 of ague and malaria, can be relieved and cured with Electric Bitters. This is a pure, tonic medicine, of especial benefit in malaria, for it exerts a true curative influence on the disease, driving it entirely out of the system. It is much to be preferred to quinine, having none of this drug's bad after effects. E. S. Munday, of Henrietta, Tex., writes: "My brother was very low with malarial fever and jaundice, till he took Electric Bitters, which saved his life." NEWS OF MILTON

DEATH OF MRS. SWARTZ CAUSED BY PARALYSIS.

Woodmen of the World Give a Banquet—Returned From a Trip to Portland—N. A. Davis and Family Have Arrived at the City of Mexico—A. A. Wilder is Severely Ill—Mr. and Mrs. Miller Entertain—Visiting in Dayton and Prescott.

Milton, Jan. 27.—Mrs. Hiram H. Swartz, an old resident of Hudson Bay, died yesterday of paralysis. Funeral services were held this morning at the family residence, and the body was interred in the Ford cemetery. Rev. Spoor of Adams, conducted the services.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Frazier and Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Miller have gone to Dayton, Wash., for a brief visit.

Mrs. R. E. Bean left yesterday for Prescott, Wash., to visit Rev. and Mrs. Charles McCaughey.

A social and banquet was given Thursday evening by the Woodmen of the World at their hall. Only members and their families were present.

Mr. and Mrs. George Miller entertained at their pleasant home Wednesday evening with an old-fashioned taffy pulling.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Frazier returned Monday from Portland, where they had been on a business and pleasure trip combined.

Miss Lillian Edwards of Pendleton, is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. M. R. Stuart.

Today a message was received from N. A. Davis stating he and his family arrived safely at the city of Mexico yesterday.

A. A. Wilder, a pioneer of this section of the country, is seriously ill at his home three miles south of town.

Well digging seems to be the principal vocation of the people in and around here since New Year.

Herman Schwandt and Ves Robinson, south of town, on the Walla Walla, are each getting lumber on the ground for $1500 residences, as soon as the weather will admit. B. A. Rulafer and Bert Putman have the contracts.

Some good will surely come to Oregon through the school children's letters written to friends in the East. Loh Mayberry, the 12-year-old daughter of W. S. Mayberry, sent her letter to her uncle in Ohio. He handed it to the editor of the paper of his town and it was printed in full. This is only one of the many cases of this kind.

nicer streets than she can, but owing to a lack of enterprise they have been neglected until now. A move was started a couple of years ago to improve them, but the city being a little in debt, with poor water system and electric lights, the street matter was shelved for the time.

As the work train came out from Walla Walla last Wednesday morning to work on the bridge which spans the river at this place, it met with an unusual experience about two miles east of town. When about 300 yards from the public road crossing, the engineer saw a buggy standing across the track. He at once blew the whistle, but the buggy did not move. He then applied the brakes, and ran his engine up as close as he dared to, and got out to investigate. To his surprise he found a young man and young woman in the buggy, fast asleep. They were awakened and when told of their danger, the young lady promptly fainted.

It seems as if they had been out at a party pretty late, and knowing that the old horse was slow and sure to go home, had tied the lines around the whip, in order to be a little more cosy.

When the buggy struck the track the horse's head was on the down grade and that drew the lines taut, and the old fellow stopped, heedless of the danger that his load of human freight was in. Names are withheld to save embarrassment.

Second-hand Store Robbed.

Milton, Jan. 27.—Some sneak thief broke into Milhorn & Milner's second-hand store last Sunday night and carried off quite a load of goods, consisting of a watch, revolver, a lot of cheap jewelry and some candy. The loss is estimated somewhere between $150 to $1500. The thieves gained an entrance by removing a window pane in the rear of the building.

How to Build Up a Town.

The best way for a community to build and have a good town is to encourage every good cause that comes up, and help it along, and every project aiming for the good of the place in which you live, derive your support and owe your allegiance. Any town rises and falls upon the enterprise of its people and unanimity of their actions. When the city council passes an ordinance, no matter how bad it seems to you, it is your duty as a dozen to obey it. Milton, as looked upon from the outside world as a model town, is no exception to the rule. Yet young boys and girls ranging in age from 8 to 20 years, (and some parents, too) can be seen on the streets most any time of the night, when the proper place for any of them is at home, around the fire-side. This is why there are so many bad boys and girls in any town, and the parents are to blame for it all. No parent wants to see his children in trouble, but as sure as Milton is a town, unless the parents help the city officials to observe the curfew law, they will, sooner or later.

50TH ANNIVERSARY

Y. M. C. ASSOCIATION HALF A CENTURY OF AGE.

Observance on a Commanding Scale at Philadelphia, Attended by Roosevelt and Grover Cleveland—Other Eminent People in Attendance, and Every Branch of Work of the Organization is Represented: Railroad, Army, Student, Citizen.

Philadelphia, Jan. 28.—Worthy of the event is the program arranged for the semi-centennial anniversary celebration of the Young Men's Christian association of Philadelphia. The celebration was formerly opened this afternoon with a reception to the membership of the various branches. Tomorrow and Monday will be occupied with exercises and meetings of several kinds, the celebration coming to a close Monday evening with a public meeting that promises to eclipse anything of the kind held before in Philadelphia. The participants will include the president and only living ex-president of the United States, together with the distinguished sons of two other presidents and other famous men.

Tomorrow afternoon three simultaneous mass meetings will be held in the largest halls of the city. Ex-President Cleveland will be the speaker at the meeting in the Pennsylvania railroad department John Wanamaker at a meeting to be held in Garrick theater, and Harry G. Garfield, son of the late President Garfield, will deliver the principal address at a meeting to be held in the Union Tabernacle.

The closing meeting Monday evening is to be held in the Academy of Music. President Francis L. Patton, of Princeton Theological Seminary, will tell of the student work of the Y. M. C. A. Joseph Ramsey, Jr., president of the Wabash railroad, will present the railroad work of the association. President Roosevelt is to be the guest of honor and is expected to deliver a brief address. Another speaker of prominence will be Major General Frederick D. Grant, who will tell of the work of the Y. M. C. A. among the soldiers of the United States army.
