PROGRAM OF THE TEACHERS

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION HAS EIGHTEEN SECTIONS.

Each Department at the Convention Next July at Asbury Park Will Hold From Two to Three Sessions — Roosevelt Will Speak on July 7 — Discussion of Technical Schools Will Be Made a Feature.

Chicago, Ill., Jan. 14.—After several conferences in this city the officers of the National Educational Association have completed the program for the annual convention of the association which will be held at Asbury Park next July. Besides the general meetings the program provides for sessions of the 18 departments, covering every phase of popular education. Each department will hold from two to three sessions, with six addresses under the head of discussion.

An effort was made by the association to secure President Roosevelt for a speech on July 4, but he sent word that he would like to celebrate that day with his family, and that he would appear on Friday, July 7.

Sociology and education will be the general theme carried throughout the addresses. The opening address Monday night will be by President William H. Maxwell, Dr. William T. Harris, United States commissioner of education, will speak the same night on "The Compensation of Teachers." Mayor George B. McClellan of New York, will speak on Tuesday and also President E. A. Alderman of Tulane university. Andrew S. Draper and Carroll D. Wright will speak on Wednesday, while on Thursday evening Prof. L. D. Harvey of Menominee, Wis., will talk on manual training and technical instruction.

A phase of the program that is of especial interest is that portion which deals with technical schools. There are now practically no technical or trade schools under the authority of boards of education. For the purpose of learning something about the technical schools of Europe the association has invited Professor Blair of London, England, to give the desired information in the form of an address or lecture. Professor Blair is superintendent of the technical schools of London.

of ague and malaria, can be relieved and cured with Electric Bitters. This is a pure, tonic medicine, of especial benefit in malaria, for it exerts a true curative influence on the disease, driving it entirely out of the system. It is much to be preferred to quinine, having none of this drug's bad after effects. E. S. Munday, of Henrietta, Tex., writes: "My brother was very low with malarial fever and jaundice, till he took Electric Bitters, which saved his life." MAN OF STERLING QUALITIES.

Tribute to Henry Shockey by One Who Knew Him Well.

A fitting tribute was that paid yesterday afternoon by Thomas Fitz Gerald to the memory of the late Henry Shockey, soldier and pioneer of the West. At the funeral services held at Hendricks' hall at which were assembled Redmen and Grand Army veterans, fellow lodgers of Henry Shockey, Judge Fitz Gerald spoke of the character of the departed brother and comrade.

"Henry Shockey did not accumulate much of this world's goods," said the speaker. "He was generous and honest to a fault. He was ever ready to help a friend in distress, and was the first to render assistance when a comrade or brother was in need. His hands were hardened with the toil of years of adversity, yet they were as gentle as those of any ministering angel that ever smoothed the bed of pain."

"In his dealings with his fellow-men he was upright and never stooped to a thing that would cast the least suspicion of dishonor on his name. He made debts, but no man can ever say that he failed to meet his obligations, and everywhere he went his word was as good security as was required. In his work he never shirked, and any duty left in his hands was always fulfilled."

An incident of "forewarning" occurred on the day of Shockey's death. He was caretaker of Hendricks' hall, and as such had charge of the regalia of the Redmen and other lodges that meet in that place. On the afternoon of the day of his demise he was at the hall to attend the funeral services of W. C. Crall. In draping the charter of the Eagles, to which order Crall was a member, the frame broke from its fastenings and fell from the wall, narrowly missing Shockey's head.

You May Be Cured

544 Garfield Avenue,
CHICAGO, ILL., October 9, 1902.

After doctoring for eleven months and taking forty-three bottles of medicine and finding no relief for leucorrhea resulting from irritation of a fallen womb I took Wine of Cardui and fourteen bottles cured me. This seems strange but it is the simple truth. Wine of Cardui helped me from the time I began taking it and having heard it praised so highly by friends who had tried it I felt satisfied that it would help me, and it did. It cured me. Took every bit of ache, pain and headache, cramps and dragging down sensations away till I felt young, strong and happy once more. It is a wonderful medicine and a true friend to women. When I look back on the months of torture I had it seems like a hideous nightmare. Wine of Cardui will cure any woman I believe. I have more faith in it than all other medicines combined.

Francis Kingeluy

Vice-Pres., Chicago Historical Club.

How can you refuse relief when you know you are growing worse day after day? Shooting pains, irregularity, inflammation and bearing down pains make thousands of women miserable. Why drag through life never enjoying anything? Wine of Cardui has made over 1,000,000 weak and suffering women well and strong. We ask you to go to your druggist today and secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui and begin to take it at once. Do that and the health Mrs. Kingeluy writes about will soon be yours. If you think special directions are needed in your case, address, giving symptoms, Ladies' Advisory Department, The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

Cove Electric Plant.

Manager J. A. Thomson and Supt. Fred Housh of the Grand Ronde Electric company went to Cove this week to locate the power house for the company. The building will be constructed entirely of stone, according to present plans, and will be 30x34 feet, with 18 feet of space between the floor and ceiling. The building is to be substantially constructed and will contain the 550 horse power Pelton wheel, generator, transformers, lightning deflectors and other machinery.

The excavating for the pipe line is nearly finished, and it is the intention to have the whole system in working shape within 30 days after the arrival of the machinery, and to be able at that date to supply light to Cove, Union, Hot Lake and La Grande, as well as electric power for mechanical purposes at all points within their territory.—La Grande Chronicle.

McMillan Resigns.

On account of ill health Engineer McMillan, who drew up all the plans and specifications on which the contract for the portage road was awarded, has been compelled to tender his resignation to the state board. While his retirement will not delay the work, it is regretted by every one connected with the enterprise.—The Dalles Chronicle.
