right and just and should succeed. It is not party prohibition. Each man votes his own party ticket and then votes yes or no on the saloon. The absence of the saloon will not kill business but will turn $250,000 now spent for liquor in Pendleton alone, into other avenues of trade and investment and, as soon as the read-justment is made, business of the town will be stronger than ever.

The Moral Point of View. will be spared the sorrow that now overwhelms them. Read these extracts from Abraham Lincoln's addresses: "The liquor traf-fic is a cancer in society, eating out its vitals and threatening destruction, and all attempts to regulate it will aggravate the evil. There must be no attempts to regulate the cancer, it must be eradicated, not a root must be left behind, for until this is done, all classes must continue in danger of a Tieks, Besades Be-becoming victims of strong drink."-springfield, 1853.
