CITY COUNCIL WILL ADD TO FIRE EQUIPMENT.

Regular Meeting Last Night Was Well Attended—Permission Given to W. H. Jones for Construction of Corrugated Iron Photograph Gallery Within Fire Limits—Monthly Bills Paid and Other Routine Business Transacted.

At the meeting of the council last night the monthly reports of Recorder Fitz Gerald and Marshal Carney were presented, an ordinance was enacted, bills were ordered paid and other routine business transacted.

All the members of the body were present excepting Councilmen Sewell and Ferguson. An ordinance removing the east 25 feet of the west half of block 18 of the original town site of Pendleton from the fire limits was passed to the three readings and adopted under suspension of the rules. This ordinance was created in response to the petition of W. H. Jones and it is understood that a corrugated iron building is to be erected on the premises, the same to be used as a photograph gallery.

A petition was presented asking that the liquor license of Baker & Garrison be transferred to the firm of Mansfield & Garrison, and the same was granted on the condition that a new bond be filed.

Upon motion the recorder was authorized to advertise for bids for lumber for the ensuing year, also for bids for 800 feet of single jacket hose and a hose cart. The fire apparatus is to be stationed at or near the junction of Main and High streets.

M. E. Revival Continues.
A very interesting meeting was held at the M. E. church last night, when Rev. G. W. Rigby spoke to a good sized congregation. The "laymen's Pentecostal revival" keeps up the interest manifested last week when Dr. Smith was here, and the members of the church are rallying round the pastor, Rev. Robert Warner, to carry the series along for two or three weeks yet. The afternoon meetings are also reported to be of great interest. At 7:30 this evening several short addresses will be given and the praying band will again assist at the altar service.

Death of B. Wolfe.
Last night B. Wolfe, an old-time resident of The Dalles, died at the age of 80. Deceased was for many years engaged in the wool and hide business, and had been a resident of The Dalles for 20 years. By the terms of his will $5000 is left to Arnold Shuerman and his sister, the amount to be divided equally between them.

Certificate Granted.
A certificate to teach was today granted by Superintendent Welles to Verna Vanmader, of Milton. The applicant passed the required examination at the last teachers' examination, but owing to the fact that she was under 18 years of age, could not be given a certificate at that time.

Marriage Licenses.
Licenses to wed have been issued by County Clerk Saling to Starr Charlton and Eva Sanders, both of this county, and to Herbert E. Richardson and Mildred A. Newton, the latter of this county and the former of Walla Walla county.

TO TEST LOCAL OPTION LAW

JUDGE ELLIS TO HEAR FREEWATER CASE SOON.

Halleray & McCourt Will Defend the Owner of the Saloon and Will Ask That the Local Option Law Be Set Aside Because of Irregularities in Calling the Election—District Attorney Preparing to Fight the Case Hard.

During the past few days many inquiries have reached this office as to the status of the case of George Ireland of Freewater, who was charged some time ago with violating the local option law.

It is stated that the defendant, Ireland, is still conducting a saloon business at Freewater. On being seen yesterday Circuit Judge Ellis stated that when the case had been called in his court several days ago a plea of not guilty had been entered and that the case would probably come up next Tuesday or Wednesday.

Before trying the case the district attorney wishes to consult Attorney General Crawford, and also to look up the Texas reports, the Oregon law being modeled after the one in force in that state. To do this involves a trip by Mr. Phelps to Salem which, because of other duties, he has not yet made. In the meantime the defendant is merely under bonds to appear when his case is called.

Halleray & McCourt are the attorneys for the defense and it is understood that they will contend the local option law was not regularly enacted in the subdivision of which Freewater is a part. This they contend on the ground that the petition from that subdivision was presented at a special session of the county court and also that the petition was not properly recorded subsequently.

As the constitutionality of the law is not attacked nor the regularity of its enactment, except so far as that subdivision is concerned, the Freewater case is not a test case for the entire county. The point that the petition was presented at a special session of the county court is the same one that arose in Gilliam county, where the local option law carried, but was set aside by the county judge for the above excuse.

MOVED AGENCY BARN AND SHED

Were Needed for Protection of Vehicles—New Barn Will Be Built.

The moving of buildings from the Agency to the government school location on the reservation has begun. Last week a small barn and the shed belonging with it were moved and re-erected close to where the barn stood which was burned. They will be used to house the carriages and other vehicles belonging to the reservation farm and employes. This is filling a long felt want, as heretofore the vehicles have stood beneath the leafy branches during the summer and the bare branches during the winter. It is possible that others of the agency buildings will be removed to the school vicinity later on.

It is estimated that a barn to adequately replace the one which was burned will cost from $1200 to $1500. Plowing is progressing as rapidly as the weather and other interfering conditions will permit, on the reservation farm.

A FIFTEEN SHARE GANG PLOW.

Schwandt Will Plow on a Large Scale and by Contract.

