The "EXCERPTA" is perfectly simple in its construction. There are no complicated attachments. Anyone, even a child—old enough to lift a kettle of boiling water, can make delicious coffee in the "EXCERPTA"; no one who follows the directions can fail to do so, and the instant the boiling water is poured into the trap the coffee is ready to serve.

Let us enumerate some of the distinguishing features of an "EXCERPTA":

It makes coffee instantly.

It preserves the aroma absolutely.

It extracts the entire strength.

It develops the flavor.

It retains the heat.

It saves 25 per cent in coffee.

It requires no eggs.

It produces perfect coffee every time.

It is simple in operation.

It has no parts to get out of order.

It is made of durable materials.

and it withal a beautiful coffee pot in which to make and from which to serve.

DIRECTIONS for making coffee in the "EXCERPTA" are perfectly simple, as follows:

Place finely ground coffee in sack. Affix and pour boiling water through hole in top. Put on lid. THAT'S ALL. The coffee is made—and the best coffee, too, that you ever drank.

THE OLD PEOPLE'S SERVICE.

Out of One Hundred Present, Five United With the Church.

The old people's service at the Thompson Street Methodist Episcopal church was a marked success. It is estimated that fully 100 elderly people were present, and as many others who were younger. There were 20 who are now beyond the Bible limit of "three score and ten," six who have passed 80, and one lacked but two months of having attained to 85 years.

Five united with the church, and all seemed to greatly enjoy the occasion. The scene was most impressive, as many of these will never be able to reach a church again. Prof. McCarthy led the service very impressively, and sang from the old songs of 50 years ago.

La Grande vs. Walla Walla.

Last evening the La Grande ball team arrived on the way to Walla Walla, and left on the 9 o'clock train this morning. They will play two games at that place, one this afternoon and one Sunday afternoon. Those who passed through here were G. W. Crabie, R. Cotara, C. S. Williams, Al Helsner, Andrew Allstott, J. Prow and J. H. McLachlan.

SOCIETY EVENTS

Still the activity of Pendleton society knows no abating, and what bids fair to be one of the most lively post-Lenten seasons, has had a good beginning, with no outlook but for the continuance of gaiety until the warm weather settles upon us. Besides the larger affairs of the week, there have been numerous small card parties, mostly neighborhood gatherings, which filled in all blanks not taken with scheduled affairs.

A Delightful Party.

The hospitality of the Matlock home has long been established in Pendleton, and was again verified on Friday evening, when a large number of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Matlock's friends assembled at their home on West Court street, in response to invitations to dance from 8 to 12.

The rooms were beautifully decorated under the supervision of Forshaw, the florist, with festoons of smilax and large bouquets of spring flowers placed at certain intervals about the rooms. Mr. and Mrs. Matlock received their guests in the drawing room until 9 o'clock, when the rugs were all lifted, giving five rooms over to the dancers to trip the light fantastic to the music furnished by McMin's orchestra, which was stationed at one end of the reception hall.

A delightful beverage of wine punch was served throughout the evening to the dancers. The dining room, where light refreshments were to be had, was very attractive in its decorations of red and green. In the center of the table was a large bunch of carnations and maidenhair fern, with candelabra hooded with red shades on each corner. Mrs. A. W. Nye and Mrs. William Beagle poured coffee and Mrs. Fred Laatz served the ices.

Many beautiful evening gowns were noticed among the guests, who numbered about 200. The visiting guests were: Miss Gertrude Berryman and Miss Minnie Smith, of Walla Walla; Miss Sheridan, Miss Hallock and Miss Ethel Parsons, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Cox, of Athena; Mrs. C. R. French, of Weston; Mrs. Aura Haley and Mrs. William Shults, of Portland; Mrs. Herbert Gregg, of Walla Walla; J. H. Lewis, Washington, D. C., and E. Y. Judd, of Hartford, Conn.

In Honor of Miss Gulliford.

Miss Blanche Gulliford was again the honored guest at a linen shower, at the home of Mrs. W. L. Dick, on Tuesday afternoon. The house was prettily decorated in green and white, the color scheme being carried out in everything. Favours of green paper bon-bons were given to each guest, and with the quaint little caps jauntily adjusted, made a pretty picture as the guests were all active in the game of "500." Mrs. William Fowler won the prize, having the greatest number of points.

After the game was completed delightful refreshments were served.

Mrs. Leon Cohen Entertained.

Mrs. Leon Cohen entertained in a pleasant manner with cards, on Monday evening, in honor of her guest, Miss Ethel Parsons, of Portland. Progressive "500" was played. Miss Thompson, for the ladies, and Mr. Fred Lampkin, for the gentlemen, carried off the honors of the evening for the greatest number of points. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Dodd, Mr. and Mrs. George Hartman, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Frazier, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Earl, Misses Freda Roesch, Jessie Hartman, Bertha Alexander, Bess and Gay Campbell, Harriet and Edna Thompson, Lane, Frazier, Thompson and Roberts; Messrs. Dan Smythe, Richard Mayberry, Fred Lampkin, Roy Rittner, Ernest Ruppe, Charles Sampson, Fred Schmeier, Ben Burroughs, Al Waffle, Mark Moorhouse, Al Knight and Charley Meyers.

In Honor of Miss Thompson.

Mrs. W. L. Thompson proved a delightful hostess on Friday afternoon at a card party in honor of Miss Thompson. The house was prettily decorated with snowballs and red pennants. Favours of little pocket mirrors tied in white ribbon were given to each guest, to which a tiny bell was attached for each progression made in the game. At the close of the game Mrs. Elmer Dodd had the greatest number of bells, and won first prize. Mrs. Lee Held won the consolation prize. A beautiful bouquet of carnations was presented to the guest of honor, Miss Thompson.

Appetizing refreshments were served at the close of the game, by Mrs. Thompson, who was assisted by Mrs. Fred Shoemaker.

The invited guests were Mrs. Harry Rees, Mrs. Thomas Haley, Mrs. G. Phelps, Mrs. Lee Held, Mrs. E. P. Dodd, Mrs. Frank Moule, Mrs. George Hartman, Jr., Misses Jessie Hartman, Harriet Thompson, Bertha Alexander, Edna Thompson, Roberts, Folsom, and Moorhouse, and Mrs. William Shults and Miss Flo Hallock, of Portland.

Woodmen Social.

Tonight there will be a social meeting of the local Woodmen lodge, for the members and their friends. The meeting will be held in Secret Society hall, and a joint musical and literary program will be rendered, after which games will be played and refreshments served.
