OREGON'S POPULATION.

Fair Visitors Will Swell the Number to a Million.

Distances that will have to be covered by a visiting throng at the exposition are greater than at any previous exposition, and the success already attained indicates the strength of an attraction that will bring people of all ages to the fair, prepared some time ago a map showing the population, according to census reports, within given bounds.

Portland will have, when the gates of the exposition open, approximately a population of 150,000 people. In the state of Oregon the population June 1 will be above 450,000. Within a radius of 100 miles from Portland it is found that 400,000 people reside. Within 200 miles, the population is 800,000. Three hundred miles will bring in a total of 1,200,000 persons. At a distance of 500 miles the population is swelled to 1,800,000, and within a radius of 1000 miles of Portland 5,000,000 people are to be found.

The rim of the circle drawn by a 1000-mile compass with Portland as the center, would embrace British Columbia and Washington on the north, Idaho, Montana, Oregon and parts of Wyoming, Nevada and California on east and south. Portions of this territory may reach Portland by steamers and steamboats, but most of the travel will be by railroads, there being three transcontinental lines entering the city, from the north, east and south, respectively.

SCARED TO DEATH.

Peculiar Circumstances of a Death at Portland.

The Oregon Daily Journal gives the following account of the death of Miss Media Bohrer, near Portland, Thursday evening:

The body of Media Bohrer was found by her relatives at 9 o'clock this morning, after a night of search, far up among the Portland Heights hills. The 12-year-old girl left home yesterday morning to seek a stray cow belonging to her father, John Bohrer. The last seen of the child alive was at noon yesterday, just before the terrific thunderstorm that swept the hills. Mrs. R. T. Dickerson saw the child leave the road after the cows just before the storm broke.

When the child did not return, a searching party consisting of Miss Ella Talbot, C. T. Thompson, Mr. Hersey and John Stearns, scoured the hills and, after an all-night hunt, a dog belonging to Thompson discovered the body two miles or more from the Bohrer home, on the Patton road. Coroner Finley made an examination of the body and found no sign of an injury. The eyes and mouth were open wide, as if in fright, and it is supposed that the child was overtaken by the storm and so terrified by the unusual fury of the thunder that she died. The girl was of a nervous temperament and especially fearful of lightning.

The mother of the girl is in a hospital and her father has for some months been laid up with a broken leg, the family cares being to a great extent borne by the girl.

ONE ON ROBB.

Asked Attorney General Crawford if He Were a Lawyer.

Assistant Attorney General Robb, of Washington, D. C., was in the city Monday, being in Oregon, so the birds say, to examine the brands, deplaws and ear marks of the candidates for the federal judgeship left vacant by the death of Judge Bellinger, says the Salem Journal.

No matter, however, why he came, while here he was at the state house, and was introduced to Attorney General A. M. Crawford. The gentleman from Washington didn't catch the title at the introduction, and after a few moments' conversation quite innocently said: "Are you not a lawyer?" Mr. Crawford was for a moment rather bewildered, but, lighting on his feet, as lawyers learn to do, replied: "Well, general, the fact that I am attorney general of this state, and that I was elected by the people without hypnotic influences being brought to bear, can be taken as a prima facie evidence that I am." Then there was a "my dear Gaston" act by General Robb, and a mutual smile, and—well—they were in the state capitol, and house bill No. 104 has never been repealed.

Convict's Favorite Paper Barred.

Governor Johnson of Minnesota is in receipt of a complaint from Editor W. B. Hearst that Warden Henry Wolf of the state penitentiary, has refused to allow the Chicago American to be delivered to a convict who has subscribed for it. The complaint states that a convict known only by his number sent a paid subscription to the office of the Chicago American and that the paper was mailed. Later the convict complained of the non-receipt of the paper, and an inquiry made by the publisher brought a statement from the warden that he did not permit the inmates of the penitentiary to read the Chicago American. Governor Johnson has referred the complaint to the board of control of the penitentiary.

The Burning Question.

"The present day boy," said a prominent member of the American Institute of Social Science, "is totally irrepressible. He has neither reverence nor respect for his elders and betters. The other day I said to my son, being desirous to impress the youngster with some sense of responsibility for the future:

"Supposing I should be taken away suddenly, my boy, what would become of you?"

"Why, I'd stay here," he answered instantly. "The question is, what would become of you?"—New York Press.

Rader Property Sold.

The property of Elmer Rader, on East Court street, was sold today to Charles Morris for the sum of $1000, the deal being made through E. T. Wade & Son.

WASHING WITHOUT WATER

Is Like Trying to Get Rid of Dandruff Without Herpicide.

Did you ever see any one trying to wash themselves without soap or water?

If you did what would you say of him?

It is every bit as foolish to try to get rid of dandruff and to prevent baldness by feeding the germs which cause it, with Cantharides, Vaseline, Glycerine and similar substances which form the principal ingredients of most so-called Hair Vigors.

Newbro's Herpicide is successful because it attacks and kills the parasitic germ which feeds on the hair roots. It is the original and only genuine scalp germicide manufactured.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

SOCIETY EVENTS

Wedding Bells.

For the first week in June there will be quite a stir socially in Pendleton circles, and June 7 bids fair to be its banner day.

One can almost hear the wedding bells chiming in the distance when the nuptials of three prominent society girls—Miss Ida Thompson, Miss Ona Marsh and Miss Blanche Gulliford—plight their troth.

Miss Thompson's marriage to Mr. Seth Catlin, of Portland, will take place on the evening of the 7th at the Church of the Redeemer, at 8 o'clock, followed by a reception at the home of her mother, from 8:30 until 10 o'clock.