William Schwandt, of Wild Horse, has bought of A. Kunkel five three-bottom plows, which will be ganged and drawn by a 75-horse power traction engine. The engine is used during the harvest season in the operation of combines. Mr. Schwandt has contracts for the plowing of 2000 acres of old ground northeast of Echo a few miles. It is all wheat land, and about 1200 acres belongs to W. J. Furnish.

Mr. Schwandt has many hundreds of acres of his own land to plow, and will begin operations as soon as the weather will allow.

Revival Continues.

Evangelist Dorris preached last night to a large and appreciative audience on "God Drawing Men to Christ." There were five confessions, 45 since the meetings began. Subject tonight, "Have You Been Baptised in the Holy Ghost?" Mr. Dorris will continue through the week and over Sunday. Everybody cordially invited to attend.

Miss Millicent Sears expects to start on her return to New York in a few days. Her aunt, Mrs. L. J. Doide, will accompany her as far as Somerset, Iowa. Mrs. Doide will return in the spring and the Doides will then remove to the farm in the Touchet valley which they bought last summer. Mr. Doide will spend the remainder of the winter at The Dalles.

Oscar Davids, accompanied by his cousin, Wilbur Davids, who lately came from Nebraska, will leave tonight for Astoria. They expect to go into the draying and general transfer business there, having an option on a line.

Dr. Lynn K. Blakeslee has bought of John Schroeder for $5000 the latter's residence property on Lewis street, comprising the dwelling and two lots.

The brick walls of the interior of the Rees & Clarke wholesale house are being papered, a heavy sizing of paste, glue and molasses, forming a base. Murphy has the contract.

BLEAKNEY RECEIVES DEGREE.

Principal of Pendleton Academy Honored by Leading College in Pennsylvania.

Prof. W. H. Bleakney, principal of Pendleton Academy, has just received his diploma, conferring the degree of Doctor of Philosophy, from Grove City College, Grove City, Pa., one of the leading non-denominational colleges in that state.

Professor Bleakney graduated from this college in 1894, and has been actively engaged in the ministry and in teaching ever since, most of that time in the West.

Among the other Pendleton people who graduated from this college are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Diven and Miss Bess Craig. Miss Craig is one of the teachers at Pendleton Academy, and is one of the best qualified instructors in the Northwest. Rev. Robert Diven is field missionary for the Presbyterian church for Pendleton district, and formerly pastor in this city.

Union County Pioneer Dead.

John Morrison, one of the first pioneers to settle on the Sand Ridge, the famous wheat belt of Grand Ronde valley, died yesterday, after a brief illness in the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland. Mr. Morrison was 73 years of age and was taken to the hospital on January 6. He was one of the most prominent surveyors of a large Scotch settlement which came to Grand Ronde in the early '60s from Iowa. He was a typical Scotchman, frugal, jovial, and a lover of society and music, although a bachelor. He was a famous bag pipe player and a favorite with all the children in the country. His remains passed through to La Grande this evening, in charge of State Senator Peter McDonald, of Imbler, a nephew of the dead man.

Presbyterian Meeting This Month.

Arrangements are being completed for a series of revival meetings to be held in this city beginning about February 15. Rev. Thomas Needham, now at La Grande, to be the principal speaker. A noted singer will accompany the evangelist. The meetings will continue for at least two weeks.

Hard Snowstorm.

The wheels and trucks of O. R. & N. train No. 1, were this morning covered with snow. A heavy storm was raging in the mountains this morning. There is very little snow between La Grande and Huntington.

School House Nearly Completed.

D. May has yet about seven days' work to do at bricking on the north side school house, which will complete his contract with the exception of the pointing necessary after the carpentering is completed.

Will Dip Sheep at Watsburg.

Dr. A. H. Bibb, government inspector, left for Watsburg this morning, where he has been summoned to inspect a large number of sheep, and dip them before sending outside the state.

John Schroeder and family will soon move to Portland to remain during the coming summer. It is said that after the fair they will move to the Nez Perce country, in Idaho, to make their future home. Mr. Schroeder has land in that district.

Cigarettes and Boys.

"From my observation I have found that fully four-fifths of the boys who run around the streets and who lie and steal and are brought to the police station are cigarette fiends," said Chief Waller of Spokane. "I believe that the tobacco out of which these cheap cigarettes are made is drugged. Boys get to be so inordinately fond of them that they cannot stop smoking them. I do not wish to say that all cigarette smokers use opium, but it is a fact that 99 out of every 1000 opium fiends are addicted to cigarettes. I am in favor of a very stringent law against selling cigarettes to minors."

Project Will "Go."

The water users of the Payette-Bolse valley are signing up under the government irrigation project fairly well, a considerable over 100,000 acres having been subscribed. At this end of the valley the land has practically all been subscribed, while at the lower end of the valley there are yet a good many acres which have not yet been contracted.

The number of acres subscribed is considerably over one-half of the irrigable lands now under cultivation in the section to be covered and the state owns something like 50,000 acres, having passed a resolution commending the project and will sign up for the state when the proper time comes. The government still owns considerable land in the territory which it is not necessary to secure.—Boise Capital News.
