AN ELATED TOURIST

WOULD TRADE ALL OF NEW YORK CITY FOR OREGON HOME

Requested to Be Awakened by Conductor Coykendall in Time to See Grand Ronde Valley—Oregon Apples Are Selling at Three for 25 Cents in New York City—New York State no Longer an Apple District.

"Grand Ronde apples are selling in New York city at three for 25 cents, and are not very plentiful at that price," said Major F. G. Delano, a capitalist of New York city, who passed through to San Francisco over the O. R. & N. this morning.

Major Delano had heard of Grand Ronde valley and was determined to see it as he passed through, so left an order with Conductor Frank Coykendall to call him in time for him to get a view of it in coming around the bluffs of Pyle's canyon, just above the valley.

Robbed in the brightest verdure of spring, bathed in the early morning sunshine, the garden spot of Eastern Oregon presented a most inspiring scene to the tourist, as the train circled the hills and came into the open at the south end of Grand Ronde valley.

Delano quoted poetry, sang songs of the Alps, Switzerland and the Rhine as he gazed on the scene, and declared that he would give all of New York city for a section of the choicest land in the heart of the valley, if circumstances were such that he could move to the West to live.

On arriving at La Grande, he feasted upon the fruit exhibit at the O. R. & N. depot and wanted to carry away samples of every kind of apples in the exhibit, and it was with difficulty that he was persuaded to get on the train to continue his westward journey.

He declared that although New York has always been one of the leading apple states in the Union, the orchards are now declining. The old trees no longer produce a first-class variety and young orchards are not being planted as rapidly as they should be to supply the demand for good fruit. He said that owing to extensive advertising, Grand Ronde and Walla Walla apples were well known in the metropolis, and that at this season of the year sold for three for 25 cents, retail, or about 16 per box.

THE REAL TEST

Of Herpicide Is In Giving It a Thorough Trial.

There is only one test by which to judge of the efficiency of any article and that is by its ability to do that which it is intended to do. Many hair vigors may look nice and smell nice, but the point is—do they eradicate Dandruff and stop falling hair?

No, they do not, but Herpicide does, because it goes to the root of the evil and kills the germ that attacks the papilla from whence the hair gets its life.

Letters from prominent people everywhere are daily proving that Newbro's Herpicide stands the "test of use."

It is a delightful dressing, clear, pure and free from oil or grease.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

PETITIONERS

NUMBER 112

ASK TO HAVE RESERVE OPENED TO SPORTSMEN.

Request Largely Justified Because of the Unremitting Efforts of the Sportsmen to Stock the Streams With Fish—The Organization Will Use Every Effort to Prevent Carrying Liquor Onto the Reservation.

One hundred and twelve names were secured for the sportsmen's petition yesterday by the committee appointed to handle the same. Today the petition will be given to Major McKoin, agent at the reservation, and by him be forwarded to the proper officials at Washington.

In speaking of the effort to have the reservation opened to white sportsmen, Joe Nolf, deputy game warden, said he considered it only justice in view of the work that has been done by the association to stock the river with fish, and of the fact that the Indians themselves fish but little for trout. According to him, signatures for the petition were easily gotten, as all believe that it asks for no more than is right, and he feels that the offer of a reward by the association for parties caught supplying liquor to the Indians or maliciously destroying property should satisfy the department on that point.

Now that the sportsmen have presented their petition they have done all in their power, and the matter rests entirely with the officials to decide.

A MOST PROFITABLE MEETING.

Echo Farmers and Business Men in Conference.

A meeting which comprised practically all the more prominent business men, farmers and stockmen of the Echo country, was held last Saturday to discuss the subjects, generally speaking, developed at the earlier meetings of the Citizens' club.

Dr. V. T. Cook of Portland, who lived for 18 years eight miles east of The Dalles, on the Washington side, gave his experience at raising and feeding dry-land alfalfa. As he is a past master at the industry, his address proved to be of absorbing interest, indicated by the flood of questions poured in upon him at the close of his address.

Dr. Cook, who has grown wealthy raising dry-land alfalfa, expressed great surprise at the evidences of neglect or undevelopment of this industry in the Echo country, when the conditions are so much better there than in some other districts where dry-land alfalfa has been raised with great profit.

F. S. Bramwell, field man for the Amalgamated Sugar Factory company, also spoke, and was followed by Col. Judson.

The enthusiasm of this meeting presages a very large turnout of the next meeting under the auspices of the Citizens' club.

A SCANDINAVIAN SURPRISE.

Enjoyable Affair at the Home of P. Peterson.

Members of the Scandinavian club gave a surprise social Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. Peterson, in honor of the former. The guests arrived at the Peterson home while Mr. Peterson was down town, and he was taken unawares by them on his return. A most enjoyable time is said to have been had. Vocal and instrumental selections were given and refreshments served.

Those present were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lundell, Mr. and Mrs. C. Swanson, Mr. and Mrs. P. Anderson, Mrs. E. Pearson, Misses Agnes Anderson, Christine Pearson, Ida Anderson, Lizzie Peterson, Ella Peterson, Messrs. C. Noregaard, J. P. Hedstrom, E. Hensen, S. Paulson and M. Ross.

EXPECT TO GET FULL AMOUNT.

Fair Association Is Confident of Success.

While nothing has been done with the fair subscription during the past couple of weeks, the matter has by no means been dropped. According to Frank Frazier, the matter will be taken up again as soon as the present wet weather is over so as to permit of traveling over the county. About $11,000 is now listed, and it is the belief of the committee that another thousand can be raised from Pendleton people. After that the rest of the money must be secured from other parts of this county and from Merrow county.

In view of the present excellent prospects for the grain crop this year it is thought that no difficulty will be had in raising the amount needed, from stockmen and other interested parties over the county.

RUNNING THREE GANG PLOWS.

Iowa Man Is More Than Satisfied With Umatilla County.

W. T. Fanshler, a farmer living eight miles northwest of here, yesterday purchased a jack of Ruby & Co., for $1000, and 12 mules from other people of this place. The mules are to be used by Mr. Fanshler for farm work for which he considers them superior to horses. Three gang plows, each with three bottoms and drawn by eight mules, were started this morning by Mr. Fanshler, who has 1040 acres to be plowed for summer fallow. Out of 800 acres which he had in fall grain, he found it necessary to reseed but 90 acres.

Three years ago Mr. Fanshler came to this county from Iowa, where he had sold a small farm for the price of $60 per acre. Coming here he purchased land west of Pendleton for $10 and states that it has now more than doubled in value during that time. He is now farming 1760 acres all told, most of it being rented land owned by fellow-Iowans. Last year he averaged 30 bushels per acre from the land, and consequently believes that this country is as good for money making as he wishes to get into.

Because of the prevalence of diphtheria in the country near Adams, the public schools of that city have been closed for this week. Prof. J. E. Cherry, principal of the Adams school is in the city today, and says while there is no great danger of a spread of the disease, it was deemed advisable to close for a week and allow the buildings to be thoroughly fumigated. An exceptionally good attendance has been maintained during the present term. The enrollment is 135 and the attendance about 120 with three teachers.
