GEORGE GRIFFIN DIED TODAY.

Funeral Will Be From the Home, on Thursday.
George Griffin died at his home at 512 East Railroad street, at 8 o'clock this morning. For some time past he has been suffering from an attack of appendicitis, and his death was caused thereby. The funeral has been set for Thursday, and will be held from the home in East Railroad street, but the hour has not yet been set.
George Griffin has been a resident of Pendleton for a number of years, and for a time was employed in the planing mill. For some time past he has been a member of the saloon firm of Griffin & Murrell. His wife is a daughter of Frank Hanton, and they were married here.

CONTRACT FOR BUILDING LET.

The Perringer Building Will Cost, All Told, $6000.
A. J. Gibson was awarded the contract for erecting the Perringer corrugated iron building on Thompson street yesterday afternoon. The price for which the work is to be done is $4349, which is simply for superstructure. Including the foundation and excavating work the building will cost $6000, according to Architect Nichols, who has charge of the plans. The work on the building is to be started at once, and it is to be completed by May 15. Besides Mr. Gibson, bids were also submitted by Jos. Dupuis, Boothby & Hale, L. Haukey, Yates & Ellstrom and Contractor Morse.

Opportunity and the Apple.

"What is duty?" asked Goethe, and answered, "The claims of today, Carlyle echoed the thought, and recently Maeterlinck has uttered a mystic glorification of "the majestic life of today."
The majesty of the present deed, the present thought, lies in the fact that it spells opportunity. It is the habit of the unimaginative to think that Fate waits for the crises—and to wait upon Fate. The fact is, of course, that the crises are such only because they bring into the light the fabric that a nation or an individual has been all his life weaving—majestically or otherwise.
True greatness is the power of seizing in the imagination and effecting in action the opportunity of each moment as it passes. "Many a man," said Mr. Walter C. Kerr, the great electrical engineer, in a recent address at Stevens institute, "is surrounded with opportunities who never seizes one. There are traditions that Adam, William Tell and Sir Isaac Newton each had an affair with an apple, but with different results."—Saturday Evening Post.

A Mistaken Inference.

Senator Proctor of Vermont tells with much amusement of a time when he was taken for a Mormon elder.
The senator, accompanied by Mrs. Proctor and a party of some fourteen persons, was making a tour of the west. A stop was made at Salt Lake City, and the party started out for a walk about the city. Senator Proctor and his wife headed the procession, and the ladies of the party brought up the rear, going in pairs.
That very same day another party of easterners was making the rounds of Salt Lake City, and when they encountered the Proctor party in the main street they stood aside to let them pass.
"Well, well!" exclaimed one of the second party, "there's a sight! Look at that old Mormon and his wives. Out for a constitutional, I suppose. I wonder," he added, "if he has any more."

J. P. Haggerty, the deposed priest who has become noted for his lectures on socialistic doctrines, is now on a tour of Montana, making socialist speeches.

SEVERAL NEW FACES

PHYSIOGNOMIC SAMENESS
BROKEN IN BOTH HOUSES.

Senator Stewart of Nevada, an Old-Time Figure, Disappears and an Entirely New Man Succeeds Him—LaFollette of Wisconsin, is a Very Striking New Member, Succeeding an Old-Timer—Most of the Senators Succeed Themselves.

Several new faces distinguish the new session of congress, which began March 6, and many senators who have been national figures for years, enter upon longer terms of service.

From Wisconsin there is ex-Governor LaFollette to succeed Senator Quay, who is to be United States district judge. Both are republican.

From Nevada, there is a new republican senator in the person of Mr. Nixon; Clarence D. Clark, republican, succeeds himself as senator from Wyoming, and the same is true of Senator Charles A. Culberson, democrat, of Texas. Senator Nathan B. Scott, the veteran republican state leader, of West Virginia, also succeeds himself, while Washington sends a new member to the senate in Samuel H. Piles, of Seattle.

The successor of Vice-President Fairbanks of Indiana, is James A. Hemenway, while Senator Albert J. Beveridge succeeds himself and the republicans of Rhode Island have returned Senator Nelson A. Aldrich for a fifth term. From North Dakota, Senator McCumber, republican, returns again, and the same is true of Chauncey M. Depew of New York. Ex-Governor Morgan G. Bulkeley, of Connecticut, succeeds Senator J. R. Hawley, who is placed on the retired list as a brigadier general. Philander C. Knox begins his first regular term as senator, as does Murray Crane, of Massachusetts. Senator Knox succeeds the late Senator Quay, and Senator Crane, the late Senator Hoar. Eugene Hale of Maine, begins a fifth term and Senator Thomas Kearns of Utah, is succeeded by ex-Congressman George Sutherland. From Nebraska there is Elmer J. Burkett; from Michigan Julius Caesar who enters upon a third term and Minnesota returns Moses Clapp. F. P. Flint of California, succeeds Robert Bard.

After 10 years unremitting agitation Aberdeen, Wash., at last has a "cow ordinance"—in other words, a city herd law which imposes a penalty for allowing cows to wander at will.

HARD ENOUGH FOR ANYONE.

The hard woods we sell from this lumber yard deserve their name. There's no sap in them, they're well seasoned and "cured" to the degree carpenters and builders like. Lots of other good things to say about our lumber—but let the sticks and boards talk about themselves. The boards have "tongues," you know and the talk will be on a "plane" basis.