At 8 o'clock on the same evening, Miss Gulliford will become the wife of Dr. Ringo, the marriage ceremony taking place at the Presbyterian church, Rev. Van Nuys officiating. Immediately following the service a reception will take place at the home of Mrs. C. J. Smith, sister of the bride.

Miss Ona Marsh will be quietly married to Mr. Walter Ely, of Athena on the afternoon of June 7, at 4 o'clock, at the home of her mother, on East Lewis street.

Rose Party.

Mrs. Elmer P. Dodd entertained with cards Thursday afternoon in honor of Miss Thompson, at the home of her mother, Mrs. R. Alexander.

The house was beautifully decorated with roses and foliage. Handsome hand-painted scores and prizes, decorated with roses, carried out the rose idea completely for a June party. Progressive "500" was played, the successful contestants being Miss Harriet Thompson for first place, and Mrs. W. L. Thompson, for second place. A lovely bouquet of pink roses was presented to Miss Thompson, the guest of honor.

At the close of the game delightful refreshments were served. The invited guests present were Mesdames Leon Cohen, Max Baer, J. R. Dickson, Edwin Switzer, W. L. Thompson, Charles Eppinger, Frank Moule, Misses Harriet Thompson, Celestine Moorhouse, Bertha Alexander, Eleanor Moorhouse, Miss Roberts and Miss Lane.

Progressive Dinner Party.

The progressive dinner party given on Monday evening in honor of Miss Thompson, was successfully and enjoyably carried out in every detail. Automobiles were pressed into service in conveying the guests from one home to the other, where the different courses were served. A merry evening was spent at the home of Mrs. Frank Moule, the last place visited, who invited a number in to spend the evening in playing "500." The high scores were held by Miss Jessie Hartman and Mr. G. W. Phelps, and they were awarded the first prizes. Mrs. Harry Rees won the consolation prize.

The ladies giving the dinner were: Mrs. Frank Moule, Mrs. Lee Held, Mrs. Harry Rees and Mrs. G. W. Phelps. The invited guests for the evening were Misses Ida Thompson, Blanche Horn, Jessie Hartman, Maud Sheridan, Messrs. G. W. Phelps, Harry Rees, Lee Held, Dan Smythe, Edward Aldrich, Cecil Wade, Charles Myers and Ben Burroughs.

In Honor of June Brides.

Mrs. Minnie Stillman was hostess Thursday evening for a large company of young people in honor of the four June brides, Miss Thompson, Miss Marsh, Miss Gulliford and Miss Epple, but owing to a recent death in the family, the latter was unable to attend.

The house was tastefully decorated with red hearts and large red bells hung pendant from the ceiling. The electrolights were hooded with the same shade, carrying out the color scheme effectively. The evening was merrily spent in playing "500," Miss Harriet Thompson and Mr. Dan Smythe winning the honors of the evening, and Miss Gulliford and Mr. Mark Moorhouse shared honors in getting the consolation prizes.

The guests invited to enjoy the evening's pleasures were: Misses Effie Frazier, Rena Ferguson, Harriet Thompson, Maud Sheridan, Celestine Moorhouse, Adna Raley, Fay Bartholomew, Ethel Parsons, Jessie Hartman, Bertha Alexander, Eema Sawtelle, Flora Folsom, Gay and Bess Campbell, Eva Froome, Mary Ritter, and Miss Harrison; Messrs. Dan Smythe, Mark Moorhouse, Ben Burroughs, Will Sturgis, Roy Raley, Charles Marsh, Roy Ritter, Dr. Ringo, Fred Lampkin, Fred Schmeer, Charles Myers, Willard Bond, Charles Sampson, George Eyer, J. K. Taylor, Royal Alexander, John Lambreth, Cecil Wade and Win Stewart.

Heart Party.

A very pretty evening party this week was given by Mrs. W. L. Thompson Friday evening in honor of a former Lewisville friend, Miss Louise Morrison. Progressive hearts was played at four tables. Miss Cameron and Fred Lampkin having the least hearts, won the high prizes, while Miss Sheridan and Ben Burroughs won the consolation prizes.

Mrs. Thompson was assisted by Mrs. A. Kunkel and Miss Harriet Thompson. The invited guests present were: Miss Hartman, Miss Sheridan, Miss Cameron, Miss Ferguson, Miss Parsons, Miss Alexander and Miss Bartholomew; Messrs. Charles Myers, Royal Alexander, Sherman Kunkel, Mark Moorhouse, Ben Burroughs, Fred Lampkin, Dan Smythe and Dale Slusher.

"500" Parties.

Two large parties were given this week by Mrs. Jesse Palling and Mrs. Carmine, at the home of the latter. The first one occurred on Thursday afternoon and was attended by a large assemblage of ladies. The second party occurred this afternoon. On Thursday afternoon Mrs. T. C. Taylor was the winning contestant in the game of progressive "500," and Mrs. Henry Jones scored the least points. The ladies attending both parties were Mesdames F. Frazier, Roosevelt, Robinson, Wallace, Tallman, Marshall, Brock, Lane, Hunsiker, Judd, Clifton, Jones, Hartman, Sr., Taylor, Folsom, Troutman, Moore, E. C. Skiles, W. Skiles, Marston, Goodman, Penland, Moorhouse, Kenzie, Hamilton, McAdam, L. Frazier, Baer, Halley, Cohen, Held, Sturgis, Alexander, L. Thompson, Stillman, Shoemaker, Rees, Kerbaugh, Hartman, Jr., M. Hamilton, Folsom, Smith, Dick, Switzer, La Dow, Sullivan, Perham, Clarke, Beckwith, Teutsch, Castleman, Becker, Earl, Dickson, Donaldson, Miss Lane, and Mrs. Molden, of La Grande.
