

AMONG THE EXCHANGES OF THE INLAND EMPIRE

First Creamery in Idaho.
The first creamery in the state was established at Meridian in this county in 1897. It was a co-operative institution and soon fell into the hands of a receiver.

L. P. Biddick, the most successful creamery man in the state arrived in 1899 and purchased the Meridian establishment, which he afterward consolidated with the Boise creamery. The daily output of the Meridian plant, when Mr. Biddick became the owner, was 65 pounds of butter per day. In two years he has increased this to 500 pounds per day, and continued that output for two years.

In 1902 a man named Sweet came in and built a creamery at Caldwell. The next year he secured the erection of plants at Star, Nampa, Emmett, Weiser, Payette and Salubria. Of these only the Star, Nampa and Caldwell plants are now running. During the year 1902, the Star, Caldwell, Nampa and Meridian plants jointly produced 40,000 pounds of butter per month, or nearly half a million pounds during the year.—Boise Capital News.

Chief Joseph's Successor.
James Stewart, the well known Nez Perce Indian, was a visitor in the city yesterday from Kootenai. Mr. Stewart states that very little interest is being taken in the election of the successor to Chief Joseph, except among the renegade element of the tribe.

"Under the laws of the country the title of chief is of little significance," said Mr. Stewart yesterday, "and there is no power acquired by the title. It is probable that the title will be secured by some member of the tribe, living on other reservations, unless Mrs. Felix Corbet, sister of the late Chief Joseph, intervenes in the interest of some member of the tribe living on this reservation. It is probable that the council will be attended only by the renegade element of the tribe."—Lewiston Tribune.

Cinnabar Mines Sold.
A local company has been organized in this city for the purpose of taking over the interest held by C. A. Patterson in the Lookout cinnabar mines. The latter formally transferred his entire stock, which amounted to 400,000 shares of the total of 1,500,000. It is the intention of the new management to commence immediate work by putting on a small force of men.—Prineville Review.

Claim Jumping Out of Fashion.
It is a fact worthy of note that each year there is less claim jumping in the Sumpter district. Various causes explain this phenomenon. In the first place, nearly every operator in this camp does his annual assessment work in the second place, a broad feeling of liberality—a desire to give every miner a show for his white ally—attenuates the mining population of this region. In the third place, claim jumping is recreation dangerous alike to life and limb. Fourthly, the weather is usually anything but saturnal on December 31 at midnight. Few men care to make a snowshoe journey to some wind-swept peak top where the mercury flirts outrageously with the figures below zero.—Sumpter Daily Miner.

Colored Women's Club.
The Colored Women's Athenian club was organized in Boise some time ago, has an active membership of about 25. The officers are; President, Mrs. E. D. Washington; vice-president, Mrs. Joe Cotton; secretary, Mrs. Florence Wilson; treasurer, Mrs. G. O. Smith; corresponding secretary, Miss Hattie Gudge; chaplain, Mrs. R. B. Smith. The club meets every Thursday evening at the home of some of the members.

Their first public work was a bazaar held recently in the G. A. R. hall which closed with a turkey dinner lasting from 5 to 8 p. m. This was followed by a dance. Over 150 white people ate dinner and aided in raising a snug sum of money which the club now has in its treasury.—Boise Capital News.

Irrigation in Crook County.
W. W. Brown of Fife, is at work on an irrigation project which, when completed, will bring a couple of thousand acres lying east of Buck mountain, under water. He is making arrangements to begin work on a large scale early in the spring when a dam will be constructed to hold the waters of one of the neighboring lakes and drain it into another which will be used for a storage reservoir. The scope of the work is such as will require many months to complete, but when finished will be the means of reclaiming some of the best land in Southeastern Crook county. He expects to expend in the neighborhood of $10,000 on the project.—Prineville Journal.

Football at Joseph.
The second game of football between Joseph and Lostine took place on the latter's grounds last Friday, when Joseph met her first Waterloo. Score, Lostine 10, Joseph 0.

The Enterprise Kangaroos met the Joseph football team on the gridiron last Monday, but neither team scored.—Joseph Herald.

Arthur Nichols this week completed plans for submission to the trustees of the M. E. church for a new church building. The plans call for a building 52x50 feet, to cost about $4500.—Union Republican.

TRAINING SCHOOL FOR HORSES

Wanted—One hundred head of unbroken horses. I am located for the winter at the Dutch Henry feed yard, corner of Alta and Lillith streets, where I conduct a first-class training and sale stable. If you want to buy a horse I will take your order and select the best horse for you, or if you have a horse to sell I am well acquainted with the best buyers. I am well equipped to break and handle any horse from the finest blooded stock to the wildest and most desperate broncho. There is no horse but can be broke and be made to drive or work nicely if he be handled correctly. I have broke one hundred and twenty-three head in Pendleton, some of which had become desperadoes. I guarantee satisfaction in every case.

MABEL PAGE MURDER TRIAL.

Trying to Fathom a Famous Massachusetts Mystery.

Cambridge, Mass., Jan. 2.—The case of C. L. Tucker, the young Auburn-dale man charged with the murder of Mabel Page, who was found stabbed to death in her home at Weston on March 21 last, was called for trial here today. Owing to the mystery that surrounds the case and the large amount of circumstantial evidence, it promises to be one of the most notable murder trials ever known in Massachusetts courts.

A large number of famous handwriting experts have been engaged for both sides, which indicates that one of the important points on which the case hangs will be the scrap of paper said to have been found in the room where the girl was murdered, and other examples of handwriting said to have been discovered in connection with the affair. It is expected that the trial will consume at least four weeks.

LIVE BIRD SHOW.

Several Thousand on Exhibition in New York.

New York, Jan. 3.—The 16th annual poultry show was opened today in Madison Square Garden, under the auspices of the New York Poultry, Pigeon and Pet Stock association. All the best birds of the country are here gathered together. They make a total of several thousand and occupy all of the floor space of the big garden. In nearly all classes of poultry and pigeons the numbers are materially increased over those of former shows. The features of particular note include the incubators and brooders, and the display of rabbits and canaries. The exhibition will continue through the rest of the week.

Illinois Poultry Show.

Peoria, Ill., Jan. 2.—The eleventh annual exhibition of the Illinois State Poultry Association is now open and will be the center of interest among poultry fanciers until it closes next Saturday night. The largest display of birds and pet stock in the association's history is offered. Nearly every county in the state is represented, and the competition among exhibitors is lively. One of the most striking features of the show is the exhibit of fancy chickens, which contains nearly 1000 birds. Turkeys, geese, ducks, pigeons, dogs and rabbits are also shown in great numbers.

Trial of Adolph Weber.

Auburn, Cal., Jan. 3.—The case of Adolph Weber, the youth who is charged with murdering his father, mother and other members of his family and then firing the house, to conceal the crime, was called for trial today before Judge Frewett. So intense is popular feeling and so widely have the facts of the awful murder been advertised that it is expected considerable difficulty will be experienced in getting a jury.
