

AN ANCIENT BIBLE

COPY OF BOOK PRINTED
IN 1613 IN PENDLETON.

A Curiously Topographically and Or-thographically—Synopsis of Every Chapter Precedes it—The Apocrypha Is Printed in Full—Has Been in the Family of Mrs. I. N.
Wickersham for Generations.

In the vault of the Commercial National bank is a most interesting book. It is a Bible, and it is almost 300 years old, having been printed at London in the year 1613. On its title page, which, contrary to the present usage, is at the back and not the front, are these words:

Imprinted at London by Robert Barker
Printer to the King's most excellent Majesty
1613

Cum Privilegio Regiae Maiestatis.
By reason of its extreme antiquity, the old book is an object of interest from several standpoints aside from the theological one. In mechanical appearance it is not so greatly different from modern works, except in the style of type, and the fact that the edge where the leaves are bound is concave, instead of convex. On the cover of the book are a number of metal ornaments which have apparently been placed there by hand, as the work is rather crude. There is also evidence that at one time there was a clasp for the Bible, but the most of it is now gone.

The style of type and the spelling is of the old English, and the second volume of the Bible shows some of the peculiarities of the latter. It is as follows: 2. "And the earth was without form and void and darkness was upon the deep, and the Spirit of God moved upon the water."

One of the peculiar things about the historical book is the fact that although one of the earliest editions to be printed in the English language, the King James translation being made but a few years earlier, it is much more complete than most of the modern works. The psalms are given in the front of the book as well as in the usual place in the Old Testament. These are followed by "certain godly prayers for sundry times," one being given for each day of the week, and for various other occasions.
Following this a diagram is given which graphically shows how to properly study the Bible. It was devised by T. Grashop.

Preceding each chapter in the entire Bible in the "argument" in which a synopsis of the chapter is given, and the work is well supplied with marginal and foot notes to explain the various passages. All of the Apocrypha, 14 books, which are left out of the modern Bibles, are given in the Old Testament. In the back of the book are two dictionaries, one of the "Hebrew, Greek, Latin or other strange names differed throughout the Bible," and the other of the "English words conveying unto most of the necessaries and profitable doctrines."

For some reason there are no names or dates of any antiquity in the book. Although it has every evidence of its great age, the earliest date given in 1854, and although there are a number of others given, they are all later.

Several names, the surname in each case being Downing, are written in the book and are presumed to represent the different hands through which the Bible has passed. It is now the property of I. N. Wickersham of the city, and it has been in possession of his wife's family for generations. It was brought to America by Mrs. Wickersham's mother and it is said to have been given to her by her great grandmother in England. According to Mr. Wickersham he has been offered a large sum for the book on several occasions, but so far has refused to part with it, though he says that he will now sell it.

WHAT JOY THEY BRING TO EVERY HOME

as with joyous hearts and smiling faces they romp and play—when in health—and how conducive to health the games in which they indulge, the outdoor life they enjoy, the cleanly, regular habits they should be taught to form and the wholesome diet of which they should partake. How tenderly their health should be preserved, not by constant medication, but by careful avoidance of every medicine of an injurious or objectionable nature and if at any time a remedial agent is required, to assist nature, only those of known excellence should be used; remedies which are pure and wholesome and truly beneficial in effect, like the pleasant laxative remedy, Syrup of Figs, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. Syrup of Figs has come into general favor in many millions of well informed families, whose estimate of its quality and excellence is based upon personal knowledge and use.

Syrup of Figs has also met with the approval of physicians generally, because they know it is wholesome, simple and gentle in its action. We inform all reputable physicians as to the medicinal principles of Syrup of Figs, obtained by an original method, from certain plants known to them to act most beneficially and presented in an agreeable syrup in which the wholesome California blue figs are used to promote the pleasant taste; therefore it is not a secret remedy and hence we are free to refer to all well informed physicians, who do not approve of patent medicines and never favor indiscriminate self-medication.

Please to remember and teach your children also that the genuine Syrup of Figs always has the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package and that it is for sale in bottles of one size only. If any dealer offers any other than the regular Fifty cent size, or having printed thereon the name of any other company, do not accept it. If you fail to get the genuine you will not get its beneficial effects. Every family should always have a bottle on hand, as it is equally beneficial for the parents and the children, whenever a laxative remedy is required.

the union temperance meeting at the Christian church in the evening.

Presbyterian Church.

Morning worship at 10:30; evening worship at 8. Both services will be in charge of the pastor. The meeting of the general assembly at Winona Lake, Ind., will furnish the theme for the day. It was the judgment of the older men of the church that this assembly was the best in point of interest and power that the church has ever held. Its work is of great significance to the future, and commands the attention of every member of the church. The Sunday school meets at noon. Young people's meeting at 7 p. m.

Baptist Church.

Corner East Alta and Johnson streets, G. LeRoy Hall, pastor. Morning, "Saying Goodbye to God." Everybody invited. Pleasant church home for all who have none. In the evening we will have a temperance service. The topic will be "The Morgane on Our Homes." The pastor will speak. Music led by a male chorus.
Special singing by male quartet.

