OREGON WOOL LEADS

SCOURED WOOL IS NOW WORTH 68 TO 74 CENTS.

Boston Wool Review Gives Oregon the Leading Place in Markets—California Clip About All Sold—Idaho Sells at 21 to 22 Cents—Utah Sells at 28 Cents and Texas at 24.

A review of the Boston wool market of the past week says:
Outside of a strong movement of South American wools, interest in the market here centers in the range districts, where speculation continues active and prices are strong and advancing. In Oregon some 550,000 pounds of the new clip are reported sold at Pendleton, at 20 1/2 to 22 cents, the wool to cost scoured and landed from 68 to 74 cents, the latter cost for fins. The bulk of this purchase was made by a Boston dealer.
A Boston house has also paid 24 cents for wool in Texas, and 24 1/2 cents is the price given for a purchase of 500,000 pounds at Lampasas. In California everything is sold except the Humboldt wool. Late reports from the fleece sections show 28 to 28 1/2 cents paid in Ohio for the fine unwashed and 35 cents for fine washed. Most of the staple is held, however, at from 2 to 3 cents more money, even 40 cents being asked in some places for medium washed.
Receipts of wool locally are increasing; the new Western wools are arriving and are bearing out all the good things that have been said of them as to growth, cleanliness and light shrinkage. Connecticut and Massachusetts mills are in the market daily and are taking on a few fine wools when a fair trade is offered. As a rule, consumers are backward and disposed to adopt the hand-to-mouth policy of buying, so long a habit with the cotton mills. Some choice Idaho and Nevada wools have been sold, Idaho bringing 21 to 22 1/2 cents in the grease, or 67 to 68 cents clean, and Nevada 22 to 22 1/2 cents in the grease, or 67 to 70 cents clean.
Medium Utah has sold at 28 cents and fine medium at 22 to 23 cents, while Arizona has sold at 24 to 25 cents, or 67 to 68 cents clean. Most of these wools were sold in the bags. Altogether nearly 1,000,000 pounds of territory has changed hands. The clean cost of territory is about as follows: One-quarter blood, 58 to 60 cents; three-eighths blood, 63 to 65 cents; one-half blood, 65 to 67 cents; fine medium, 65 to 68 cents; fine, 70 to 73 cents.
A sale of eight months' Texas wool of about 35,000 pounds is reported at 33 to 34 cents, casing, clean, 63 cents and one small sale of California at around 25 cents.

Suit on Mining Contract.
Papers were filed in the circuit court by Attorneys Hart & Smith, bringing action for A. P. Watson against the Keystone Bell Mining company, to regain possession of mining property valued at $40,000, and which adjoins the Bonanza mine. It is claimed in the complaint that the contract under which the property was taken has not been fulfilled.—Baker City Democrat.

The Virginia & Truckee railroad, the main outlet for the Tonopah and Goldfield district, has been purchased by the Southern Pacific.

EMPLOYING TEACHERS EARLY.

Superintendent is Continually Receiving Reports. Already the agitation started a short time ago by County Superintendent Frank K. Welles to secure the early employment of teachers is bearing fruit. Almost daily, letters are now being received at the superintendent's office from the directors and clerks of the various school boards asking for information, and advice in the selection of their teachers. In many instances the superintendent is asked to make recommendations, and the boards are not relying absolutely upon getting their teachers from among those who send in applications.

Within the past week or two reports have been received at the office from the following: District 26, J. H. E. Scott, three months term. Next year a nine months term will be taught there, and the teacher paid $50 a month. District 103, Inez Alard, three months term; district 78, Mrs. M. E. Edwards, three months term; district 82, Jessie Wilson, three months; district 105, R. E. Beck, eight months; district 72, Bertha L. Morrison, eight months; district 84, Ruby A. Post, three months; district 10, F. B. Penick, eight months; district 99, S. E. Darr, eight months; district 9, Harry Huber, eight months; district 25, Roberta A. Rippey, six months; district 65, Daisy Lee.

COMPANY MADE A HIT.

"The Passion Slave" Will Score a Great Success.
Last Sunday night when McMinn's Walla Walla Park Stock company made its initial appearance in Pendleton, it met with instantaneous approval, and when it appears at the Frazer theater again tomorrow night, in "The Passion Slave," it is safe to say it will be greeted by a full house.
The cast will be the same as on their former visit, and the play is a very pretty melodrama of the better class.
Miss Romaine and Mr. Fitch will, of course, play the leading roles, while the rest of Pendleton's favorites will undoubtedly furnish a worthy background for these two really good people.
Don't forget the date, Sunday, June 4.
