

A New Recipe for Making Coffee

Pour cold water on "Mother's Pride," or any other good coffee and soak it three or four hours in the cold water; then put on the fire, and just let it come to a boil. It is claimed that one-half an egg makes it clear, and that it takes less coffee by this method than any other. Try it and see what a good cup of coffee it makes.

LEASE IS DISPUTED

BUT ACTION IS BROUGHT TO ESTABLISH VALIDITY.

Caldwell Claims Unwarranted Interference Which Cut Him Out of a Profitable Contract for the Use of Indian Land—Question for Decision is: Is a Lease Valid That is Made Without the Agent's Consent?

Deputy U. S. Marshal Biowers was in the city Saturday for the purpose of serving papers in the case of William Caldwell vs. George Ferringer, G. W. Rigby, J. J. McKoin, et al, which is to be tried in the federal court at Portland next Thursday. The above case is in regard to the leasing of section 30, township 3 north of range 34 E. W. M. The above described land is allotted land upon the reservation, and the plaintiff, Caldwell, claims to have leased it in September, 1903, from the Indian allottees for the period of two years for the price of $2.50 per acre per year.

The Caldwell lease is admitted to have been made without the sanction of the Indian agent, but is held to be valid because of an order of the commissioner of Indian affairs directing that such leases be enforced by the Indian agents, although they were not made in accordance with the rules governing such leases.

The complaint also states that the defendants, Ferringer and Rigby, persuaded the lessees to repudiate their contract with Caldwell, and to make a subsequent one with Ferringer, also that to accomplish this one of the Indians was induced to resign his guardianship over one of the minor allottees, and Defendant Rigby was appointed as said guardian and as such was a party to the lease with Ferringer.

In the complaint it is alleged that the plaintiff has been deprived of the use of the land, and the defendant has suffered a loss of $2000. Damages to this amount are asked by the plaintiff and also an injunction restraining the defendants from interfering with plaintiff's use of the land.

R. J. Slater is the attorney for the plaintiff, and the defendants are represented by Halley & Lowell and James A. Fee.

The above case is of considerable importance, because it will show the strength of a lease made without the agent's consent.

DIED NINE HOURS AFTERWARD.

Carpenter Fell and Crushed His Skull Saturday Evening.

W. Johnson, a carpenter who fell from the top ceiling of the north side school house at 5 o'clock Saturday evening, died at St. Anthony's hospital from the effects of his injuries. Johnson, while working about the top of the school house Saturday evening, in some manner lost his footing and fell a distance of 25 feet, striking upon his head, and crushing his skull. The injured man was at once taken to the hospital and Dr. C. J. Smith was called to attend him. Everything possible was done to keep the man alive, but he continued to sink gradually and at 2 o'clock Sunday morning died without regaining consciousness.

Johnson had been here for about three months, during which time he was employed by Contractor Cook and worked upon the school houses. He was 40 years of age and came here from Enterprise, Wallawa county. A brother, working in La Grande, was wired of the accident and reached here yesterday afternoon.

The body of Johnson is now at the Baker & Folsom undertaking parlors and tonight will be shipped to Summerville, Union county, for burial.

BOUNDARY HEARING DEFERRED

Delay Caused by an Error in Notices for Board Meeting.

When the boundary division board met Saturday to act on the petition for a new district to be created out of district 49, near Weston, it was discovered that the notices sent out by Superintendent Welles setting the date for the meeting of the board had been out only nine days, instead of 10 days as is required. Consequently it was impossible to take any action on the petition, and the matter was thrown out. J. T. Hinkle appeared as attorney for the remonstrators.

Operation for a Tumor.

Miss Lida Young, of "Half Way House," in Wallawa canyon, was operated upon Saturday afternoon at St. Anthony's hospital for a tumor underneath her right knee and will undergo another operation for a similar affection of the hip as soon as she recovers from the effects of this operation. Drs. Ringo, Cole and Kirby performed the operation, which was an extremely delicate one. Miss Young is accompanied by her father, John A. Young, who will remain in the city until she is operated upon the second time. She has been affected with tumors on her limbs for seven years, undergoing three previous operations for the same cause. The medical term for the affection from which she is suffering is multiple enchondroma.

The Journal pays $1 each to persons who recognize their pictures and present them at the office, and there is now $1 awaiting the call of the Pendletonian in the Journal office in Portland. This feature in the Sunday Journal will be extended to include every part of the state.

Mrs. Weathered to Athens.

Mrs. Edyth Tostler Weathered left this morning for Athens where she will deliver her illustrated lecture tonight. Tomorrow night she will lecture at Weston and on Wednesday night at Milton. Mrs. Weathered's lecture was highly enjoyed in this city as well as the matinee for the children on Saturday afternoon. It was one of the most instructive entertainments that has ever been seen in the city. It should be well patronized by the citizens of Umatilla county towns as it is educational in the highest degree.

Will Enforce Dog Tax.

Dog taxes are now due, and after April 1 all dogs upon which the license has not been paid will be liable to seizure by the poundmaster. Marshall Carney has appointed Frank Day as poundmaster, and after April 1 a vigorous crusade is to be made against all stray canines. Between now and that time all who have dogs upon which they are willing to pay the license should do so and thus avoid the dog-catcher.
