BEGINS CHINESE NEW YEARS.

Most Important Holiday Observed by Celestials.

New York, Feb. 2.—To the beating of tom-toms and the explosion of fireworks the Chinese New Year was ushered in today by Celestials all over the world. No other holiday is so important in the estimation of the Chinaman as New Year, and members of the local colony in Mott street have been preparing for the festival for days.

To those astronomically inclined it may be interesting to know that the Chinese New Year falls on the first new moon after the sun enters Aquarius, which makes it come not before.
