GREAT EVENT FOR BUYERS.

The Money Raising Sale at the Peoples Warehouse Attracting Vast Crowds. The great money raising sale at the Peoples Warehouse continues to be the center of attraction for the vast majority of the Pendleton shopping folk. The success of this sale is the result of the great reductions in prices and the generous advertising methods of this popular store. The Peoples Warehouse does nothing by halves, nor leaves nothing to chance. Ever ready to save the patrons money and selling only first-class merchandise, Pendleton's great store has earned its large and increasing patronage. The money raising sale commences its second week, with even more startling reductions, in all lines of merchandise, offering an opportunity no one of a thrifty mind can afford to miss. We judge by the crowds that throng the store all week that few have failed to profit by this sale.

Joined the Reclamation Service. Olen Arnsperger left last evening for Ontario, where he will join the reclamation service crew which is working on the Mather project. He will remain with them until fall, when he will return to the U. of O.

At the Baptist Church. Subjects at the Baptist church tomorrow are as follows: Morning service, "How Shall I Keep From Backsliding?" Evening, "How Shall a Man Be Born?"

Residence Sold. Harl Stewart yesterday sold his residence on West Court street to Barbara Cunningham, of Lexington, for $3550. Wade & Son made the deal.

Personal and public benefits are derived from judicious advertising.

PERSONAL MENTION

Mr. and Mrs. Matt Shaw, of Milton, are here upon a short visit. Mr. and Mrs. H. Clay of Telocaset, are in the city on a visit. Mr. Clay is O. R. & N. section foreman at Telocaset. Roy Alexander and Al Knight are in Baker City for the purpose of witnessing the field meet there this afternoon. William Holmes, of this place, will leave within a day or two for his old home at New Sharon, Iowa, for a several months' visit. John T. Whistler left last night for Portland upon business connected with the reclamation service, and is expected to return Sunday evening. Mrs. L. R. Bamber, who has been in Wichita, Kas., arrived this morning and will join her husband, Major Ira R. Bamber, industrial teacher at the Umatilla agency. Thomas Smith, of Echo, passed through last evening on his way to Milton. He is a brother of Mrs. Preston, whose husband was killed there Thursday evening. Conrad Platzoeder and family left this morning for Claresholm, Alberta, where the family will reside permanently. Mr. Platzoeder expects to return in about two weeks. Miss Phoebe Dowato, a competent nurse of St. Anthony's hospital, leaves today for Tacoma, Wash., where she intends to take a post-graduate course in St. Joseph's hospital of that city. Roy McCallen, who has been employed in the Savings bank as private stenographer to W. J. Furnish for some time, has resigned his position and left for his former home at Roseburg.

E. T. Davis, formerly a tailor of Eugene, has arrived after having made a visit to England upon which he has been absent for several months. He is accompanied by his son, and they are visiting here today.

Elmer Drake came down from Doty, Wash., to visit his father, C. D. Drake. Elmer is making his home at present with his brother, L. E. Drake, who has for several years been an engineer on a lumber and log line extending into Doty.

Judge S. A. Lowell left this morning for Milton, where he will assist in the prosecution of Grover Martin, who is charged with the killing of O. N. Preston at Freewater. The firm of Hatley & Lowell will assist the state in conducting the case.

S. C. Swift, of San Francisco, representative of S. C. Swift & Son Paper company, is in the city on a tour of the northwest. He will visit his many patrons among eastern Oregon newspapers and will remain for several weeks in this territory. Conductor Coykendall, of the Pendleton-Huntington passenger run of the O. R. & N., is now in La Grande attending to spraying his large apple orchard near that place. He owns one of the finest orchard tracts in the Grand Ronde valley.

RAILROADS PROSPEROUS.

Statements Show Highly Successful Year Just Passed.

A highly prosperous condition of transcontinental railway lines is shown by the recent official reports. The Union Pacific's March statement shows an increase of $751,000 gross earnings and $454,000 net earnings for the month. For the nine months preceding April 1 gross earnings increased $2,655,000, and net earnings $1,793,000. The Southern Pacific has given notice that it will redeem, on June 1, its two five-year 4 1/2 per cent gold bonds dated December 1, 1900, and that holders of the old bonds may exchange them for the new at par, by paying $42.50 cash for each $1,000 of the bonds called for redemption.

