong and fearless, in thought and manner. Be men in mind, action, judgment and manner before your 21st birthday proclaims you to be a legal man.

It is refreshing to hear John E. Lathrop, who managed the local option campaign in Multnomah county last spring, say that county prohibition is a wrong move this early in the game. The radical wing of the prohibition movement 10 years in prohibition party has set back the prohibition movement 10 years in Oregon. With precinct prohibition, as was agreed upon last spring, Oregon would have carried for prohibition by small subdivisions, in fully one-third the era of the state. Communities could have voted and enforced prohibition, where public sentiment was almost unanimous in favor of it. Little settlements where the sentiment had taken root and become fixed, could have passed their prohibition law, enjoyed their freedom from the liquor traffic and prohibition, where enforced, would have been successful and as it spread from precinct to precinct, would have been effective and permanent. It is an educational growth that cannot be attained in perfection at one bound. In a county where there is a strong sentiment against it, it will not be enforced, but will become a farce and the very abuses that will follow will turn some of its strongest supporters against it. Half a law well enforced, is 10 times better than a full law only half enforced. County prohibition, will be defeated and it should be. Let it begin at the ground and give the small community an opportunity to protect itself against the liquor traffic, but don't impose it on a county that is not ripe for it. It will only injure the cause.

Arbitration lays its gentle hand upon the mane of the lion, war and his sharpened claws are released and his murderous fangs concealed. Bristling, pompous, defiant old Britain, flying into a rage like a spoiled boy, over every affront, every rebuff, is rebuked into silence by the angel of arbitration. Before the benign counsels of a peaceable court of inquiry, how shamefully insignificant the murderous implements of war appear. In the presence of reason and equity sitting in judgment upon the wrongdoing of the nations, how fiendish and uncivilized appear the bristling army and the greswome man-of-war! In the presence of cool, dignified discussion of grievances, how cruel seem the crimson battlefield and the bellowing cannon! If the 20th century produces no other splendid achievement than that of arbitration, it will have made more progress than all the 20 centuries of the Christian era! But unless the world practices what it is preaching, and diminishes the army as it increases in reason, its triumph will be incomplete.

NAPOLEON'S HATS.

Even hats once worn by Napoleon are in existence. That is settled by Prince Victor Napoleon, who has answered an inquiry, one of the seven was bought for 17,000 francs by Gerome, whose monument of the "Broken Eagle" was unveiled at Waterloo last summer. Three are owned by the Empress Eugenie. Prince Victor Napoleon and Prince Louis Napoleon; two are at the Invalides, one in the Military museum. Prince Victor Napoleon owns bills for hats supplied to the great emperor. They cost 60 francs ($12) each. Napoleon sent them back at times to the hattermaker to be done up. In the bills figures the items "For repairs, six francs" ($1.20). The Gerome hat may now be seen at the Conde museum.

IN THE HEART OF THE FIRE.

From the heart of the fire does the vision rise.

It is good to sit in the after-glow, While someone's hand in your big one lies.

And nobody there to know, Ah, golden gleaming its many towers, The palace ye build, ye twain! Where two shall dwell thro' the love-lit hours.

In a golden castle in Spain, Who is it laughs in the dusk behind? Who lurks in the shadows there? Will the years that are coming to you be kind.

And the end of the dream be fair? Ah, boy and girl, with the love-lit eyes!

Will the faith and the love remain When only a crumbling ruin lies— Your fallen castle in Spain? —Sydney Bulletin.

Four accidents to vessels occurred in the Sound Friday during the worst fog ever reported. The Mainlander was sunk, but the crew was saved.

Nell Phelps, a millionaire and founder of Phelps' Sanitarium at Battle Creek, Mich., is missing. Foul play is suspected.

"I enjoyed good health until about two years ago when I noticed my back began to ache frequently, it became sore and lame, and headache soon added to my misery, also found that my general health diminished. I became thin and nervous, having severe pains at regular intervals," writes Mrs. Augustus Emory, Treasurer New Century Club, 34 Dean Street (Roxbury), Boston, Mass. She continues: "My work which before had seemed an easy task soon seemed like a heavy burden. I decided to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which several of my friends praised so highly. I felt relief within a week, my appetite came back, the pains gradually decreased and I enjoyed sound sleep. Within fourteen weeks I had completely recovered my health. I seemed built up anew, my pulse, which had been weak became normal, and new life animated my entire being. I gladly endorse your medicine." Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription restores weak and sick women to sound health, by curing the local womanly diseases which are generally responsible for the failure of the general health. A woman's entire being is centered in her womanly nature. When the delicate womanly organism is attacked by disease; when there is irregularity or a disagreeable drain, when inflammation burns and ulcers gnaw the general health will reflect the progress of disease, in increasing weakness, nervousness, backache, headache, loss of appetite and sleeplessness. So sure of it is the World's Dispensary Medical Association, of Buffalo, N. Y., proprietors of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, that they offer $500 reward for women who cannot be cured of Leucorrhoea, Female weakness, Prolapsus, or Falling of Womb. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate the stomach, bowels and bowels.

