To Attend Missionary Conference. Rev. T. R. Egerton, pastor of the Congregational church, will leave next Monday for Portland to attend the missionary conference held by the Congregational ministers of the state at Portland on the 21st. He will stay over several days to attend the Wilbur Chapman meetings. All denominations are invited to participate and ministers throughout the state are expected to be present at these meetings. During Mr. Egerton's absence his wife will hold the usual Sunday services. In the Congregational church women are allowed to be ordained as pastors as well as men, there being in the United States about 60 women who are serving as ministers. The daughter of Rev. J. Edwards, the former pastor of the church here, is an ordained minister in that church.

Bankrupt Stock Sold. Sheriff Taylor this morning sold the stock of cigars and store fixtures formerly owned by John Hanlon, and which were seized under attachment about a month ago. Gritman Bros. purchased the cigar stock, while the fixtures went to another party. In all, the stock brought $405, which more than pays off the account for which the attachment was made, but does not pay all the indebtedness of Hanlon.

Were a Selected Lot. J. H. Gwinn has received a letter from a sheepman at Antelope which states that the yearling ewes that were recently sold at that place for $2.50, an account appearing in this paper, were a select band. The prevailing price for mixed yearlings in Wasco and other counties of Eastern Oregon is said to vary from $2.10 to $2.25, with most of the sales being $2.10 or $2.15.

Sportsmen Meet Tonight. The Sportsmen's association will meet tonight at 8 o'clock in the rooms of the Commercial association, for the purpose of discussing ways and means for securing the privilege of fishing on the reservation during the coming season. A petition will be prepared and signed by all the members. This will be given to Major McKoin, and by him sent to the department at Washington.

New Set of Books. The Commercial National bank has just received a complete new set of loose leaf books for use in their business. The set consists of an individual ledger, transfer ledger, teller's record, deposit journal and check journal. The entire set constitutes the system that was on exhibit at the St. Louis fair.
