Ask for our little booklet entitled, "Crystal Facts." It tells you all about it.

SCIENCE PREVENTS BALDNESS.

The Fatal Germ and Its Remedy Now Facts of Science.

It is the rarest thing in the world for a man to be necessarily bald. No man whose hair is not dead at the roots, need be bald if he will use Newbro's Herpicide, the new scalp antiseptic. Herpicide destroys the germ that cuts the hair off at the root; and cleans the scalp of dandruff and leaves it in a perfectly healthy condition. Mr. Mannett, in the Maryland Block, Butte, Mont., was entirely bald. In less than a month Herpicide had removed the enemies of hair growth, and nature did its work by covering his head with thick hair an inch long, and in six weeks he had a normal suit of hair. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. A. C. Koeppen & Bros., special agents.

INDORSES GOOD MORALS.

The following from The Dalles Chronicle, is a sample of the healthy sentiment being expressed by Oregon newspapers on Pendleton's moral campaign:

"Because the East Oregonian (which we consider one of our very best exchanges, because of its high moral tone) has stood for everything that was good and elevating in Pendleton, a number of those who are not on the elevated platform have seen fit to boycott the paper. It is now up to the people of that community to stand by the 'E. O.' and give it their hearty support. Wonder if they'll do it? For the sake of the good name of Eastern Oregon towns we hope so."

$5 FOR BEING RUN AWAY WITH.

Broncho Collided With Buggy, Causing a Runaway. John Waitza, the famous Indian football player who attended school at Carlisle, had a wild ride through the streets of Pendleton last evening, and this morning was required to pay $5 in the police court for disorderly conduct.

According to all accounts, Waitza was made the victim of a joke, and one which came near resulting seriously for two boys. He secured a horse at a Cottonwood street stable, and is said to have mounted the animal not knowing that it was a broncho. He had nothing but a hackamore with which to control the animal, and as soon as Waitza had gotten astride, the horse started upon a wild run which finally terminated at the corner of Main and Alta streets, where the animal ran into a buggy driven by the two Reed boys, causing a runaway. However, the buggy horse soon freed itself from the rig, and the boys were left uninjured. Waitza was then arrested.

FISH SCREENS NEEDED. Game Warden Complains That Farmers on Birch and McKay Creeks Are Not Complying With Laws. Deputy Fish and Game Warden Joe Wolf complains that farmers living on Birch and McKay creeks are not complying with the laws requiring fish screens to be placed in irrigating ditches and that because of this neglect hundreds of trout are being destroyed by going out into the irrigating ditches and becoming stranded.

The game warden will be compelled to enforce this law, and unless steps are taken by farmers to remedy the matter he will cause arrests where he finds violations.

DAGAME SUIT AGAINST CITY. Originated in a Boy Being Injured February 28. An action to recover $2500 damages from the city of Pendleton has been started by Henry Harper as the guardian of Loren Harper. In the complaint it is stated that the little boy suffered a broken leg on February 28 through a large disc falling upon him. The implement was the property of Fred Webber, the Court street dealer, and was stored on Thompson street, and where, while playing, the little boy was injured.

In the complaint it is stated that the implements were allowed to be stored in the street in violation of the laws on the subject, thus making the city responsible.

Action was taken some time ago against Fred Webber to collect the costs of caring for the boy while injured, and the case is still pending. Winter & Collier are the attorneys for the plaintiff.

MISSING HEIR FOUND.

Young Smith Goes Home to Receive Portion of Fair Estate.

After being gone for more than 25 years, during which time his whereabouts was a complete mystery to his relatives, Frank Smith, the brother of the late Mrs. Charles L. Fair, has turned up at Paterson, N. J. He is the missing heir of the Fair estate, for whom the mother of Mrs. Fair, Mrs. Hannah Nelson, of Newmarket, recently deceased, provided in her will. Although it was believed that Smith was long dead, his mother never could believe it, and was sure he would some day return. She, however, died about three weeks ago without having seen him.

Smith went west in 1880 to work on a ranch and has been living in obscurity ever since. For some reason he never seemed to find out that he was being sought as the heir of a fortune, even with all the notoriety that the death of Mrs. Fair and the litigation over her estate created.

Smith's share in his mother's estate will be about $70,000. His sister, Mrs. Fair, had also bequeathed to him $15,000 in her will, not knowing if he was living or dead.

For some years he has been an attendant in a hospital in Topeka, Kan.

Portrait Painter in Town. Will Make Oil Pictures for the Lewis and Clark Fair.

Yesterday he looked through part of the Moorhouse collection, and expressed great admiration for the work that has been done by the major. Among the number that will be painted by Mr. Fisher will be one to be placed in the Moorhouse exhibit for the Lewis and Clark fair.

Mr. Fisher has a studio in Portland, and has acquired a wide reputation as an oil painter. He is a son of Mr. Fisher, of the Fisher, Thorsen Co., of Portland.
