• Which road is fairer after all?
• That one whereon a happy boy
• Caught visions of a larger joy,
• Heard glad voices call?
• That legend guarded path whereon
• It seems no evil days could fare,
• And for whose waysides, sweet and rare,
• The morning sunlight shone?
• Or that returning path deep sown
• From memory's enchanting close,
• Where reverently an old man goes
• Again to seek his own?
—Frank Walcott Hunt in Boston Transcript.

Pasco is now taking steps to lay out a city park for the enjoyment of the people. This unheard of craze has not yet reached Pendleton.

The city council is to be commended for ordering a hydrant and 800 feet of hose for the high school district, on High street. That locality has long needed such protection.

Senator Warren, of Wyoming, is under investigation. But he won't get much glory. He only rented out a postoffice and collected the salaries of three non-existent clerks.

It is a question of ethics as to whether Judge Tanner was justified before the moral law, in perjuring himself to shield his law partner, Senator Mitchell. Martyrdom in a just cause, is always commendable, but—

On the front page of the enterprising and bustling Boise Capital News, is this legend: "Today's news today," and then in Wednesday's issue of the same live paper appears an editorial celebrating "Jackson Day" on February 8. All other good democrats celebrated "Jackson Day" on January 8, a month before the anniversary reached Boise.

The refusal of the New York Jockey club to permit Richard Croker to enter his string of racers for the season, is an indication of one of two tendencies: Either the morals of the club are improving or else Richard Croker has imported a new form of moral leprosy which even this club cannot countenance. Heretofore nobody has been barred.

It is estimated that there will be 100 applications for the position of conductor and engineer on the portage railway, although but one conductor and one engineer, at a salary of perhaps $100 per month, for each position, will be needed. The pleasant features of the jobs, from the railroad man's standpoint, will be that the work day will be short, the hours regular, the meals on time, every night's rest at home, and no intrusive call boy to jangle the door bell at midnight's dreamful hour. Such attractive features should invite an application from every railroad man in Oregon.

Two forces which will hamper the work on the Panama canal far more than yellow fever and malaria, are the American grafters and American gamblers, who are now flocking to the isthmus prepared to fleece the laborer, and open dance halls and gambling dens on a gigantic scale. The tireless work of the health and hospital services will not be able to offset the effect of debaucheries and immoralities to be offered to the laborers by American vampires who are now seeking concessions along the canal zone. The government should not spare these parasites, but should treat them as common criminals and crowd them into the prisons and rock pile gangs on the isthmus. No public money should be spent in curing the evils they create. They should be barred.

It will amply repay any one interested in the details of the construction of the Panama canal to read an article in the February number of the Review of Reviews by John Barrett, minister to Panama. Mr. Barrett covers the wonderful features of that monster undertaking in a highly fascinating manner, without going into technical particulars. One obtains a wide grasp of the entire subject from Barrett's article, without dragging through uninteresting details. If Barrett is not a great success as a foreign minister, he is certainly a writer of more than ordinary ability among the magazine contributors.

There is yet time for the legislature to remedy the school library graft. School library books should be purchased from the lowest possible bidder and not from some book trust which manipulates the bidding and fixes the price. There is something awfully rotten somewhere, when districts are forced to pay $1.00 to $1.10 for the same books in the same binding, which can be bought from dealers at from 40 to 50 cents per volume. Who is getting this rake-off? Why is the state thus grafted? The legislature will be a party to this graft if it does not remedy it.

Eastern Oregon is an "easy" sucker. Her arid counties have sat idly by and allowed Portland, the wettest spot in the state (from the local option standpoint) to officer the state irrigation association, as its resolutions, direct its policy, dictate its aims and appropriate all the honor. The arid counties "whoop it up" for Portland on the slightest hint of a hot air campaign, blindly drink all her sweetened promises and then hold an empty sack, as a reward. Portland pledged the word of her Commercial club, of her legislative delegation and of her leading citizens that she would help pass a good irrigation code this winter. When put to the test, what did she do? How did she keep her promises?

It is unjust to the jurymen now serving on the federal grand jury, to say that the indictments against Mitchell and Hermann are part of a persecution being conducted by Hitchcock and Heney. The jurymen are selected from the state at large, many of them belonging to Hermann's and Mitchell's political faith, and all of them sworn to do their duty according to the law and evidence. Put yourself in the place of these jurymen, and say whether you would take part in a persecution of this kind and scope. There must be indisputable evidence in sight—evidence which can be substantiated in court, or else these indictments would not have been returned. It is said that Heney "leads the grand jury around by the nose." If you were on that jury, solemnly sworn to perform a sacred duty, in which the characters of honored citizens were to be the subjects for consideration, would you be "led around by the nose"? It is all right to pass "white-washing" resolutions, but let the courts decide the case.

MOTHERS! Retain Your Youthful Figures.

To be beautiful is to be loved by all. If there lives the woman who is indifferent to this she is yet to be heard of. Yet from time immemorial society has recognized what they thought to be a detriment in the way of such a realization. The besting of children has meant to them the marbling of physical beauty of figure, without which beauty of face would be of little account. Nothing could be more remote from truth than this; childbirth is purely a natural phenomenon, accompanied by pain, to be sure, but if properly managed no more harmful in its effects upon the human form divine than any other natural function.

MOTHER'S FRIEND

is essential in the proper management of every case of labor; it relaxes and softens the abdominal muscles, thereby enabling them to sustain the stretching that they must undergo, and from this very fact it facilitates their return to normal proportions after childbirth, and it is obvious that pain must be greatly lessened from this very reason.

It is a liniment, it is harmless, it is potent, it is priceless in its results, it is Mother's Friend, $1.00 per bottle at drug stores. Our book of priceless value sent free to all women.

OSTEOPATHY

"Do Osteopaths believe in the knife in appendicitis?" One time, "Yes," a hundred times, "No."

When ulceration has progressed to perforation, operation must be prompt. But this is once in a hundred times. Dr. Chauvel, medical inspector of the French army, records 12.3 per cent dying in operations 1 per cent without in 1902. The English surgeon general records 15,000 cases operated on in Great Britain in 1902 with 1500 deaths, one in 10.

The osteopaths regard operation as unnecessary here as in inflammation of other parts of the intestines. The condition is an inflammation, brought about by the loss of control of the calibre of the blood vessels by the vaso-motor nerves. These are pressed upon in their course by the bony structures, most frequently the lower ribs. Relieve this pressure and as is being demonstrated in hundreds of cases in this country, with some in our own city, the case is cured. Why should it not be? Give the Osteopath a trial before taking your chance on being one in 10. Dr. Hoisington, Pendleton, Ore.
