INDIANS GO TO MICHIGAN

SIX UMATILLAS JOIN WILD WEST SHOW.

Fred Parr Will Be Manager of a Wild West and Polo Team Composed of Umatillas to Attract Attention to the Coast—Carload of Horses Sent From Baker City to Be Used by the Indians.

Six members of the Umatilla tribe of Indians left this city last night for Grand Rapids, Mich., where they will be employed in a wild west show, organized by Grand Rapids people and supported by the railroads centering there, for the purpose of attracting tourist travel to the west.

The Indians going from here are Fred and Frank Parr, Charlie Bellinger, Indian Albert and Indian Louie. A carload of horses to be used by them has been shipped from Baker City and six other Indians will join them at Baker, making 12 to go with the party from that place.

The principal work to be expected of the Indians will be to play a sort of polo game on horseback, ride wild horses and imitate the Indian antics to be seen on the Umatilla reservation.

Fred Parr will be manager of the Indians and will perhaps make several trips from Grand Rapids to Pendleton during the summer, for the purpose of replenishing the supply of Indians and ponies as the business increases. The Indians are promised five months' work, at good pay with the privilege of selling all the Indian curios and bead and buckskin work they desire, on the grounds at Grand Rapids.

Just when the company employing the Indians will "get off," in the matter of expenses is not known, but from what the members of the party have been told, they will perform part of the time inside a ball ground, to which an admission will be charged. The company will also work in conjunction with a Portland colonization company and will receive a percentage on all the tourists or homeseekers directed by the Indians' performances to the west.

WESTERN WOMAN'S SOUVENIR.

Mary O. Douthit Writes a Delightful Book on Northwestern Pioneer Women.

"Western Woman's Souvenir" is the title of a new book just issued from the press of Anderson & Dunaway, of Portland, edited by Miss Mary O. Douthit, of The Dalles, and dedicated to the pioneer mothers and wives of Old Oregon.

The book is beautifully illustrated, and contains touching reminiscences of pioneers of the northwest coast, beginning with the coming of Lewis and Clark, guided by Sacajawea, the first pioneer woman to make history in the northwest.

Miss Douthit has spared no pains to secure the most important historical matter for her work, and it covers the early history of the old Oregon country completely. Since it is dedicated to western women and is a souvenir edition of the Lewis and Clark fair, the historical significance of it should appeal to all lovers of this wonderful country.

Some of the contributions are pathetic and thrilling. The article by Joseph Gaston, on the coming of the railroad, is one of the most thrilling reviews of the hardships of the pioneer mothers toiling over the perilous mountain paths that has ever been written on the subject. When one reads of the privations and hardships of the pioneers, and compares their lot to that of the present tourist travel to the coast, it is difficult to understand how such obstacles were ever overcome and such a country was ever opened to settlement.

A beautiful photograph of the Sacajawea monument, accompanied by a stanza of Bert Huffman's poem, "Sacajawea," forms the back cover, and is especially attractive.

Huge Task.

It was a huge task to undertake the cure of such a bad case of kidney disease, as that of C. F. Collier, of Cherokee, Ia., but Electric Bitters did so. He writes: "My kidneys were so far gone I could not sit on a chair without a cushion, and suffered from dreadful backache, headache and depression. In Electric Bitters, however, I found a cure, and by them was restored to perfect health. I recommend this great tonic medicine to all with weak kidneys, liver or stomach. Guaranteed by Tallman & Co., druggists; price 50c."

SUFFRAGISTS ORGANIZE.

Large Attendance Greeted Miss Chase and Strong Organization Formed.

The Pendleton Equal Suffrage association was launched at the M. E. church last night with a signed membership of 18 and a large prospective membership which will come into the organization later.

Miss Mary N. Chase, who lectured at the M. E. church, started the movement and a permanent organization which it is hoped will grow into an active political force, was formed. The officers of the association are as follows: President, Mrs. Florence Badley; secretary, Rev. G. L. Hall; treasurer, Mrs. Frank S. Hoffman.

Judge S. A. Lowell delivered a forcible address on the subject of equal suffrage and the address by Miss Chase was strong and thoughtful. Petitions asking for the submission of the equal suffrage amendment to the Oregon constitution, by referendum vote, were circulated and will be kept before the people constantly until a sufficient number of names are secured to insure a vote.

Roy H. Miller is being tried this week at Baker City on the charge of misappropriating funds of the wrecked bank of Sumpter.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect it.

How To Find Out. Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What To Do. There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention this paper and don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y.