Application has been made by the Oregon Short Line to the New York stock exchange to list $45,000,000 refunding bonds to retire the 4 per cent participating bonds called for February 1, 1905.

The Northern Pacific's $155,000,000 capital stock has again been listed on the New York stock exchange. The company's latest balance sheet shows that the value of the Northern Pacific's half interest in the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad system, owned by the Great Northern and Northern Pacific jointly, is placed at $109,112,909. A statement of earnings for the eight months prior to March 1 shows gross earnings of $23,771,946, an increase of about $2,000,000 over the same period in 1904. The surplus is $4,181,091, as against $2,193,231 a year ago.

"Teddy, Jr." a Teacher.

"Teddy" Roosevelt, Jr., the president's eldest son, has been teaching a Sunday school class in a little Episcopal chapel on the edge of Washington ever since last September. President Roosevelt has been making quiet visits to the mission on special occasions, and Mrs. Roosevelt has made a habit of attending the services once or twice a month—and scarcely a rumor of all these happenings have been scented by the general public, says the Washington Star. This is passing strange for the people of the capital city can easily recognize the chief executive, and the White House is nearly always besieged by numbers of newspaper men. But for once, at least, during a considerable length of time, the president and his family have outwitted the public.

First Wreck on the Branch.

The first wreck on the Condon railroad occurred at the supply yards near Schuttler last Thursday, when an engine and three cars jumped the track. No one was hurt, but the engine was so badly damaged that it had to be taken to the shop for repairs.—Arlington Record.

Contract for Residence.

The contract for the erection of a new residence of Chris Breding, near McCormack station, was let yesterday in the office of Architect Troutman. The structure is to cost $3000.

THE WOMEN'S CLUBS

The members of the Current Literature club to the number of 25 held their annual picnic on McKay creek at the farm of Mrs. Mattie LaDow on Friday of this week and a splendid time was had by the participants.

As this was the final regular meeting of the club year, the retiring president, Mrs. G. A. Hartman, Sr. in a short address gave a resume of work of the past year and set forth the possibilities of the future. As they gathered around the picnic board spread under the trees in the grove several impromptu speeches were given. Mrs. E. C. Skiles gracefully acting as toastmistress. The weather was everything that could be desired—and wit and good humor prevailed. The members departed late in the afternoon with many kindly expressions for the hostesses, Mrs. Mattie LaDow and Mrs. Mary LaDow.

The only thing to mar the pleasure of the afternoon was the painful accident sustained by Mrs. J. F. Robinson, whose ankle was sprained. Mrs. Robinson is resting easily this morning, and will be entirely recovered in a short time.

Thursday Afternoon Club.

The Thursday Afternoon club will meet with Mrs. J. A. Fee Thursday, May 25. Shakespeare's "Midsummer Night's Dream" will be the subject. The responses at roll call will be: My favorite play or character and why.

Osteopathy

Mark Twain has long been known as a friend of Osteopathy. The following story comes from York Harbor, Me.:

"Say, yer know that literary chap that hed the Furness cottage last summer—Mark Twain, I believe they call 'im; waal, he uster come over ter my house an' set for hours while I spun yarns. One day he came to me lookin' kind o' worried like, an' his hair was ruffled up like he'd been aout in a stiff nor'easter, an' he sez: 'Cap'n Brooks, can you tell me if there is an Osteopath at the Harbor?' 'Waal,' sez I, 'the' mebbe, but I ain't never ketchted one on 'em, an' I've been fishin' here nigh onto 40 years.' He looked kind o' queer, an' sed he guessed he'd go up to the drug store and inquire."

"Waal, I went home an' told the old woman about it an' she sez: 'You old fool Jed Brooks, 'tain't no fish, 'tis a bird.' So I went into the best room and tuk down the cyclopedium my boy Steve had ter Harvard college, an' I'll be durned if it wasn't no fish at all, nor a bird, but a new fangled kind o' doctor."