Train Kills a Jap.

One Japanese section hand was instantly killed and two seriously injured by an O. R. & N. freight train near Weatherby yesterday evening.
The Japanese flagman failed to stop the train and the train crew did not know of the approach of the handcar bearing the section crew.

Off to the Conclave.

Quite a number of Mystic Shrine-ers of Pendleton left for Portland last night to attend the conclave that is being held there now. Among those who went were M. M. Wyrick, Robert Forster, George Hartman, Sr., William Slusher and G. W. Phelps.

German manufacturers are asked by the Russian government to bid on 200,000,000 cartridges and a large number of rifles.

PIONEER OF 1849

SAT IN CONSTITUTIONAL
CONVENTION OF 1857.

First Came to Astoria in 1850, and Saw and Experienced the Roughest Usages of Frontier Life in Every Phase of Its Hardships—Was Shipwrecked, Engaged in the Indian Wars, and Was a Miner, Prospector and Stockman.

William H. Packwood, a pioneer of 1849 and one of the few surviving members of the constitutional convention which met at Salem in 1857, will attend and celebrate Pioneer's Day at the Lewis and Clark fair which is scheduled for the 16th. With Mrs. Packwood he left Baker City on the early train this morning and will be one of the most interesting characters of the occasion. Mayor George H. Williams, ex-Governor L. E. Grover and Judge R. P. Boise are three other living signers of the Oregon constitution, says the Baker City Democrat.

Mr. Packwood has a long history to tell of the early days of Oregon.
Not as a man who in those rugged times happened to be in a place of peace and contentment, but as one who passed through the strenuous ordeals of the Rogue river Indian wars in the early '50s.

Briefly told, Mr. Packwood journeyed from his home in Jefferson county, Illinois across the plains in the spring of '49 to Sonoma, Cal. Arriving there in safety with his party after many hardships and escapes from imminent danger from Indians of the plains, he wintered in Benicia, Cal. In the spring of 1850 he came alone to As-toria on the revenue cutter Ewing, commanded by Captain McArthur, the father of the late Judge McArthur. At Astoria a party of seven was made up and these rowed a whale boat from the mouth of the Columbia river to Vancouver.

Mr. Packwood crossed over to Portland, which at that time he says amounted to no more than a village.
He remained a year and returned to California in May, 1851. At mining he made a stake and returned to Oregon in 1852. It was his intention to make Portland, but the schooner Lincoln on which he sailed, was wrecked off Coos bay and he and 11 others clung to the hulk until they were washed ashore at Empire City.

After this disaster he with two others made a journey to Port Orchard, seven miles down the coast from Cape Blanco. In Port Orchard Mr. Packwood made his home and formed the friendship of Captain William Tichenor the first or second licensed pilot that ever crossed the Columbia river bar. When the Indian war broke out in Curry and Jackson counties, Mr. Packwood followed them until their close. He amassed considerable money mining in the Jacksonville district and in 1862 came to eastern Oregon. He has been largely engaged in cattle raising and stock buying in Idaho, but he says his experiences since his pioneer days are savoring compared with his most early stormy trials of the Curry county Indian war times.

Cy Neel, a Colfax sheepman, has sold to E. H. Clark, of Pendleton, 32,000 pounds of wool for 191-1 cents, an advance of from 11-2 to 3 cents over the price offered him before shearing.

Largest Tug on Coast.

In tow of the tug Dauntless the oil barge Monterey reached Linton yesterday with 20,000 barrels of fuel oil; the Dauntless then came to Portland and moored at the Couch street dock.
She is in command of Captain Shea, who at one time was in charge of the steamer Elder, says the Oregon Daily Journal. The vessel is capable of developing 1000 horse-power, and is said to be the largest and finest tug on the Pacific coast. It is her first visit to this port, but from now on she will make frequent trips with the Monterey.

Often The Kidneys Are Weakened by Over-Work.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.
It used to be considered that only urinary and bladder troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the disorder of these most important organs.
The kidneys filter and purify the blood—that is their work.

Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr.
Kilmer's Swamp-Root, because as soon as your kidneys are well they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys.
The mild and extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases, and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.
Bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

OSTEOPATHY.

Children—Postural Defects.

Dr. George M. Gould in the "Medical Record," declares: "There is probably not a school desk in all the world constructed upon physiological principles. Think of the millions of morbidly raised right shoulders of the millions of necks and backs thus twisted and wrenched WITH ALL THE RESULTANT DISEASE THERE FROM!"

Dr. Gould's article does more than bring this wrong to public notice. It justifies the Osteopathic argument that disease results from deformities of the bony framework. In connection with the ever lengthening school year, it accounts for the increasing number of children with glasses, with anemia, with the many and persistent organic diseases. This is what the Osteopaths are preaching, and is, in fact, the very basis of the system; but here it is from the Old School.

Fortunately for the children of today, Osteopathy is able to correct these deformities, which are nothing more nor less than Osteopathic "lessons," misadjustments so often mentioned, and thus comes the ailment.
