HENRY M. STANLEY

MEMORIAL IN LONDON IS ERECTED OVER HIS GRAVE.

A Monolith "Fashioned by the Ages, Tempered and Colored by Time, and Untouched by Man"—Eminent Block of Stone Has Been Laid Over His Last Resting Place, in Pirbright Churchyard—Its Inscription is Simple.

London, Dec. 30.—In Pirbright churchyard a memorial of a remarkable kind has just been placed over the grave of the late Sir Henry M. Stanley, the African explorer, whose widow was desirous of securing for the purpose some great monolith.

"Fashioned by the ages, tempered and colored by time, and untouched by man." Search was made, especially in the neighborhood of Dartmoor, and eventually a large granite monolith was discovered that appeared to be suitable. It was in a recumbent position, forming part of a fence on the roadside, and three of its faces were known to have been exposed for many years.

This stone, which is 12 feet long, 4 feet wide, 2 feet 6 inches thick, and weighs six tons, was conveyed from Devonshire to Pirbright with much difficulty, and it now stands with the simple inscription, "Henry Morton Stanley," also the name by which he was known on the Dark Continent, "Bula Matari" (the Rock Breaker), the word "Africa," and above all a cross.

Fight Will Be Bitter. Those who will persist in closing their ears against the continual recommendation of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, will have a long and bitter fight with the troubles. If not ended earlier by fatal termination. Read what T. R. Beall of Beall, Miss., has to say: "Last fall my wife had every symptom of consumption. She took Dr. King's New Discovery after everything else had failed. Improvement came at once and four bottles entirely cured her. Guaranteed by Tallman & Co., druggists. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

The Boys' and Girls Aid Society of Portland can furnish a limited number of boys and girls for adoption, for light work, for chores, while attending school and for people wishing to bring them up as their own. Address W. T. Gardner, Portland, Or.

"Very well, sir," said Dr. Quack after his quarrel with the undertaker. "I'll make you sorry for this."

"What are you going to do?" asked the undertaker; "retire from the practice?"