FOR THIRTY YEARS

Congressman Meekison Suffered With Catarrh—Read His Endorsement of Pe-ru-na.

CONGRESSMAN MEEKISON, OF OHIO.

Hon. David Meekison is well known, not only in his own State but throughout America. He began his political career by serving four consecutive terms as Mayor of the town in which he lives, during which time he became widely known as the founder of the Meekison Bank of Napoleon, Ohio. He was elected to the Fifty-fifth Congress by a very large majority, and is the acknowledged leader of his party in his section of the State.

Only one flaw marred the otherwise complete success of this rising statesman. Catarrh with its insidious approach and tenacious grasp, was his only unconquered foe. For thirty years he waged unsuccessful warfare against this personal enemy. At last Peruna came to the rescue, and he dictated the following letter to Dr. Hartman as the result:

"I have used several bottles of Peruna and I feel greatly benefited thereby from my catarrh of the head. I feel encouraged to believe that if I use it a short time longer I will be fully able to eradicate the disease of thirty years' standing."—David Meekison, ex-Member of Congress.

Over fifty members of Congress endorse Peruna as a catarrhal tonic. Men of prominence the world over praise Peruna.

A TONIC is a medicine that gives tone to some part of the system. There are different kinds of tonics, but the tonic most needed in this country, where catarrh is so prevalent, is a tonic that operates on the mucous membranes. Peruna is a tonic to the mucous membranes of the whole body. It gives tone to the capillary circulation which constitutes these delicate membranes.

Peruna is a specific in its operation upon the mucous membrane. It is a tonic that strikes at the root of all catarrhal affections. It gives tone to the minute blood vessels and the terminal nerve fibres. Catarrh cannot exist long where Peruna is used intelligently. Peruna seeks out catarrh in all the hidden parts of the body.

A. M. Ikerd, an employe of the C. B. & Q. R. R., West Burlington, Ia., writes: "I had catarrh of the stomach and small intestines for a number of years. I went to a number of doctors and got no relief. Finally one of my doctors sent me to Chicago and I met the same fate. They said they could do nothing for me, that I had cancer of the stomach and there was no cure. I almost thought the same, for my breath was something awful. I could hardly stand it, it was so offensive. I could not eat anything without great misery, and I gradually grew worse.

"Finally I got one of your books, and concluded I would try Peruna, and thank God, I found a relief and a cure for that dreadful disease. I took five bottles of Peruna and two of Manalin, and I now feel like a new man. There is nothing better than Peruna, and I keep a bottle in my house all the time."—A. M. Ikerd. Catarrh of the stomach is usually called dyspepsia. Catarrhal dyspepsia cannot be cured by pepsin powders or any other temporary relief. The only cure for real dyspepsia is a removal of the catarrh from the mucous membrane of the stomach. This Peruna will do. This Peruna has done thousands and thousands of times.

Congressman Botkin, of Kansas, was cured of catarrh of the stomach of many years' standing. Hundreds of other cases have been reported to us through unsolicited testimonials. Peruna is the only internal systemic remedy for catarrh yet devised. Every one afflicted with catarrh in the slightest degree ought to take a course of Peruna.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

DISGRACEFUL SCENE

SCANDALOUS OCCURRENCE! THE SHAME OF PENDLETON! PAUL STRAIN, A LEADING CITIZEN OF THE STATE OF OREGON.

ARRESTED AT THE DOOR OF HIS CLOTHING STORE, COURT AND JOHNSON.

His store mobbed, the street blocked by a howling mob that hooted, jeered and ROTTED EGGED HIM.

Lady customers at the store insulted, hooted and rotten eggs thrown. Business was destroyed and because Paul Strain dared to open to this city and undersell the 10 per cent profit clothing ring. That reason men and women Eastern Oregon, the clothing store and their hired braves to surround and with threats of violence and such abuse, filth and insult as was ever heaped upon a man's head, they swore to drive Strain from Pendleton, and when he appealed to your policeman for protection that a yellow dog should be entitled to, if attacked by a howling mob, instead of protecting Strain's business and dispersing the crowds who were making a hideous, he simply at the instigating ring placed Strain under arrest because he was a stranger and asked protection.

Men and women of Eastern Oregon, is this just? Who are the people most interested in driving Strain from Pendleton? Is it the butcher, the farmer, the workman? No, its none of those; its the 100 per cent profit clothing ring who are interested in driving Strain out of town and these are some of the methods they use. What do you think of these?
